DRAFT OF DADS IS UP TO F.D.R. AS BILL PASSES

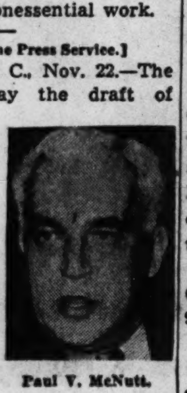
Measure Restricts McNutt Power.

Nazis Call Men 50

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Nov. 22 (AP).—Germany is preparing for her fifth winter of war by mobilizing all possible man power for military service, in some cases using 50 year old men on the battlefronts, dispatches from Swedish correspondents in Berlin said today. New labor mobilization checks are being prepared in order to eliminate all nonessential work.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—The proposal to delay the draft of fathers by putting them at the bottom of a nation-wide draft pool went to President Roosevelt tonight.



Paul V. McNutt.

The senate, in a voice vote this afternoon, approved a compromise bill to that effect. The measure, already approved by the house, was drawn by a conference committee appointed after the house and senate disagreed on the terms of the plan.

Curbs McNutt's Power.

As passed by congress, the bill would do these things:

1. Prohibit induction of fathers until after all eligible single men in the country have been inducted.

2. Remove from War Man Power Commissioner Paul V. McNutt the control of the draft system, placing it back in the hands of Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, selective service chief.

3. Prohibit the induction of men by occupational classes, usually referred to as "work or fight orders."

Provide Physical Reviews.

4. Establish a five man medical commission to review the physical and mental standards of the army and navy with an eye to reducing them so that more men now classified 4-F will be available.

5. Tighten industrial deferments by requiring that all such deferments be reviewed by the selective service appeal boards which have jurisdiction over the registrants' places of employment.

Sen. Burton K. Wheeler [D., Mont]. who first introduced a bill to delay the draft of fathers, today raised the question of whether the administration might not be able to ignore the intent of congress in passing the bill by taking advantage of a modifying clause inserted by the conference committee. This clause asserts that the use of the national man power pool system in the draft shall be only to the extent that it does not interfere with the needs of the services and the regular flow of men into the army and navy.

Called Escape Clause.

This clause, termed an "escape clause" by Sen. Edwin C. Johnson [D., Colo.] and a "flexibility clause" by Sen. Warren R. Austin [R., Vt.], it is conceded, makes the new draft provisions subject to interpretation and is not arbitrary, but Sen. Robert A. Taft [R., O.] pointed out that the congressional intent now is clear and that the draft system has a definite rule to follow in inducting fathers last.

Sen. Johnson said today that the delay in the drafting of some fathers affected by the bill "might possibly" be two or three months.

6 Children Die in Fire Near Chicago Heights

Father Burned Saving Wife; 2 Others Escape

Six children, the oldest 15 years old, are believed to have been burned to death last night in a fire that destroyed their two story frame farm home at Joe Orr road and Stony Island avenue, in Bloom township. Their parents and two other children survived. The farm is northeast of Chicago Heights.

Their father, John Hoogewoning, 48 years old, a truck gardener, was critically burned when he attempted to rescue the children after he had carried his wife, Lollie, 38, to safety.

Expecting Ninth Child.

Mrs. Hoogewoning, who is expecting her ninth child soon, also was burned. They were taken to St. James hospital in Chicago Heights.

The eight children were sleeping in bedrooms on the second floor. Hoogewoning told county highway police that he and his wife, who were sleeping in a room on the first floor, were awakened by the screams of their oldest daughter, Gerrite, 17, as she came down a blazing staircase carrying Carl, 3, in her arms.

Hoogewoning said the upper floor of the house already was an inferno when he entered it, groping thru the smoke in a search for the children. He said he believed he touched one of them before the heat forced him to retreat.

The children believed dead are Casey, 15; John, 14; Billie, 10; Joan, 9; Helen, 6, and Christie, 18 months.

No Water to Fight Fire.

Firemen from Glenwood and Chicago Heights responded to the fire, but were unable to fight the blaze because no water was available in the neighborhood. They were unable immediately to commence a search for the bodies of the victims because of the intense heat remaining in the ruins.

Hoogewoning also is employed in a South Holland slaughter house.

His oldest daughter and Carl were taken to the home of a neighbor. It was reported they had escaped unhurt.

HOW WOMAN, 24, FLEW ATLANTIC AS STOWAWAY

MONTREAL, Quebec, Nov. 22 (AP).—Called the first person to fly from England to Canada as a stowaway, Margaret Drury, 24 years old, a Lancashire ground mechanic, filled in the details tonight on how she did it.

Her ankles puffed from standing in the nose wheel compartment of a Liberator for 19 hours, the young woman, who arrived Sunday, held up a pair of stockings some one gave her here and said:

"I'm jolly sorry for all the trouble I'm causing, but these stockings are certainly worth the trip."

Miss Drury wanted to fly "but there are so many other women in Britain with the same idea that I was afraid the war would be over before I could get an opportunity. So I stole a ride to Canada."

A Canadian immigration board of inquiry rejected her plea for admission to Canada and sent her appeal to Ottawa for final decision.

Meantime, Miss Drury has collected such home-rare items as a girdle "with real elastic," and a jar of foundation cream and has had eggs—real eggs—twice a day.

SOLDIER VOTE BILL SUFFERS SENATE BLOWS

Only General Idea Left in Measure.

BY JOHNSON KANADY.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—The senate operated on the Green-Lucas soldier vote bill today and left only the skeleton to be padded out by pending amendments later in the week.

Justice Harlan Stone.

Left untouched was the bill's purpose—to provide a means of voting for President and other federal officials in 1944 by men and women who have been removed from their homes by war service—and the general idea that such votes will be cast by airmail under the general supervision of a federal commission.

With this principle in mind, Republican senators went to work to revise the measure as to remove features regarded objectionable.

No Judicial Umpire.

Their amendments, and those made by the bill's sponsors in anticipation of the Republican objections, accomplished these changes:

1. The membership of the commission supervising the law would be limited to two Republicans and two Democrats, with a majority vote of three required for any agreement. The original bill had called for the appointment of a federal judge by the chief justice of the United States to act as an umpire should there be a tie vote. This provision was stricken on the strength of a letter from Chief Justice Harlan F. Stone, declining to take any part in naming a federal judge as a fifth member of the commission.

2. The commission's authority to investigate alleged vote frauds was stricken from the bill, along with a provision that would have enabled the commission to determine whether the administration of the federal soldier vote law by a state was such that the state's electoral vote should be thrown out in deciding the final results of a Presidential election.

Other Changes Proposed.

Other amendments, which will be acted upon later in the week, would make these changes:

1. The bill would apply only to men and women of the army, navy, marine corps, and coast guard, with all reference to the merchant marine and civilian employes of the federal government stricken.

2. Thru an amendment to the Hatch act to prevent pernicious political activities, no government propaganda designed to sway election sentiment would be allowed to be transmitted by any federal agency to members of the military services overseas. At the same time the right of candidates and political organizations to entreat soldiers for their votes would be guaranteed.

Seeks 4th Term Hint.

3. The President of the United States would be disqualified from being a candidate if he determines to exercise the authority given him in the bill to appoint the commission. If he does want to be a candidate again, the authority to appoint the balloting commission would devolve upon the latest living ex-President.

4. Federal supervision of the vote

Nurses Given Tough Course in Air School

BY WILLIAM SHINNICK.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22.—Training virtually as tough as any given to men in the services is being meted out to nurses at the army air force's school of air evacuation at Bowman field. It is designed to fortify them against the dangers and harships of foreign service.

Both women and men are in the class about to graduate in preparation for the task of evacuating the wounded by ambulance plane from battlefronts.

This morning they started from the airfield early. They marched nine miles in steel helmets, belts, and canteens, and wearing gas masks. On the way they were bombed with sacks of flour. They were gassed with real tear gas, not once, but several times.

Take to Ditches.

What did they do when the bombers came? They took to the ditches and they didn't do it half-heartedly. They went all the way, stomachs in the mud.

When the gas came their way, they followed orders and donned masks. One nurse was a little slow and got so much gas she had to end the march in an ambulance. She was all right ten minutes later.

The others all went into the bivouac area where they were to hold a three day maneuver singing a rollicking song and with a devil may care attitude. They were lined up; details were appointed. Some of the nurses set to work digging latrines, ablution pits, garbage pits, and fire trenches.

Sniff Deadly Gases.

They were interrupted in this outdoor housekeeping by call to dinner. After dinner they were lined up in an open field and given minute doses of the deadliest gases known to man—"so you'll know it when you smell it."

That done, more exhausting work began. Twelve groups, each with a compass, were given an objective. Part of the way they walked; part of the way they crawled.

Snipers harried them with blank ammunition. To teach them an important lesson, their officers played a joke on them. They planted firecrackers that exploded loudly when the nurses walked into a deserted house.

"You'd have been killed by a booby trap in real war," an instructor told one who failed to exercise due caution.

The patroling by compass finished, the girls—most of them young and attractive—took on another test, walking thru a smoke cloud with gas masks on.

Tonight they are sleeping under the stars. Tomorrow will be like today, but tougher. Under war conditions they and the men of the unit will evacuate wounded.

Over the fields, down the roads, across the Ohio river half a dozen miles away, and finally by ambulance to the airfield, and back to the base hospital Indiana—that's the ticket.

Why all this? So the wounded may benefit. The air evacuation force has perfected ways to change a troop transport in seven minutes into an ambulance plane for 24 evacuees. With the injured on each plane will go one nurse and one enlisted man who must know their simple surgery and their drugs.

Morale Excellent.

The morale of the nurses is described as high.

"I have never seen their like," said 1st Lt. Andrew F. Gruber, instructor of military art for the detail, whose home address is 3925 North Ashland avenue, Chicago.

"Their morale is marvelous," said Col. Ralph T. Stevenson, commandant of the school.

Among the nurses who are to receive their diplomas Friday are Margaret Parson, Winnetka, Ill.; Eloise Richardson, Marseilles, Ill.; Helen West, Beloit, Wis., and Doris Nylander, Osco, Ill., and Berma Harrington, Roseville, Ill.

BERLIN ADMITS HEAVY DAMAGE AS BRITAIN'S BOMBERS RIP CAPITAL

LONDON, Nov. 23 [Tuesday]—(AP).—Berlin was bombed last night by British bombers, the German radio said early today. "A great deal of damage" resulted, the broadcast admitted. It described the raid as a "big terror attack"—the usual description given by the Nazis to heavy and destructive air assaults.

The German capital's fire fighting squads began battling flames started by the block busters while the attack still was going on, the broadcast said. The attack was carried out despite dense clouds and complete lack of visibility, it added. A British announcement later confirmed that Germany had been under attack, but gave no details.

Find Hammer Killer Sane; Faces Trial

Paul Harrison, hammer slayer of three men and a woman in 1930 and 1931, was found sane last night by a jury of seven women and five men in Judge Rudolph Desort's Criminal court. The jury deliberated four hours 10 minutes before reaching its verdict.

The legal action to have himself declared sane was begun by Harrison from the Illinois Security hospital at Menard, where he was committed 11 years ago after confessing the hammer murders. Harrison, now 38, denies the crimes.

Slayer Misses Jury's Verdict.

Harrison was not in the courtroom when the verdict was read, having been taken to the county jail for the night. He was informed of the jury's finding by his attorney, Thaddeus Toudor, who has represented him since he began his efforts to obtain freedom more than a year ago.

The defendant's immediate release was blocked when Assistant State's Atty. Gordon Nash asked the court to set a motion for a new trial to permit him to confer with State's Atty. Courtney and First Assistant Wilbert Crowley as to whether the three murder charges against Harrison would be reinstated.

Judge Desort set Nov. 29 for the hearing.

Toudor said that the state's case against Harrison in the murder charge was weak.

Confession Held Valueless.

In the original hearing, the state called as a witness Dr. Harry R. Hoffman, the head of the Criminal court behavior clinic, who examined Harrison and pronounced him insane. Toudor pointed out last night that Harrison's confession was thus made by an insane man and consequently would be valueless in court.

Harrison in 1932 confessed that he had hammered to death Dr. James Shaffer, a dentist, in his office at 3801 Broadway; Earl Davis, 22, a watchman; Charles Pagel, 27 East Harrison street, and Miss Norma Newby, whom he killed in the Elk Grove forest preserve.

Legion to Hear of Reds' Rule in War Plants

$500 PRIZE.

The Chicago Tribune will pay $500 for the best letter written by a war worker making the most constructive proposal for increasing production and efficiency in Chicagoland war plants. Ten prizes of $50 each will be paid for the next best 10 letters.

BY ORVILLE DWYER AND GEORGE HARTMANN.

Members of the Americanism and subversive activities committees of the American Legion's Cook County council tonight will join in a meeting at 100 North La Salle street, in which they will listen to stories of their own colleagues concerning control of production and restriction of output by Communists in war plants.

Loyal American workers in the big Chicago plant operated by Studebaker have charged that the Reds, thru sitdowns, slowdowns, and the fixing of low daily quotas for output, have actually ruled the 20 million dollar war plant and openly defied the management. The management has neither affirmed nor denied the charge. It has explained that it wanted at all cost to meet the quota of airplane engines demanded by the army air forces.

Plant's Efficiency Around 70 Pct.

Harold S. Vance, chairman of the Studebaker corporation board, explained last Friday that the management has succeeded in doing that—even tho the efficiency of the big plant is around 70 per cent.

The Americanism committee of the Legion's county council is headed by Atty. Elliodor M. Libonati; the committee on subversive activities by Edward Clamage, former department commander of Illinois. The two men made their announcement after they had conducted an independent investigation of conditions in the Studebaker and other Chicago area war plants.

A number of Legionnaires working in the Studebaker and other war plants are expected to tell their stories to the committee members.

"Proof about what the Communists actually have been doing will be presented to the committees," Libonati said.

ARMY QUIZZES RED CHIEFS

The split between the loyal American workers in the Studebaker plant and the Communist ruled union chiefs of local 998 of the United Automobile Workers-CIO international widened during the day. The loyal Americans grew bolder and drew farther away from the Communist officers of their union. The Reds attacked THE TRIBUNE.

Reports which spread among the workers that representatives of the office of the provost marshal general of the army were in the plant and investigating certain leaders had their effect. Army headquarters here said that this was a "routine loyalty" check by the investigation section of the internal security division of the 6th army command but workers said the investigators

W. WARREN BARBOUR, G. O. P. SENATOR FROM NEW JERSEY, IS DEAD

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22 (AP).—Republican Sen. W. Warren Barbour, 55 years old, of New Jersey, died at his home tonight of a coronary thrombosis following a brief illness.

W. Warren Barbour.

Barbour was born in Monmouth Beach, N. J. He was appointed to the United States senate Dec. 1, 1931, to succeed the late Dwight W. Morrow. He was defeated for reëlection in 1936, but was returned to the senate two years later for the unexpired term vacated by resignation of Sen. A. Harry Moore, who became governor. He was reëlected in 1940 for a term ending in January, 1947.

Barbour was a wealthy thread manufacturer. In 1938, in the senatorial campaign, he defeated William H. J. Ely, who was indorsed by Jersey City's mayor, Frank Hague. Barbour's successor will be named by Gov. Charles Edison, a Democrat, to serve until the election next November. The person elected then will serve out Barbour's unexpired term.

HIT 3D GILBERT ISLE; FIGHT ON FOR 2 OTHERS

Positions Improved, Says Nimitz.

PEARL HARBOR, T. H., Nov. 22 (AP).—The three day old wedge being driven by American marines and soldiers in the Gilbert Islands has been expanded over more than 100 miles of atoll and sea by a marine landing on Apamama atoll, also called Abemama and Hopper, while progress was made in fighting on Tarawa and Makin, Adm. Chester W. Nimitz announced today.

Vice Adm. Raymond A. Spruance.

Told in Sentence.

Without mentioning the time or opposition, the commander in chief of the Pacific fleet reported the new landing on Apamama, which is 80 miles southeast of Tarawa.

The assault was announced in one sentence:

"We have landed on Apamama atoll."

This atoll was believed to be lightly defended and the fact no mention was made of opposition was seen as encouraging.

Utilizing artillery, machine guns, and pillbox defenses, the Japanese were yielding slowly in the struggle on the other two atolls, invaded Saturday.

Nimitz' bulletin was encouraging but brief on this phase. It said only that "our troops have improved their position on Tarawa and Makin atolls, but are still encountering considerable ground resistance."

Liberators heavily bombed the airdrome area at Nauru Island and continued diversionary attacks in the Marshalls, Adm. Nimitz's bulletin added.

New Command Announced.

Creation of a new naval command in the Pacific under Vice Adm. Raymond A. Spruance, hero of the battle of Midway, was disclosed simultaneously. Spruance is in command of the Central Pacific forces. Since the United States has not secured any island base in the Central Pacific except the Hawaiian Islands, it is presumed his base will be aboard a warship until a land base is occupied.

Coöperating with Spruance are Rear Adm. Richmond Kelly Turner of Carmel, Cal., named commander of the amphibious force, and Vice Adm. John H. Hoover of Great Falls, Mont., commander of the aircraft [both army and navy ground-based] for Central Pacific operations.

Spruance, of Indianapolis, Ind., has been Nimitz's chief of staff for more than a year. He helped lead United States naval forces in a smashing defeat of the Japanese fleet at Midway June 4, 1942.

Identify U. S. Invaders.

It was further disclosed that the Tarawa landings were made by the 2d marines in command of Maj. Gen. Julian C. Smith of Elkton, Md., the Makin assault by troops of the 27th division [New York National Guard], commanded by Maj. Gen. Ralph Smith of Montgomery, Ala., of the marines is in command of landing forces.

Additionally, it was learned that Marine Lt. Col. James Roosevelt had landed with the infantry on Makin.

Roosevelt's landing, presumed to be primarily as an observer, since he is with the army instead of his own leathernecks, marked his return to the atoll he assaulted with Lt. Col. Evans Carlson's marine raiders Aug. 17 and 18, 1942. The marines at that time wiped out every one of the Japanese on Makin.

ISLES COCONUT-COVERED

Apamama Island, the latest Gilbert atoll on which United States forces in the central Pacific have landed, is known also as Abemama and Hopper Island. It is really an atoll similar to Tarawa and Makin, comprising a chain of small islets surrounding a central lagoon.

The islands are six to 10 feet above the sea level and covered with coconut palms and dense undergrowth. The population in 1931, the last recorded by the United States navy hydrographic office, was 893, including seven Europeans.

Apamama is about in the center of the Gilbert group. This little archipelago consists of 15 islands, each of which has a native as well as an English name. These, extending from northwest to southeast, are Makin or Taitari, Maraki or Matthew, Apaiang or Charlotte, Tarawa, also known as Cook or Knox; Maiana or Hall, Apamama or Hopper, Aranuka or Henderville, Kuria or Woodle, Nonuti or Sydenham, Tapeteuea or Drummond, Beru or Francis, Nukunau or Byron, Onotoa or Clerk, Tamana or Rotcher, and Arorai or Hurd.

How They're Pronounced.

The islands on which the Americans have landed are pronounced as follows:

Makin—Mah-keen, with accent on "keen."

Tarawa—Tah-rah-wah, with accent or "wah."

Apamama—Ah-pah-mah-mah, with accent on the first "mah."

The eastern, or weather sides of these islands, are steep, and ships can approach within half a mile or a mile, but the western sides are fronted with sunken reefs, sandsplits, and coral patches, which in some cases extend out into the ocean for miles.

Apamama has a western passage about a mile wide and with a depth of 2½ fathoms, and a southwestern passage marked by Bike Island with a channel 600 yards wide and 5 fathoms deep, not enough for large ships.

Tarawa Was Capital.

Tarawa is a chain of long, narrow islets located on a reef shaped like a right triangle, with Lone Tree Islet at its northern extremity, and Betio or Bititu Island at its western end. Betio is the spot on which the Yanks landed.

Uider British administration Tarawa was headquarters for the senior administrative officer and senior medical officer of the Gilbert group who had their residences on Betio. There was also a Catholic mission, a hospital, a leper station, a lunatic asylum, a radio station, and a jail. In 1931 the population was 3,013, including 23 Europeans.

Makin Island is about 70 miles north of Tarawa, and its southeastern side is almost continuous for 16 miles; like the other atolls, densely wooded with pandanus and coconut trees. The village of Tanimaiaki is located here. The western side of the atoll consists of several scattered islets lying on the main reef, which is broken by several ship passages, and is the port of entry for vessels.

300 Miles from Jap Base.

Makin is only 300 miles south of the base at Jaluit in the Japanese owned Marshall Islands. It was occupied by the Japanese together with the 19 or more other Gilbert Islands shortly after the outbreak of the war.

Two trading posts, one of which was Japanese, were located southwestward of the government station. Pigs, poultry, and some other provisions were obtainable on the island, which also had a radio station. The population in 1931 was 1,673, including 15 Europeans. Tarawa's population was listed at 3,000.

Population of the entire Gilbert archipelago was 26,528 in 1941. It was not known how many of them were Europeans.

The Gilberts, which were under British protection from 1915 until seized by the Japanese, lie athwart the equator almost on a direct line between Hawaii and Australia, about 2,400 miles southwest of the former.

JAPS AGREE TO LET INTERNEES RECEIVE MONEY

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22 (AP).—The state department announced today that arrangements have been completed to send funds to interned American civilians in the Philippines thru the Swiss legation at Tokio.

After prolonged efforts by the department and the American Red Cross, the statement said, the Japanese agreed to allow monthly remittances of money to buy relief supplies locally. A total of $50,000 has been sent to the largest camp at Santo Tomas, near Manila, and the plan permits $25,000 to be forwarded each month for the 2,300 persons held there.

Other funds have been set up for the 1,781 Americans in the smaller camps. Efforts are continuing to make similar arrangements for prisoners of war.

U. S. TO RELEASE ARMY VEHICLES FOR CIVILIAN USE

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22 (AP).—Several thousand noncombatant army vehicles, most of them trucks, will be released soon to relieve shortages of motor vehicles and spare parts for essential civilian uses, the war department announced today.

All the vehicles were manufactured in 1940 or earlier and the department said the army could keep them in serviceable condition only by drawing heavily on commercial dealers' stocks of spare parts, which are needed to service commercial fleets.

Third Island in Gilberts Invaded

AUSSIES REACH WITHIN ½ MILE OF GUINEA BASE

19,000 Tons Jap Ships Blasted.

SOUTHWEST PACIFIC HQS., Nov. 23 [Tuesday]—(AP).—Australian soldiers, supported by 26 ton British tanks, have punched their way thru the northeastern New Guinea jungles to within half a mile of the core of the Japanese defenses on high ground around Sattelberg.

The drive on Sattelberg is one directed inland eight miles northwest of allied held Finschhafen on the Huon peninsula coast against forces whose jungle plateau positions overlook those of Gen. MacArthur's men. In support of the Aussie drive allied planes on Sunday bombed and strafed the enemy for a half hour.

Patrols Kill 50 Japs.

"In the coastal sector our forces are astride the Bona-Wareo track and killed 50 of the enemy in patrol skirmishes," said the bulletin.

Gen. MacArthur's headquarters also reported that during the last 48 hours aircraft flown by members of three allied nations—the United States, Australia, and the Netherlands—have sunk or damaged 19,000 tons of Japanese shipping. These were among the outstanding shipping blows:

American Liberators sank a 4,000 ton vessel off Manokwari, Dutch New Guinea, and shot down two and damaged one of six intercepting float planes. Enemy anti-aircraft fire downed one of the Liberators.

2,000 Ton Ship Sunk.

Near the Aroe Islands in the same area, Dutch flown Mitchells with Australian manned Beaufighters for cover sank a 2,000 ton ship and two small coastal vessels and damaged a 4,000 ton freighter transport the same morning. Liberators in the Aroe area sank a 1,000 ton ship and shot down four Japanese planes.

A Liberator located three Japanese merchantmen in the vicinity of Kavieng, New Ireland, and set fire to the largest ship of 8,000 tons. It was listed as probably sunk.

Before dawn that day, a United States navy Catalina spotted a six ship convoy heading for Rabaul and bombed it, but was not able to observe the results.

In support of the Solomons beachhead operation on Bougainville, nearly 100 Avengers, Corsairs, and Dauntlesses struck along the coast southward Saturday, Adm. William F. Halsey's headquarters advised. It was that same day that an unspecified number of Japanese planes attacked the American troops.

Mussolini Suicide, Swiss Dispatch to Sweden Says

LONDON, Nov. 23 [Tuesday] (AP).—A roundabout Reuters [British] dispatch from Stockholm said today Benito Mussolini was reported to have committed suicide yesterday at his Lake Garda villa. The correspondent said it had been reported Mussolini arrived at his villa a few days age in an extremely nervous state and that specialists were summoned from Rome, but arrived after Mussolini took his own life in a fit of depression.

JAPS USE POISON GAS IN BATTLE, CHINESE CHARGE

CHUNGKING, China, Nov. 22 (AP).—Japanese infantry, cavalry, artillery, and aviation hammered at the approaches to Changteh today in an effort to blast open the way to the Hunan province capital of Changsha, where they previously have met three great defeats.

While the Japanese fought at close quarters to the northwest and southeast of Changteh in an encircling battle, they were reported bringing 10,000 troops to their base at Yochow, evidently in readiness to spring a two way offensive from both the western and eastern shores of Tungting lake toward Changsha, 50 miles south of the lake in central China.

The Chinese high command in a special bulletin charged that the Japanese had won part of their success by using poison gas on a large scale. The bulletin said written orders had been found on Japanese corpses confirming the use of poison gas.

Lay Siege to Hanshow.

The charge was one of many which the Chinese have made since President Roosevelt in June, 1942, said the United States would retaliate in kind and in full measure if the Japanese persisted in the use of gas.

The Japanese were throwing a large part of their force of 80,000 into a drive southeast of Tzeli, 30 miles northwest of Changteh. Twenty miles southeast of Changteh they were laying siege to Hanshow in a threat to the road linking Changteh with Changsha.

With communications in the Changteh area in their hands, the Japanese would be in a position to prevent Chinese flank attacks such as trapped large Japanese forces in the previous campaigns for Changsha.

The Chungking bulletin said Chinese forces were attacking the invading columns from the side and rear and hammering fiercely at Japanese bases.

Cut Off Jap Force.

Chinese columns were said to be converging on Lihsien, 45 miles north of Changteh, and to have cut off and wiped out a large number of Japanese in the mountains southwest of Ichang, Yangtze river port.

The Chinese also were attacking several points near Ichang itself and were said to have recaptured several places on the outskirts of Kingmen, 50 miles northeast of Ichang.

American airmen, in support of the Chinese, bombed Japanese installations at Tzeli Saturday, starting many fires. The Americans bombed barracks and warehouses on Nampang Island off the China coast, and at the port of Swatow, and sank a gunboat and freighter and damaged five cargo ships in the China sea.

'BIG 3' EXPECTED TO ASK PLAN FOR A NEW GERMANY

LONDON, Nov. 22 (AP).—Allied consideration of a post-war political and economic structure for Germany is expected to be speeded up as a result of the meeting of President Roosevelt, Prime Minister Churchill, and Premier Josef Stalin which is believed to be imminent.

[A Reuters (British) dispatch from Washington Saturday night said an announcement was expected soon in Washington on a meeting of Mr. Roosevelt, Churchill, and Stalin.]

Following a preliminary exchange of views by the three chiefs of state, this problem, involving peace enforcement and control of German industry, is likely to be submitted to the new European advisory commission in London for joint study. The problem is likely to be referred to the commission as too complex for a snap judgment.

WINDSOR DENIES HE DISLIKES HIS BAHAMAS' POST

Miami, Fla., Nov. 22 (AP).—Edward Windsor and his wife arrived in Miami from Washington, D. C., today, perturbed over reports that he is dissatisfied with his office of governor of the Bahama Islands. "I don't know how that report could have started," said the former king of England. "It is very wrong. I am quite satisfied and very interested in the colony." His wife nodded approval.

CHICAGOAN WOUNDED NEAR BRENNER PASS, THEN WINS FURLOUGH

Sgt. R. F. Natkin.

Wounded on his 49th bombing mission, which took him close to Brenner pass, Tech. Sgt. Robert F. Natkin spent the next 30 days talking himself out of the hospital so he could complete his 50th mission and get a furlough.

Natkin arrived at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Natkin, 1363 Greenleaf avenue, yesterday "to catch up" on food and sleep. He had entered the air service in 1941 and spent 16 months overseas as an aerial photographer.

The sergeant was among the American flyers who made the two bombing raids on Rome. On his 49th mission his bomber was over Bolvano, just south of the Brenner pass, when anti-aircraft fire exploded in the photo pit and wounded him.

"I was knocked out of action, but I got my picture," Natkin said. After a month he managed to get out of the hospital in North Africa and make his furlough mission.

BRITONS' ANGER OVER MOSLEY'S RELEASE GROWS

LONDON, Nov. 22 (AP).—British war workers' resentment over the release from prison of Oswald Mosley, pre-war Fascist leader, reached a new pitch today. That Home Secretary Herbert Morrison will face a barrage of questions from Labor party members when the house of commons reconvenes was generally agreed.

More and more protests came from all parts of the United Kingdom, notably from the industrial Midlands and Scotland. Signatures on street corner petitions headed "Back to Jail with Mosley," were said to have passed the quarter of a million mark in a west district of London alone.

In London last night 1,200 workers passed a resolution urging the government to reverse its decision. Labor party representatives today demanded the rearrest of Mosley and his immediate trial as a war criminal.

Estimate Europe's Supply Needs When Peace Comes

LONDON, Nov. 22.—It was made known today that the occupied countries of Europe will need 45,855,000 tons of foodstuffs, raw materials, and "prime necessities" in the first six months of peace. These materials will require an estimated 23,485,000 tons of shipping.

HINT MEDICINE CAUSED 'CHANGE' IN TYLER GIRL

Friend of Suicide Tells of Doctor's Treatment.

In an effort to clear up every shred of mystery surrounding the suicide of Miss Marjorie Tyler, 28 year old medical secretary, Dr. Lyman Perkins, Kendall county coroner, will delve into several hitherto unexplored angles of the case when the formal inquest into the girl's death opens Friday at Yorkville, it was revealed last night.

One of these angles is the statement by a common friend of the dead girl and her divorced husband that Marjorie's personality underwent a marked change after she began taking special medicine prescribed for her by a physician.

Surprised at Divorce.

"These treatments may have had something to do with her act," the friend said last night. "She told me she was being given an extract. It was while she was undergoing these treatments that we noted a change in her. Every one was surprised when she announced she planned to seek a divorce."

This disclosure came as the Cook county grand jury questioned Dr. Victor G. Lands, resident physician at Wesley Memorial, who has admitted falsifying County hospital records in Marjorie's case, for three hours, and also examined other witnesses.

Repeats His Testimony.

Dr. Lands is reported to have repeated his inquest testimony to the effect that he found Miss Tyler in her apartment at 223 East Superior street the afternoon of Nov. 10 unconscious from inhaling illuminating gas; that at the request of her mother, Mrs. Charles V. Tyler of Plano, Kendall county, he refrained from taking her to Wesley Memorial hospital across the street; that he took her to County hospital after attempting to get her into Norwegian-American hospital, and that subsequently he altered her chart to indicate that she died the following Saturday from brain hemorrhage rather than gas poisoning. He did this, he said, in an effort to save the parents embarrassment.

Pullman Porter Testifies.

During the day, the jury definitely placed Dr. Raymond W. McNealy, chief surgeon at Wesley Memorial and chief of staff at County hospital, and Miss Tyler's employer, in Chattanooga, Tenn., the afternoon of Nov. 10.

This was accomplished thru the testimony of a Pullman porter, J. C. Parsons, who testified that Dr. McNealy boarded his car on a Chicago bound train in Chattanooga that afternoon.

The point arose when Mrs. Mary Agnes Kokes, a neighbor of Miss Tyler, told authorities she saw Dr. McNealy and another man leave the building in which Miss Tyler's apartment was located, the afternoon the girl was found unconscious. Later Mrs. Kokes retracted her statement, and still later confirmed it, stating that she had been influenced in her retraction by Anthony C. Prusinski, a deputy coroner.

Girl's Friend to Testify.

Prusinski is scheduled to appear before the jury today, together with Miss Helen Peck, 321 Belden avenue, a friend of Miss Tyler. It was Miss Peck who summoned Miss Tyler's mother to Chicago after Miss Tyler had been missing from Dr. McNealy's office for two days.

It is reported that some of the jurors, including the 13 women members, are curious to learn from Miss Peck whether Mrs. Tyler remained with her daughter in County hospital until oxygen was administered.

The friend of Miss Tyler and her former husband who last night disclosed the metamorphosis in the girl's personality holds a responsible position and expressed a desire to remain anonymous if possible, but said he will appear at the inquest Friday if his testimony will help vindicate the dead girl's character.

"Marjorie and Russell [Russell Buehler] were an ideal couple," he said. "They knew each other about two years prior to their marriage. We visited back and forth and had our vacations together and so learned to know them well. The change came over Marjorie very suddenly.

"I feel that her character has been maligned by some of the testimony that she was mentally unstable. Nothing is more untrue of the girl we knew. I think some testimony might be given on the nature of these treatments which may have had something to do with her death."

WPB Lifts Ban on Three Anti-Freeze Solutions

Permission has been granted for the sale of three of the 22 brands of motor car anti-freeze recently banned because they were considered harmful to auto parts, it was announced yesterday by J. F. Driscoll, manager of the Chicago district office of the war production board. They are No-Freeze, made in Oak Park; Freeze-Proof, and Safas. They have been found slightly injurious to rubber, but not to metals, Driscoll said.

Father of Six Called in Draft

Date Is Set

Andrew C. Connolley, 33 years old, of Stone Park, father of six children ranging in age from 18 months to 8 years, yesterday was notified by the Bellwood draft board to report for induction Dec. 2.

Connolley was notified Sept. 15 that he had been reclassified 1-A and was told he could forestall induction only by getting a job in a war plant. He accordingly went to work at the Buick plant in Melrose Park, he said.

When he received his notice of induction, he said the draft board told him it had checked employment records at the Buick plant but was advised that he was not employed. Connolley said he insisted that he works at the plant, but that the board indicated there was insufficient time to review his case.

Connolley's wife, Rose, 30, would receive a total allotment from the government of $180 if her husband is inducted. For herself and one child she would receive $80. For each additional child she would get $20.

RATION VALUES ON MEATS TO BE CUT 1 TO 2 POINTS

New Tables Become Effective Dec. 5.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—The amount of beef and other meats released to civilians will be increased in December thru the lowering of ration values one to two points, rationing officials said tonight.

Meat ration point tables which will go into effect Dec. 5 are being prepared and will reflect reports from the war food administration on current and anticipated supplies. Lower meat points have been urged by the packing industry to relieve the pressure of heavy marketings of hogs and cattle.

Last Friday the office of price administration cut all pork items two points a pound for a limited period to encourage consumer buying of the peak hog crop now being slaughtered.

Meat Stocks Larger.

Meat stocks are substantially larger than a year ago, the WFA reported. On Nov. 1 cold storage warehouses held 134 million pounds of beef compared with 117 million pounds a year earlier, and 339 million pounds of pork against 257½ million pounds on Nov. 1, 1942.

Beef supplies this year have been augmented by the decision of numerous producers to sell large portions of their herds in the face of uncertain prices and feed supplies, trade sources said. The WFA predicted an all-time high production of 24 billion pounds of meat this year, with cattle and calf slaughter exceeding the 1942 total by more than a million head.

Increase Meat Inventories.

Altho November and December are the month of peak live stock slaughtering, rationing officials said that civilian meat rations cannot be raised more liberally because of the need for building up inventories for the spring and summer.

Rationing officials said the lowering of point values to permit civilians to buy more meat would discourage black market operations.

"When the amount of meat on the market is greater than the supply of points in the hands of consumers," Chester Bowles, OPA director said, "black market gangs find conditions favorable for plying their trade."

OPA also announced today a plan under which industrial users of rationed foods will obtain their allotment under a single program.

These users will re-register for sugar, meats-fats, and processed foods.

IF BABY NEEDS RUBBER PANTS, JOIN THE ARMY

Four pairs of infants' rubber pants, unobtainable locally, arrived in Aurora yesterday from Italy for the children of Ensign and Mrs. Maurice Bugbee—a boy, 20 months old, and a girl, 7 months old. Ensign Bugbee, former football coach at Aurora college and instructor at the Morgan Park Military academy, bought them in Italy and mailed them to his wife, Mildred, who lives at 16 North Harrison avenue, Aurora. Bugbee has been in the Mediterranean area since last June.

Hitler Insures Krupps as Owners of Arms Plant

New York, Nov. 22.—The German news agency said today that Adolf Hitler had issued a decree guaranteeing the reorganization of the Krupp munition works as a perpetual "family concern" because it had "rendered outstanding and, in its own way, unique services to the defensive power of the German nation for 132 years."

DEMAND HOUSE PROBE CHARGE AGAINST PATTON

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22 (AP).—Two congressmen tonight demanded a house military committee investigation into a report by Radio Commentator Drew Pearson that Lt. Gen. George S. Patton Jr. had been "severely reprimanded" by Gen. Eisenhower and would not "be used in combat any more."

The requests came from Representatives John M. Coffee [D., Wash.] and Calvin Johnson [R., Ill.] who declared the public should be informed of the facts in the case.

"People Entitled to Know."

Pearson said in a broadcast yesterday that Eisenhower had reprimanded Patton following an altercation which the commentator said was caused when Patton ordered a shell shocked soldier from bed in a Sicilian hospital and a medical officer intervened. Allied headquarters in Algiers denied today that Patton had been reprimanded.

Coffee said an investigation should be conducted at once because "the American people are entitled to know whether Patton is or is not to be used in combat."

Johnson urged an investigation in justice to Patton and the public. He observed that the treatment of soldiers by officers is "a matter of concern to every one."

Suggests Investigation.

Pearson stated that his information came from "high officials of the war department" and suggested that the Truman committee investigate immediately.

Chairman Harry S. Truman [D., Mo.] of the senate war investigating committee announced, however, that such inquiries are "not within the jurisdiction of our committee."

Sen. Kilgore [D., W. Va.] said "when officers make mistakes they should not be shielded." He added that "it is important to note that the war department has as yet not denied Pearson's story. . . ."

"Still in Command": Algiers.

ALLIED HDQ., Algiers, Nov. 22 (AP).—Allied headquarters denied today that Lt. Gen. George S. Patton Jr. has been reprimanded by Gen. Eisenhower and announced that he still commands the American 7th army.

"Gen. Patton is commanding the 7th army, has commanded it since it was activated, and is continuing to command it," said the announcement. "No report has ever reached this headquarters of any soldier refusing to obey an order by Gen. Patton. Gen. Patton has never been reprimanded at any time by Gen. Eisenhower or by anybody else in this theater."

Correspondents Restricted.

Today's statement was read to correspondents in the headquarters pressroom, with this statement at its conclusion:

"That's all there is to it."

Correspondents were told they would not be permitted to send any other information they might have on the subject which Pearson had opened.

The 7th army has not been mentioned as participating in any fighting since the end of the Sicilian campaign. Patton recently appeared before troops in North Africa in company with Eisenhower.

In battle Patton has driven the soldiers under him as hard as he has driven himself. Many times in the Sicilian campaign he sent exhausted and almost collapsing troops into battle for the final blow which took enemy positions.

In the heat of battle the general is contemptuous of his personal safety and has exhibited highly emotional characteristics. He has been known to break into tears on occasion.

Citation Awarded

Walter A. Schellhorn, 2627 North Harding avenue, was named state champion scrap metal spotter yesterday noon by salvage officials of the war production board at Treasury center, 72 West Adams street. He is credited with discovering and causing to be collected more than 3,700,000 pounds of metal. William L. McFetridge, Chicago area salvage director, presented him with a WPB citation of merit. Metal collected thru Schellhorn's efforts, it was reported, fills scrap requirements for 132 Gen. Sherman tanks or 7,400 one-ton block buster bombs. He is a district sales representative for the Commonwealth Edison company and made several large hauls of scrap metal from companies he visited. The collection included obsolete trucks, motors, steam boilers, railroad tracks, and steel from abandoned buildings.

WARREN BLASTS ALLOWING JAPS PHONES IN CAMP

Sacramento, Cal., Nov. 22 (AP).—Gov. Earl Warren said today he has learned that disloyal Japanese in the Tule Lake segregation center have had full access to the long distance telephone, with the right to communicate with any part of the country.

He told reporters he intends to take the situation up with the federal bureau of investigation.

"When the whole country is charged with the responsibility of protecting against sabotage and fifth columnist activities thru volunteers and law enforcement agencies, it's just absurd to permit those admittedly disloyal aliens to have access to any part of the country, which could keep them informed as to what Japanese agents and saboteurs were doing and also keep those agents and saboteurs informed as to the things they might be able to do," Warren said.

"It's wholly inconsistent with the safety of the country and destructive of civilian defense."

Women Prove It's Their World—Even in Army

Blythe, Cal., Nov. 22 (AP).—It's a woman's world—even in the army. For 10 weeks the WAC detachment has come in first among all Blythe army air base units in weekly squadron inspections. Then the WACS wanted to compete in a drill contest—and won that, too. The war bond contest ended today. The WACs, naturally, were first.

In clashes with police 21 Jews and 11 British constables were injured. Offices in the Palestine district administration building were partly destroyed by fire.

8TH ARMY SNAPS GERMAN GRIP ON ITALIAN HIGHWAY

Fight Within 2 Miles of Foe's Main Defenses.

ALLIED HDQ., Algiers, Nov. 22 (AP).—Reënforced by a "large number" of Canadian troops, Gen. Montgomery's 8th army has plunged ahead to capture two more towns near the center of the Italian front, and was fighting tonight within two miles of the enemy's main defense line along the upper Sangro river.

[A Berlin broadcast last night said the 8th army had begun a large scale offensive, "preceded by strong artillery fire and supported by strong air formations," but it described British gains as negligible.]

The site of the 8th army's latest thrust, made under miserable weather conditions, is approximately 40 miles inland from the Adriatic seacoast. San Pietro Avellana, 10 miles west of Agnone, and Vastogirardi, between those two towns, fell before the drive that was aimed at an important junction of interior highways leading to Rome.

Capture of Agnone, along with Archi, Castel san Vincenzo, and Rocchetta was announced yesterday.

Report Retreating Nazis Set Torch to Two Towns.

The Germans, falling back stubbornly upon their main "winter line" northwest of the Sangro river, were reported burning both Castel di Sangro and Alfedena. The 8th army vanguard was reported within three and one-half miles of Castel di Sangro.

Two British destroyers, the Loyal and the Quilliam, intercepted a German convoy between Pescara and Ancona on the Adriatic coast last Friday night and sank one enemy lighter and possibly a second and damaged a tug.

Allied aircraft were out in force during yesterday, bombing and strafing the enemy at many points in Italy and across the Adriatic in Jugo-Slavia and Albania. American Marauder bombers devastated an 18 acre area in the port of Civitavecchia, 40 miles northwest of Rome.

"I saw our bombs hit smack in a large storage and ammunition dump and in five seconds the whole place blew up in a mass of flames, smoke, and debris," said one bombardier, Staff Sgt. Arthur A. Wallerstedt, 6548 South Halsted street, Chicago.

Germans Claim Samos, Aegean Isle, Captured.

LONDON, Nov. 22 (AP). — Reconquest of Samos—last Aegean island of consequence held by the allies off Turkey—was claimed tonight by the Germans.

Samos, a Greek island, has not been mentioned by the allied command, but it had in effect been lost ever since the Nazis rewon Leros and Kos to the south in the Dodecanese, and its fall had been anticipated here.

Samos, Leros, and Kos formed small outposts of an allied offensive arc drawn up against the flank of Crete.

Heavy RAF bombers of the middle eastern command beat at the main source of German strategic strength in the Balkans — Crete. Without loss to themselves, they bombed the enemy's big Heraklion [Candia] airdrome.

The partisan army of Gen. Josip [Tito] Broz in Jugo-Slavia—drawing in more and more German troops from the north—announced it had opened a counter-offensive in Slovenia, and had regained two villages in Bosnia.

Report Lebanese Crowds Occupy Legislative Chamber.

CAIRO, Egypt, Nov. 22 (AP).—The chamber of deputies and police headquarters in Beirut were reported occupied today by crowds of demonstrators who were joined by police in the Lebanese capital. A British official here said the crisis was by "no means over."

[An Algiers dispatch said a framework aimed toward the quick return of orderly government in Lebanon had been set up thru action of the French committee of national liberation in reinstating President Bechara Khoury and promising to negotiate the question of full independence.]

YANKS DEMAND CHEVRONS SHOW TIME ABROAD

ALLIED HDQ., Algiers, Nov. 20 [Delayed] — (AP). — There's growing sentiment among the troops in the Mediterranean theater for some kind of insignia to show the length of time the wearer has served overseas. At present soldiers outside the United States are authorized to wear foreign theater ribbons, but these do not indicate the period.

"A lot of us have been gone almost two years now," said a captain. "We don't all get a chance to win medals but we would like to be able to wear a decoration showing that we didn't just come over here for a day."

Yank, the army weekly, suggests a gold chevron signifying six months or a year, of foreign service.

BURGLARS TAKE WATCHES AND $32.

Burglars who entered his home took two wrist watches valued at $65, a $10 fountain pen, and $32 in cash, Robert Piper, 6042 La Salle street, reported to police yesterday.

Wife of Polish Premier Held by German Gestapo

LONDON, Nov. 22 (AP).—The wife of Poland's premier, Stanislaw Mikolajczyk, is being held by the Germans as a hostage in a concentration camp in Poland and may be facing execution, the Polish telegraph agency said today.

INVASION ARMS FILL HIDDEN CITY CARVED IN ROCK

LONDON, Nov. 22 (AP).—From an underground city carved out of solid rock will flow much of the ammunition to be used in the allied invasion of Europe. The existence of this huge bomb proof arsenal, along with the fact that the British started building it seven years ago, was made public today for the first time as newspaper reporters were taken thru it on a tour.

Its existence has been one of this country's best kept war secrets and newsmen looked on in amazement as a war office official explained how some old, abandoned quarries were converted into a giant subterranean warehouse for explosives. There stacks and stacks of ammunition are ready for invasion day.

Tons of Rock Moved.

In 1936, some one at the war office with a hunch about the future had what then was called a "brainstorm" for utilizing the unused quarries as storage areas. Starting with a small crew of experts workers were drawn from all over England and their number grew into thousands. Hundreds of thousands of tons of rock had to be moved and new tunnels cut linking old caves. All workmen were sworn to secrecy.

All that was known about their mole-like jobs was that they were working at "The Dump." Hundreds of rumors spread, but the public never knew exactly what was going on. The most persistent rumor was that it was an emergency food store. It was food—but for guns.

The underground city is entered thru what looks like an ordinary railway tunnel. The interior is a maze of tunnels, rail lines, conveyor belts, elevators, storage rooms, offices, and barracks for workmen and guards.

Easy Place to Get Lost.

"I was here three months before I could say I knew the place properly," said the commanding officer. A stranger gets hopelessly lost in five minutes.

Among other features of the place are a telephone exchange operated by auxiliary territorial service girls, modern workshops, an air conditioning system, and an emergency generating plant powerful enough to provide power and light for a whole township.

On emerging from the depths of the earth into daylight, the reporters saw only peaceful pasture land and grazing cows.

Nazis Claim Sinking of 2 Merchant Ships in Atlantic

LONDON, Nov. 22 (AP).—The Berlin radio said today that German bombers, attacking a convoy in the eastern Atlantic yesterday, had battered and "presumably" sunk two merchant vessels totaling 8,000 tons and damaged others.

A MESSAGE FROM

On this Thanksgiving Day in 1943 let us think calmly on the blessings that we have. Too often in the years gone by, our hearts have raised in praise of things material. Too often then we thought of all the things we had; we seldom thought to give our thanks for life, for health, for family; for freedom and all that freedom means.

Yet in this year of '43 we've learned how precious are these blessings that are ours. Our men in arms lay down their lives to keep these blessings safe for us. And we in turn must guard them well to keep them safe for them.

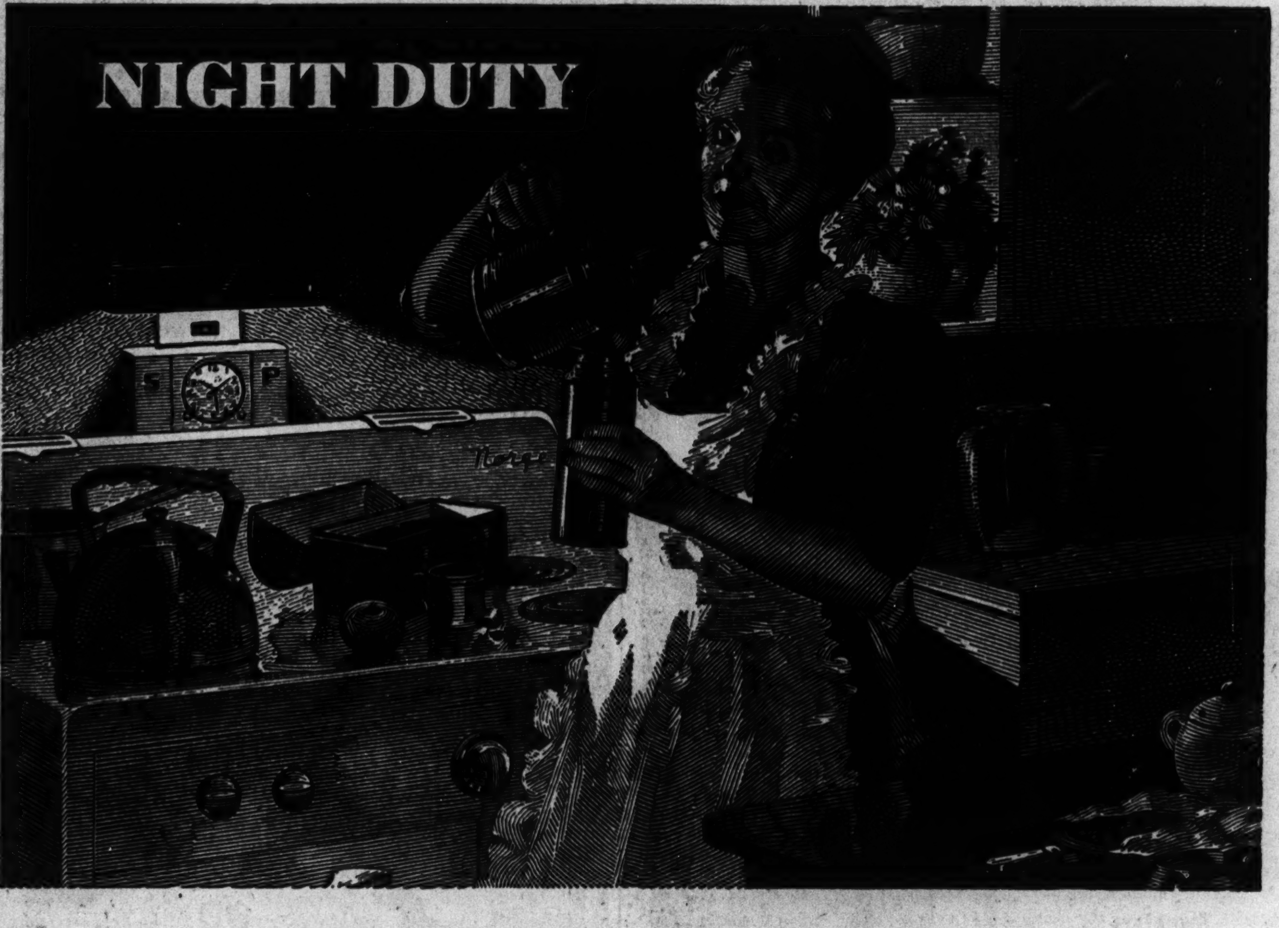
NIGHT DUTY



Norge salutes America's war mothers

Planning balanced rations, packing lunch boxes, preparing snacks at odd hours for work-sharpened appetites—these are some of the contributions to victory made by the housewives of America. Other patriotic duties performed by them include doing their own washing and ironing, raising and preserving much of their own foodstuffs, practicing economy and conservation every day and in every way possible.

We at Norge, completely in war work, honor these efficient, tireless workers on the home front . . . as we do the women who give generously of their time in war plants and those who volunteer in the armed forces, in Red Cross, A.W.V.S. and O.C.D. activities.

Norge Rollator refrigerators and other home appliances are doing their part, too, by lightening the household duties and adding to the efficiency of America's women war workers. Soon after the victory, Norge will salute these women with a brilliant new line of household appliances that will emphasize America's new-era standards of living.

TELLS HOW PWB PROPAGANDA IS SERVED TO ITALY

Bureau Functions as Aid to Allied Hdq.

BY JOHN THOMPSON.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

ALLIED HDQ., Algiers, Oct. 11 [Delayed]. — Allied propaganda directed to Italy, Sicily, and North Africa is handled by a branch of allied headquarters which is known as the psychological warfare bureau —or PWB.

PWB has a military head, but functions under an American civilian who had experience in organization and business management as a former manager of a national news magazine. The large staff is about equally divided between British and Americans. Civilian and military personnel also are about equal.

PWB includes employes of the office of war information [OWI], its British counterpart [the ministry of information], a branch of the British political warfare council, and the office of strategic services.

Works Close to Front.

PWB, at the start consisted almost entirely of men from newspapers or with radio experience. Now the balance is not so heavily weighed. A certain number of incompetents show up, but PWB insists the number is not greater than in any other business. The selection of personnel is made in Washington, D. C., and London. The local boss can ask for certain men needed for certain jobs, and Washington and London, which supply the overall propaganda directives, usually oblige by sending the person wanted.

When a military operation is being planned the army calls in PWB and explains its plan, asking what PWB can do to help. PWB offers various ideas on how to bombard a certain country or section with radio appeals or leaflets.

This is part of what is called combat propaganda, and goes right with the army when it moves. PWB agents go ashore to question prisoners and prepare more leaflets to be shot at the enemy or to start printing newspapers or seek civilian leaders who have been pro-ally.

Later comes the occupational propaganda, such as the work now being carried on in Sicily to promote allied interests, and then the third phase, or activities of PWB at the base in French North Africa.

Base Supplies Propaganda.

At headquarters efforts are devoted to the projection of the American and British way of life and interests, as one official described it. At the same time efforts are made to keep relations smooth with the French, supply the French press with a news file and pictures, provide French military and political headquarters with copies of radio monitoring reports, make broadcasting facilities available to the French, and provide propaganda, literature, books, and information about the United States, Britain, France, and Russia are available to any one.

Broadcasts to Italy or Sicily do not promise citizens of those countries any thing, PWB asserts, altho most Sicilians and Italians hold the idea that the allies are taking over all their troubles. The radio exhorts them, as do the leaflets, says PWB, to do everything to help the allies to kick the Germans out of their country.

Incentive to Sabotage.

PWB believes that much propaganda has been effective, particularly when citizens are urged to do jobs of sabotage which would be of help to the military. Leaflets, which some enemy soldiers produce when surrendering, also may serve as a sort of safe conduct pass.

PWB radio stations follow close on the heels of the army. Three stations are operated from North Africa, another at Palermo, Sicily, and a mobile radio in Naples, Italy.

Newspapers are classed as most effective in the PWB's work. The Sicilians and now the Italians, after a long diet of Fascist controled news, react quickly to newspapers which print allied news.

One resurrected Sicilian newspaper is edited by Sicilians under PWB control. The editors criticized an allied military government [AMG] official in what was regarded as a constructive manner. The AMG officer protested and the Sicilians thought they faced jail, until PWB ruled that "this is a free press. Go ahead and say what you want to." Higher military authority supported PWB.

Offer Help at Meetings.

Next in order of effectiveness come the movies, then the radio, posters, and doing such odd jobs as sending a mobile power unit to provide loudspeakers at local meetings.

Naturally, a picture showing Chicago or New York gangsters, usually pictured as a Sicilian or Italian, would not be exhibited in Sicily. Instead, PWB selects newsreels, such documentary films as "Target for Tonight," "Invincible," "Building for Victory," or "America at War." For entertainment Sicily is now seeing "Joe Smith, American," "Sergeant York," "Young Tom Edison," and "Seven Sweethearts."

The same type of selection is true for North Africa where American musical comedy films get wide circulation. But it is pointed out that almost all documentary films, such as "Desert Victory," come from Britain, Hollywood having provided scarcely anything usable in this field. Walt Disney cartoons, of course, have universal appeal and were among the first propaganda films exported.

RUSSIANS HALT NAZIS' COUNTER DRIVE ON KIEV

LONDON, Nov. 23 [Wednesday] (AP).—Field Marshal Gen. Fritz von Mannstein's counter-drive toward Kiev was being fought to a standstill last night by a bolstered Russian stand 20 miles east of Zhitomir.

Heavy German tank and infantry attacks were smashed back, a bulletin broadcast from Moscow said, and the Red army hurled full tank forces into the struggle there, said by front dispatches to be as fierce and desperate as that for Stalingrad.

Report Attacks Collapse.

The German counter-attacks, mounted 10 miles north of Zhitomir as well as to the east, collapsed with heavy losses, said the war bulletin recorded by the soviet monitor. Von Mannstein struck out in a new direction in this area, possibly aiming at Korosten on the north.

After nine days of desperate fighting, Von Mannstein apparently had gained but little ground beyond Zhitomir, and the Russian bulletin announcing his repulse for the third successive day suggested his drive had lost impetus. Battlefront dispatches to the newspaper Pravda in Moscow insisted the soviets were regaining the initiative at some points west of Kiev.

Flanking Von Mannstein's attack from the north, Gen. Constantin Rokossovsky drove westward along a 100 mile front—capturing 12 villages and one railway station along the lower Pripet river, taking 16 more towns west of Rechitsa, and storming eight centers of resistance north of Gomel.

Tighten Noose on Gomel.

Reuters [British] dispatches to London said Rokossovsky's forces were striking thru the Nazi lines to the junction of the Berezina river with the Dnieper 15 miles north of Rechitsa. This tightened the noose around Gomel, whose fall seemed imminent.

These thrusts above and below the Zhitomir sector apparently are designed to relieve the German pressure concentrated onto a relatively narrow front there.

Gen. Nikolai Vatutin's heavy armor swept victoriously over at least six strongly fortified German defense centers in a broadening Dnieper bridgehead south of Kremenchug, and fought off counter-blows launched against the Russian bridgehead at Cherkasi, midway between Kremenchug and the Kiev sector.

Pinch Escape Corridor.

The second day of Russian successes in the push beyond Kremenchug reflected a broadening of the whole offensive front down the Dnieper bend, where the Nazis' escape corridor already has been pinched to some 40 miles.

Reuters [British] dispatches to London said the Kremenchug drive had pushed 20 miles west toward the Znamenka railway junction on a 30 mile front.

The German high command claimed recapture of "important ground" west of Kiev, and reported a new soviet landing south of Kerch in the Crimea. The Moscow bulletin made no mention of the Crimea.

DISPATCH TO ITALIAN PAPER REPORTS NAZIS HOLD ROOSEVELT SON

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

A dispatch from the Associated Press bureau in Berne, Switzerland, yesterday said that the Provincia di Como, an obscure newspaper in northern Italy, had published a dispatch attributed to its Berlin correspondent asserting that one of President Roosevelt's sons, "who had been reported missing after an attack on the reich," had parachuted to safety and was now a prisoner in good health in Germany.

There has been no suggestion from any other source that any of the President's sons had been reported missing. The war department in Washington, D. C., and headquarters of the American 8th air force in Britain said they had no report of any Roosevelt missing in action.

Meanwhile, however, it appears likely that the Berlin writer has written a garbled version of the recent adventure of Lt. John W. Winant Jr., son of the American ambassador in London, who has been reported a prisoner in Germany after having been missing in a Fortress raid over Germany.

BURNS FATAL TO MAN, 83.

ORDERS TREASON RETRIAL JAN. 17; BAIL PLEA LOST

Retrial of the first of the defendants in the Haupt treason case was set for Jan. 17 by Judge John P. Barnes in the federal District court yesterday. Judge Barnes said none of the six defendants would be permitted freedom on bond pending their trials. The point came up when Atty. Paul A. F. Six defendants are to be tried. They are, in addition to Mrs. Froehling and Mrs. Wergin, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Haupt, Walter Froehling, and Richard Wergin. Froehling will be tried first. All six were convicted last year of treason thru assistance to Herbert Haupt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Haupt. Haupt was one of eight Nazi saboteurs landed in America by submarine to commit sabotage. He and five of his comrades were executed. The United States Circuit Court of Appeals reversed the convictions, and remanded the case with the provision that the six defendants were to be tried one at a time.

NOTE—From time to time, in this paper, there will appear an article which we hope will be of interest to our fellow Americans. This is number eighteen of a series.

SCHENLEY DISTILLERS CORP., NEW YORK

Simple—Isn't It?

If you were to make whiskey, you would need a few simple ingredients. To begin with, you would need grain; corn, or rye, or barley, or wheat, or a mixture of all of them. You would grind the grain to a meal; then you would mix the meal with water and cook it. Next, you would take some malt (grain that has been germinated by moisture and heat), because the malt will convert the grain starches in your mash into fermentable sugars. You would then add some distiller's yeast to transform the fermentable sugars into alcohol and carbon dioxide, principally. The carbon dioxide would pass out into the air, and the alcohol would remain.

At this stage of the proceedings you would have what is termed "distiller's beer" which you would then heat to a point where it becomes vapor, thereby separating the alcohol and other desirable ingredients from the spent grain. This vapor would then pass on through pipes or coils which cools it and makes it a liquid. And, now, you would have raw or young whiskey.

You would now take the raw whiskey and store it for aging, in new, charred oak casks, where it will draw certain "extractives" from the wood. The whiskey, which you have just made, has developed certain flavor elements as a result of the fermentation and distillation processes. These, in addition to the flavor elements drawn from the wood over a period of years, impart to whiskey its well-known taste, so that you can recognize it just as you can recognize coffee by its flavor. Simple—isn't it?

Of course, you are not going to make your own whiskey. We just wanted to remind you that man has really very little to do in whiskey making; nature does most of the work.

And now we want to tell you something that is very important. While anybody can make whiskey, as such, there is a vast difference in the quality of distilled alcoholic beverages. For instance, there is the quality of the grain selected. See what happens to a carload of corn that has just come in on a side-track at the back door of a modern distillery. A man of science examines it carefully; he tests it for bacteria count, for protein, starch and moisture content. He examines it carefully to see that the flinty protective outer skin of the corn is not broken, because, when the skin is broken, infection can set in. He smells it for mustiness, because musty grain will do something to whiskey that you will never get rid of, even if you aged the whiskey for twenty years.

The water used is subjected to the same careful tests. A pure culture of yeast, which is literally kept in a safe, is used for fermentation. All down the line there are scientific control steps from the time the grain enters a distillery until the young whiskey goes to its repose in the charred barrels.

But, we cannot tell all of it in one short article. We will tell you more later. So, please don't go away; and keep on reading these little sketches.

Vincent R. Dunne.

The defendants, all members of the Socialist Workers party, included Vincent R. Dunne, Minneapolis labor union leader; Mrs. Grace Carlson, Minnesota state organizer of the SWP; Albert Goldman, New York attorney, who was chief counsel for the defendants; James P. Cannon of New York, national secretary of the party, and Felix Morrow, New York editor of the New Militant, official party organ.

It was charged that the General Drivers union No. 544 of Minneapolis, of which most of the defendants were officials or members, was used as a screen for the subversive activities. The union, which bolted from the AFL to the CIO, has engaged in some of the nation's most sanguinary strikes.

All Get Prison Terms.

The 18 were convicted Dec. 1, 1941, in the federal District court at Minneapolis and given prison terms ranging from a year and a day to 16 months.

The defendants appealed the conviction, challenging sections of the 1940 alien registration act, under which they were indicted, as an unconstitutional infringement of the right of free speech.

During the trial the defense contended that the SWP only "predicted" the overthrow of capitalism and denied the party planned to invoke armed force.

Organized in Chicago.

However, the justice department said the party was organized in Chicago in 1937 "with Trotzky as its ideological leader and became the American section of the Fourth Internationale, an international revolutionary organization under Trotzky's leadership."

The objective of the party, the justice department declared, is the destruction of the existing constitutional government of the United States and that members were accused of attempting to carry this out by urging mutiny in the armed forces.

POLICE ARREST BOOKIE TAKING BETS ON STREET

Fiore La Porte, 35 years old, of 904 South Hermitage avenue, was arrested in front of 123 North Clark street yesterday allegedly while taking bets on the street. Central police said he admitted that he was a bookie, and that he served from July 3, 1928, to May 6, 1929, in the Pontiac reformatory on a grand larceny charge. On June 10, 1941, under the alias of Fred Rizzo, they said, he was fined $35 for panhandling and disorderly conduct, and on July 17 of that year he again was fined $35 for similar offenses.

SENATE LEAVES ONLY AN IDEA IN ARMY VOTE BILL

Amendments Abolish Main Points.

would be scrapped in favor of leaving the soldier vote in state hands. This proposal is similar to a plan being studied by a house committee that shelved a house bill similar to the Green-Lucas senate bill.

Sen. Wayland Brooks [R., Ill.] introduced the amendment that would limit the provisions of the act to men and women in military services. He did so after Sen. Scott W. Lucas [D., Ill.] one of the sponsors of the legislation, had stressed the importance of a bill to provide for soldier votes.

Brooks Raps Scope of Bill.

Saying he was much impressed with Lucas' insistence that drafted boys be given a chance to vote, Brooks—who today marked the end of his third year in the senate—observed that a law already exists for that purpose. He charged that the Green-Lucas bill goes much farther, adding:

"The bill provides the same opportunity to employés of the merchant marine who are not subject to military regulations, to whom we have never given the franking privilege, to whom we have never provided bonuses.

"There are no restrictions on them when they are in port. They are working for larger salaries now than they ever before received, and their own leader, Mr. Joseph Curran, went out of the country to avoid the draft. Yet under the bill he would be given the right of voting."

Brooks asserted it is time to quit "harnessing" the merchant marine "to the soldiers."

Would Limit Privilege.

"I agree," he said, "that since the senate and house voted to send men out to their death, we should give them the right to vote, but that does not apply to all the other people we are harnessing to the soldiers."

He read sections of the bill that would grant civilians who are overseas in United States employment the same voting privileges as soldiers.

"These men who are outside the country, who are not facing death, who are drawing increased pay—are they to be classified along with the soldiers?" Brooks asked. "Do not let any one misinterpret what I say. I will never be found anywhere not fighting for the man who is at the front. I know his problems. I have been with him.

"But those who are taking advantage of a measure like the one before us to impose these other classes on the soldiers depart from the effort to provide free elections in the United States."

Stone Declines to Act.

The change in the membership of the commission, deleting the reference to the chief justice of the Supreme court, came after Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg [R., Mich.] read the letter from Chief Justice Stone in which the latter declared that naming a member of the commission would in his mind be "incompatible" with his obligations as chief justice.

Senators Vandenberg and Robert A. Taft [R., O.] led the fight to remove the commission's power to recommend the throwing out of any state's electoral vote.

Constitutionality of the provision that would suspend the rights of states to demand poll tax payments from soldiers was attacked several times during the debate. Some senators expressed the belief that parts of the bill might be unconstitutional but asked for passage anyway. Their contention was that the exigencies of war make certain things constitutional which would not be constitutional in peace time.

Constitution Defended.

Sen. Walter F. George [D., Ga.] took sharp exception to a remark by Sen. Warren R. Austin [R., Vt.] that there is a law in war time "which transcends the Constitution."

George asserted that there is no power in the Constitution to do anything in war time that is not constitutional.

"War doesn't suspend the Constitution," he said. "War adds nothing to the Constitution."

He added that if the senators believe that way, the oath of office should be amended to read that they will support the Constitution "except in war time."

LEGION TO HEAR OF REDS' RULE IN WAR PLANTS

Two Committees to Bare Findings Tonight.

spent hours quizzing the Communist leaders of the union.

Telephone calls and letters from the loyal workers poured into THE TRIBUNE. The writers and callers asserted they were beginning to get the upper hand, that they would stop the Reds' domination of production and "run the Reds ragged" at the next union election.

The Communists spent the day running around the big war factory exhorting workers to boycott THE TRIBUNE.

The Reds found one ally in Chicago. They planted an attack upon THE TRIBUNE in the local newspaper offshoot of the communistic PM, which in New York is known as "the Uptown edition of the Daily Worker." The local sheet quoted Michael Mann, secretary of the CIO Industrial Union Council of Cook county, and purported to quote Mr. Vance of the Studebaker corporation.

Vance Repudiates It.

Mr. Vance last night said he had made no statement whatever except the one printed several days ago in THE TRIBUNE.

The loyal workers who telephoned and wrote THE TRIBUNE reiterated that a large percentage, possibly 90 per cent, of the employes at the plant wish no part of the union ordered letdown of output or other tactics which they have been compelled to adhere to under the domination of the Communists controling the union, and thru the union, the plant.

Hundreds of the workers, they said, have relatives in the army, navy, and marines, fighting on the various fronts. For the sake of these the workers hope the fight to clean house will go on.

Uncover More Evidence.

More evidence was uncovered on the Communist activities and affiliations of Gertrude Selig, alias Giles, recording secretary of local 998. Mr. and Mrs. James Riddick, a south side landlord and his wife, told how on Jan. 31, 1940, Miss Selig, under the name Giles, signed a lease for an apartment at 5207 Kimbark avenue. They said that at first she moved in alone, giving the International Workers' Order, of which she was a trustee and by whom she was employed, as a reference. Riddick continued:

"Soon after she moved into our building Kenneth Born and his wife moved in with her."

Born is a widely publicized Communist. He was graduated from the University of Kansas and since college days has been active in the Communist Young People's league. In 1942, he was Communist candidate for congressman at large from Illinois and in the last city election ran for city treasurer on the Communist ticket. Between campaigns he has been a teacher at the old Chicago Workers school, operated by Communists. Out of this school grew the Abraham Lincoln school, 30 West Washington street.

Flat "Headquarters for Reds."

Riddick said the second floor flat of Gertrude Selig and the Borns soon became a headquarters for Communists.

"There were crowds coming and going until 3 and 4 in the morning," Riddick said.

"The flat was filled with Communist literature, the mail box was crammed with it and the waste baskets were always full. They kept peddling the literature around the neighborhood of the University of Chicago.

"At one time the Borns and Miss Selig disappeared, altho they kept the flat. I understood they were fearful of raids by government agents. The Selig woman came back alone and was there for a short time. We had been serving them with eviction notices from the second month they were there. We finally got rid of them by remitting some rent, a month or two before the lease ran out."

Reverses Name for Alias.

Miss Selig established her alias, Giles, simply by reversing her name. She used the alias in signing the lease and used it when she worked for the Communist International Workers Order.

"Agents of the FBI came out here investigating the three of them shortly after they had moved," Riddick said.

R. J. Thomas, international president of the UAW-CIO, last night in Washington, issued the following statement:

"I have read The Chicago Tribune articles which have appeared so far, and I cannot see that they have made any convincing case against the Studebaker workers.

Denies Reds Dominate Union.

"I have not had the opportunity to check on the specific cases of alleged Communists cited by THE TRIBUNE, but I know that only a minute fraction of Studebaker workers, if any, are Communists; and I do know that the affairs of the local union are not dominated by the Communist party. If, therefore, any Communists are in office, there is plenty of law in the constitution of the UAW-CIO for the membership of the Studebaker local to deal with them."

Thomas called attention to the fact that the majority of the workers at the plant are loyal, patriotic Americans. He said the army and the navy, which have awarded the plant the "E" and star, and the plant management "feel that way about it." In this he agreed with THE TRIBUNE, which from the beginning has given full credit to the loyal workers thru whom the exposures were made possible.

Scores Hail Tribune Expose

Scores of letters were received yesterday from loyal American war workers, both men and women, as well as other letters from the wives and sisters of those employed in war plants, cheering THE TRIBUNE for its expose of conditions in the Studebaker plant and urging that work sabotage in other plants be reported similarly. Excerpts from two of these letters follow:

"It is time some paper told the story about the war plants and the union bosses running them instead of the owners or the government. I have had jobs in several war plants in the last two years, not only in munitions, but medical supplies, also, and am now in another small metals factory making parts for planes and things like that.

Compelled to Work Slowly.

"If we work too hard and go above the amount the shop steward tells us, we are either beat up on our way home, or bad things are done to our work after we have finished it to spoil it for use. If we complain we are tagged by the union steward and meet a lot of trouble in the shop and at meetings. If you look further into this you'll find it is common in many many war work plants on union contracts."

A "war wife" writes:

"Your article by a Studebaker wife gave me the urge to add my 2 cents.

"Studebaker plant is not alone. Many of the same conditions exist at Amertorp. My husband has had to loaf for days because there was nothing to do.

Happy When He's Busy.

"When he does have a day that he is really busy he comes home happy, saying, 'Well, I really worked for a change today.'

"I have brothers working in the various war plants, Douglas, Buick. These men are all good, conscientious workers, wishing to put the best of their knowledge and skill into helping win the war. Yet they are buffaloed into putting in their time and letting it go at that.

"Yes, go to it, TRIBUNE. There are plenty of us 'Good Americans' to back you up."

REPORT SNOWS UP TO 23 INCHES IN NORTHEAST

New York, Nov. 22 (AP).—A heavy snowstorm that threatened to shatter November records today gave some sections of the northeast virtual assurance of a white Thanksgiving. The storm, reported to have deposited 23 inches at Pinkham Notch, N. H., was felt chiefly in upstate New York, and in Vermont, New Hampshire, and Maine.

The Portland, Me., weather bureau said there was a possibility of a further snowfall of six to eight inches and that the storm might break all records for November. Thirteen inches fell in Rutland, Vt.—the heaviest snowfall in the city's history. Telegraphic communication was cut at Rutland, except to the north, and a number of telephone lines in that city were down. Bus line schedules in that area were tangled and rural schools were closed.

In New York state, 11 inches fell at Old Forge, 10 at Lake Placid, and six in Albany. Toward the coast, where the snow at some points in New England was mixed with rain, depths lessened. New York City had only snow flurries—not enough to leave a trace on the ground. A small Canada-bound coal vessel, the C. H. Cadwell, was driven on rocks in Oswego harbor, in New York, and the coast guard rescued 12 crewmen.

U. S. OPENS PROBE OF EAST ALTON'S BAN ON NEGROES

Elmer W. Henderson, regional director of the President's committee on fair employment practices, opened an investigation yesterday of the Western Cartridge company of East Alton, Ill., which has been charged with discriminating against Negroes. William H. Spencer, regional war man power commission director, said the firm had hired 13,000 workers without taking on a Negro. The company said it employs Negroes in other plants but that East Alton residents were hostile toward Negroes.

CHARGES JAIL 'TIER BOSS' GOT STOLEN UNIFORM

Charges that a "tier boss" in the county jail forced him to surrender a stolen navy uniform were made yesterday by Eugene E. Brazil, 18 years old, 4457 Oakenwald avenue, when he was arraigned yesterday before Judge Philip L. Sullivan, in federal District court, on a charge of illegally wearing the uniform.

Brazil pleaded guilty, saying he had stolen the uniform from a sailor in Long Beach, Cal. He would return it, he said, except that another prisoner he designated as a "tier boss had forced him to give it up. "He said if I didn't, it would cost me $2," said Brazil.

Judge Sullivan continued Brazil's case for possible probation, then ordered government agents to reclaim the uniform. However, Warden Frank Sain beat them to it. He found the uniform in possession of another 18 year old prisoner, who denied threatening Brazil. There are no tier bosses among prisoners, said Sain, adding that Brazil voluntarily gave the uniform away.

WAR SHIPPING MADE IDLE BY 32 MAN STRIKE

Six tugboats belonging to the Dunham Towing and Wrecking company, 94th street and the Calumet river, engaged in the handling of oil and ore boat traffic in the Whiting and Gary districts, and other war production shipping in that area have been idle for five days as a result of a strike. Thirty-two employes quit work after a dispute over the withholding of a day's wages because of a one day strike on Nov. 12. The strikers charged the company had been dilatory in arranging arbitration. The dispute had been referred to Washington after union and company officials met with Commissioner Edward F. Pringle of the war labor board and failed to reach an agreement.

LOOT AUTO OF $476 IN GOODS.

Sporting goods and jewelry valued at $476 were taken from the automobile of Joseph J. Tumpeer, 525 Roscoe street, while it was parked in front of his home, he reported to police yesterday.

STRETCH 2 HOUR WAR JOB TO TEN, WORKER CHARGES

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 22.—The Detroit News yesterday printed on its front page an article on wasted hours in war plants, written by a woman who has worked as an inspector in two Detroit war plants for the last two years. She charged that war plant workers purposely waste time because of their fear of "job killing," their term for unemployment.

The writer was identified by the editor as a former newspaper woman. Her name was withheld "for her protection." The war plant worker wrote:

"There are two or three people too many on every job in every department I've worked in in the two war plants in which I've been employed during the last two years, reports of a war man and woman power shortage to the contrary."

"Not Very Proud" of Record.

The writer explained that she is "not very proud" of herself or her fellow war workers, and wondered "how many of us will know how to work again when the war is over?" She tells how each department has a daily production figure to meet.

"I don't know who sets the figure—it's probably 50-50 between management and employes," she continued. "Management passes down the word requesting so many jobs; the workers turn them out if they're so inclined. They, the latter, usually turn out a few less because 'if we show that we can do more, they'll raise the production figure on us.'

"If the pieces that I am to inspect in my day of 10 hours were laid out end to end in front of me, ready to inspect on my arrival in the morning, I could inspect them without effort by noon. That is, if there is a normal number of pieces to be repaired.

Could Do Work in Two Hours.

"When there are no repairs, and I have only inspection and routine reports to take care of, I could do my 10 hour job in about two hours. If the work were lined up in front of me. But things don't go that way.

"The work must not move too quickly else 'somebody'll think we don't need so many men on this job and we don't want anybody to get laid off.'

"As a result, I and many, many others spend three-fourths of our time in the rest rooms, reading, napping, talking."

The writer adds that when she asked her boss for permission to use some of her idle time outside of the plant, to attend to her own affairs, he refused, saying that if she did so "the management would lose its cost-plus money from the government."

Liberty Ship to Be Named in Honor of A. J. Cermak

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—The maritime commission announced today that a Liberty ship will be named for Anton J. Cermak, former mayor of Chicago. Cermak, who was born in Czechoslovakia and went to Illinois as a child, was fatally wounded in February, 1933, when an assassin shot at President Elect Roosevelt in Miami, Fla.

STASSEN WINS G. O. P. SUPPORT IN MINNESOTA

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 22 (AP).—Former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota, now a lieutenant commander in the navy, today was unanimously endorsed by the Republican state central committee for the 1944 Republican nomination for President.

Mrs. Helen Boppel of Shakopee, Scott county chairwoman, presented the motion of endorsement after several Republican leaders had declared that Stassen was "definitely a serious contender for the Presidential nomination."

In seconding the motion, State Rep. Leonard Dickinson of Bemidji declared that "Harold E. Stassen is the one man the New Dealers are afraid of more than any other in the United States."

18 Women's Suits, Coats Taken from Owner's Car

Morris Helbrann, owner of a women's garment company at 216 West Jackson street, reported to police yesterday that his car had been broken into in front of 3617 Roosevelt road. Eighteen women's suits and coats, valued at $540, were stolen.

EVANSTON HERO OUT OF KITCHEN INTO THE SKIES

Lt. Bersbach, Alderman's Son, Home with Medals.

First Lt. William M. Bersbach, an Evanston alderman's son who started in the army as a buck private cook, 4th class, and became a pilot flying bombers in Africa with Gen. Montgomery's western desert air force, is still surprised after 55 combat missions that he escaped a military career of boiling eggs in field kitchen dishpans.

Lt. W. M. Bersbach.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer S. Bersbach of 1910 Orrington avenue, the 25 year old flyer has returned home with the distinguished flying cross and the air medal, with one silver and three bronze oak leaf clusters. He hopes to leave a touch of malaria at Gardner General hospital in Chicago, where he has been a patient three weeks.

Some Tight Pinches Recalled.

"I've had my fill of thrills in trying to evade German flak by maneuvering my ship in cramped space," Bersbach said yesterday, "and I remember the day we were the 'unidentified aircraft' coming in out of gas on the trigger nervous gunners of Malta, and the time my own air base sent an ambulance to pick up the pieces when they saw us disappear in a spin behind a hill; but I will never forget the trouble I had getting out of a United States army field bakery company."

The young soldier got himself into the bakery company because of his ambition to enter the hotel business. His father is vice president of the Manz corporation, Chicago printers and engravers, and alderman of the 1st ward in Evanston.

Quits College for Hotel Job.

Graduated from Evanston Township High school, he studied accounting for two years in Mobile, Ala., and continued this subject at the University of Illinois until his senior year. Then he got a job as a hotel desk clerk in St. Louis, and wrote home he was going to learn from the ground up the business he loved.

When compulsory military service loomed he returned to Evanston and volunteered in November, 1940, but was not called until Feb. 17, 1941. Meanwhile, he became a bus boy at the Drake hotel, a position he secured by talking his father into speaking to a member of the hotel's board of directors.

Finally his call came. The draft board told the recruit he was the third boy sent from Evanston. He asked for assignment to a quartermaster mess outfit.

Put on Duty as Cook.

He was sent to San Francisco, for basic training in a bakers' and cooks' school for two months, then put on duty as a cook with a bakery company. His hours were 4 a. m. to 6 p. m. six days a week.

A traveling cadet selection board visited the company at Fort Lewis, Wash., on Jan. 10, 1942; bulletins were posted inviting men to apply. The baker accepted the invitation. His application was approved. The transfer notice was lost. Tracing it, he missed a formation and was put on a week's kitchen police duty. A fraternity brother in the army got him a new transfer order.

The first Japanese-American to join the women's army corps will become a WAC on Dec. 7, the second anniversary of the sneak attack on Pearl Harbor. Iris Watanabe, 20 years old, 350 Belden avenue, yesterday completed arrangements at the WAC recruiting office in the Insurance Exchange, then left for Denver, Colo., to visit her parents until she is inducted. "I hope to help make the land of my ancestors pay for its unwarranted attack on my country," she said. Miss Watanabe is a second generation American citizen, born in California.

Farmers in Peace, Heroes in War

HOW A MEDICAL AID MAN TRADED ARM FOR A LIFE

Buddy Tells Story of Illinois Farmer.

[This is the second of a series of stories on wounded midwest soldiers recently brought back from the Mediterranean war theater.]

BY GORDON SCHENDEL.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Battle Creek, Mich., Nov. 22—Two Illinois farmers who have been buddies since their basic training days at Ft. Lewis, Wash., in 1941, occupy beds within a few feet of each other at the army's huge Percy Jones General hospital here.

Sgt. Martin Moritz, 28 year old medical aid man, route 1, Benson, in Woodford county, has a distinguished service cross to show for the empty sleeve that hangs from his right shoulder.

Corp. Robert Conwell, 39, route 1, Beason, in Logan county, is recovering from illness which took him from the front lines south of Rome.

Sees Friend Shot.

Conwell, an infantry rifleman, saw Moritz shot, but was unable to aid him.

"It was near Brolo, Sicily, in one of our first attempts to execute an amphibious flanking movement," Conwell related, as he sat up in bed. "Our boats landed us at night, behind the German lines. Our objective was some high ground on the other side of a lemon grove, well back from the beach."

No sooner had the Americans come out of the cover afforded by the lemon grove which bordered the beach, and started advancing up a barron hill in the moonlight, Conwell said, than the Germans began "throwing everything they had."

Aid Man Follows Soldiers.

Sgt. Moritz was close behind Conwell, picking up wounded.

"Steel was flying at me from all directions," Conwell said, "when I happened to look back, downhill. Twenty yards behind me, I saw Moritz kneeling, taking care of an injured man. Then I heard the dull 'plump' that a rifle bullet makes when it strikes flesh, and he fell flat. I couldn't help him. My orders were to advance until our objective was won."

Sgt. Moritz grinned, from his bed.

"It was a dumdum bullet that got me, just below the shoulder," he said. "It left my arm hanging by just a couple of thin shreds of flesh. I stuffed three handkerchiefs in the hole, to stop the bleeding, and then tried to finish dressing the wound of the man I'd been taking care of. But my wounded arm hung in my way. I took out my jack knife and tried to open it with my teeth, so I could cut my arm off. But I couldn't get the knife open.

Saves Soldier's Life.

"I managed to finish tying up that soldier's wound, so he wouldn't bleed to death, and he started crawling downhill. I felt weak, so I lay there a while. Then I started crawling downhill, too. But after about 200 yards, I 'blacked out.'

"Lt. Roy Hanford [formerly an interne at Cook County General hospital] was waiting at the dressing station. I asked him to cut off my arm, but he didn't want to, because he didn't have the proper instruments there. I insisted. Finally he did it, using his hunting knife. I heard later that he received a silver star for performing that surgical operation under fire. Then I 'blacked out' again.

The following night the medical aid station, which was set up beneath a stone culvert, was bombed, and Moritz was wounded again, receiving seven pieces of shrapnel in his abdomen and left arm.

NORTH SHORE LINE CAR LEAVES RAILS; 5 PASSENGERS HURT

Five persons, one a 4 year old girl, were slightly injured yesterday when a northbound North Shore train left the tracks a short distance south of the Downey crossing near the Great Lakes naval training station.

All of the injured are women. They were Helen Dicig, 21, of 242 South West street, Waukegan; Mrs. Charles Whisler, 725 Pacific avenue, Waukegan; Linda Hoff, 4, of 1115 Lorraine avenue, Waukegan; Mrs. John Bartiluzzi, 632 Parkway, Highwood, and Mrs. Charles Wicks, 725 Packer avenue, Waukegan. All but Mrs. Wicks received treatment at the Great Lakes hospital and were released.

North Shore officials said the rear car of a two car train jumped the tracks when a truck from the front car became disengaged. The car, packed with passengers, landed in the mud between the north and south bound tracks. Approximately 120 persons were on the two cars.

The track was torn up for about 200 yards. Traffic over the line was rerouted after a 15 minute delay.

POLICE SAY THEY SAW THRU THIS TELESCOPE TALE

It seems that John W. Jackson, 38 years old, 1921 North Fairfield avenue, had his three foot telescope along just in case there should be an eclipse, but when Sgt. Reed Ziegler of the Chicago avenue police station saw it sticking out a window of Jackson's car at Ontario and Rush streets he made the natural error of thinking that Jackson was looking in a window of the Croydon hotel, 616 North Rush street. So Ziegler arrested Jackson and charged him with disorderly conduct. He will appear in court today. Later police determined that Jackson, who identified himself as a foreman in a war plant, served four years in prison for burglary, his term beginning in 1930.

This Home-Mixed Cough Relief Is Truly Surprising

So Easy. No Cooking. Big Saving.

You may not know it, but, in your own kitchen, you can easily prepare a really surprising relief for coughs due to colds. It's old-fashioned—your mother probably used it—but for real results, it can't be beaten.

First, make a syrup by stirring 2 cups granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. No cooking needed. It's no trouble. Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar syrup.

Then get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist. This is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, well known for prompt action in throat and bronchial irritations.

Put the Pinex into a pint bottle, and add your syrup. Thus you make a full pint of really splendid cough syrup, and you get about four times as much for your money. It never spoils, and children love its pleasant taste.

And for quick relief, it's a wonder. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, eases the soreness, makes breathing easy, and lets you get restful sleep. Just try it, and if not pleased, your money will be refunded.

PROPOSE UNRRA MAKE GERMANS PAY FOR RELIEF

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 22 (AP).—Germany and her satellite nations not only should be asked to pay for whatever relief is given their peoples, but their surplus supplies should be used to assist nations they have plundered, a committee of the united nations relief and rehabilitation administration recommended in a report today.

The report, adopted by the committee on scope for presentation to the full council of the UNRRA, also recommended that the UNRRA operate in enemy territories only after agreement with the military or recognized administration "and with the approval of the council on the scale and nature of the operations."

European Delegation Victory.

An additional opinion by the committee that the council also should approve the "standard of provision" implied that European delegates had won their contention that the Germans should not be accorded the same treatment as invaded peoples.

In some quarters the mention of "scale and nature" was interpreted as meaning the council would be left free to set a lower scale of relief in enemy countries, and if supplies were scarce, to by-pass them completely except for such supplies as the military deemed necessary.

That the UNRRA may concern itself with the resettlement of Germans who have moved into occupied countries was indicated by a section of a tentative report by the committee on repatriation.

Repatriation Seen as Problem.

"While it is obviously not the purpose of UNRRA to assist enemy subjects," this section said, "the fact that in very numerous cases such persons have been forcibly intruding into, and settled in, the former homes of the united nations nationals whose return to their homes it will be one of UNRRA's main duties to assist, makes it necessary for UNRRA to concern itself with them, if only to insure that the homes in question may be made available again for their rightful owners as soon as possible."

The committee on repatriation estimated that 21,000,000 people now were away from their former homes as forced laborers, war prisoners, or refugees.

HOUSE PROBERS ASK NEWSPRINT ACTION BY WPB

Increased Output Sought; Secret Hearings Lashed.

BY LAURENCE BURD.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22. — A special house subcommittee investigating newsprint supplies today urged three immediate steps by the war production board to increase output of newsprint and provide more equitable distribution of paper supplies to the nation's newspapers.

The proposals were announced by Rep. Lyle H. Boren [D., Okla.], chairman of the subcommittee, during a hearing at which officials of the WPB reported that the use of newsprint in 1944 will be reduced an average of 23 per cent below 1941 levels and will be cut 30 or 40 per cent for some large publishers.

Boren told the WPB officials the committee favors aggressive action by the WPB to bring about greater use of reclaimed paper and thus increase the output of newsprint. He said the WPB should encourage, thru priorities, grants, and other means, development of de-inking and de-waxing processes whereby used paper can be salvaged for use in producing new paper.

Doubled Capacity Urged.

The committee, thru Boren, also asked the WPB to grant the necessary priorities for doubling the capacity of a paper mill at Lufkin, Tex., which is producing newsprint from southern pine timber. The committee has returned from an inspection of the Lufkin plant, operated by Southland Paper Mills, Inc., and producing approximately 50,000 tons of newsprint a year.

Boren said he and other members were favorably impressed with the Lufkin mill, which is reported to be the only plant in this country making newsprint from southern pine. He predicted domestic paper output could be expanded greatly if this process were extended to mills in other southern states with large timber reserves.

Boren said the committee's third recommendation is that the WPB overhaul its appeals machinery for granting extra paper to newspaper publishers with a view to reducing grants of extra tonnage and eliminating "star chamber" hearings on appeals.

Private Hearings Criticized.

Boren criticized the WPB appeals hearings on the ground they are private sessions between the WPB and publishers seeking more paper. With all newspapers forced to reduce their use of newsprint, he declared, every publisher should be given the right to be represented at any hearing.

He also made public a letter from President Roosevelt announcing the Canadian government has agreed to release 3,500 woodsmen for importation into the New England states, where they will be employed in pulpwood production.

H. M. Bitner, head of the WPB printing and publishing division, told the committee grants of extra newsprint on appeals will be reduced materially in 1944 under a revised curtailment order now being drafted.

"The new quota basis for 1944 will allow an increase in the use of newsprint based on the percentage gained in net paid circulation in the fourth quarter of 1942 over the fourth quarter in 1941," Bitner explained.

EARNS 6 CENTS TOO MUCH; OUT SECURITY FUNDS

Cairo, Ill., Nov. 22 [Special]. — Charles H. Wooten, 78 years old, has been deprived of his social security benefits for one year because during the six month period from October, 1942, thru March, 1943, he earned 6 cents more than the amount permitted by social security regulations.

Peyton Berblin, local attorney, described Wooten's situation today after an examination of correspondence between Wooten and the social security field office at Harrisburg, Ill.

Wooten, the attorney said, had been drawing benefit payments of $20.09 a month under a regulation stating that his eligibility was dependent on not earning $15 or more in any one month. Interpreting the regulation as permitting him to earn up to $15, Wooten took a part time job in a lumber mill for exactly that figure.

Upon learning this the Chicago area office informed Wooten that his receipt of more than $14.99 in earnings in each of six months would cause him to forfeit his social security benefits for those months and for six additional months, or a total of $241.08. Wooten will be eligible for social security payments again in August, 1944, it was said, providing he does not earn too much in the meantime.

RECALL RACKET WITNESS AFTER DEATH THREAT

Film Worker Quizzed on Trip to Chicago.

New York, Nov. 22 (AP).—Andrew J. Roach, recalled as a government witness in the trial of eight men accused of extorting more than a million dollars from the film industry, said today he did not know the girl he was to meet in Chicago to aid him in delivering a package to the late Frank Nitti in 1939 at the request of Louis Kaufman.

Roach, a motion picture projectionist whom federal bureau of investigation agents said was threatened last week by John Torton, an official of Newark [N. J.] local 244, International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employes, was cross-examined by J. B. Wegman, attorney for Kaufman, local 244 business agent, one of the eight men on trial before Federal Judge John Bright and a jury. Torten was arrested Saturday.

Quizzed About Blondes.

Wegman sought an admission that the girl Roach met at a Chicago night club was a Betty Lewerenz, whom the projectionist had known earlier in Miami Beach, Fla.

"I don't know if it is the same Betty as the girl you're talking about," Roach said.

Wegman then asked if a blonde girl from Miami had visited him in New York in the summer of 1939.

"I had a blonde visit me, but I don't know if she was the girl from Miami or where she was from," Roach replied.

Roach testified he had no knowledge of the contents of the package he took to Chicago for Nitti, who committed suicide after he was indicted for extortion with the eight others.

Charge Money in Package.

Boris Kostelanetz, assistant United States attorney general, produced a registration card of a Chicago club showing Roach had registered there on Nov. 28, 1939, when, the government charged, he made a trip to carry money from Kaufman to Nitti.

Roach said:

"When I get to Chicago a girl would come to the hotel to take me to this club which I didn't know and this man would come over to me and give me the password, which was 'Ten.'"

When Roach testified he was told by Kaufman, whom he linked with Nitti, to say his trip to Chicago was "to see a girl," Wegman asked if he said that was because he knew "what we found out over the week-end."

"I don't know nothing you done over the week-end," Roach replied.

URGE SCRAPPING OF 130 MILLION CANOL OIL DEAL

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—The war department's 130 million dollar Canol oil development in Canada, in which the United States has no post-war rights, should be discontinued immediately, government witnesses told the senate's Truman war investigating committee today.

The attack on the project, which had been expected to supply gasoline and other petroleum products to the army in Alaska, was led by Harold L. Ickes, secretary of the interior and war petroleum administrator. Budget bureau and war production board officials also testified against it.

Asserting that the development was started without his knowledge, Ickes added:

"The whole thing ought to be scrapped, junked right now. . . . We might as well save the 30 million dollars it is estimated it will cost to complete it."

"No Value After War."

"It's not sound business judgment," Ickes observed, "to buy something that is worth nothing, and will have no value after the war, in order to benefit the Imperial Oil company and the Canadian government."

The project includes the drilling of 27 wells in the Norman field of the Canadian northwest, wells at the expense of the United States, a pipeline from Fort Norman to Whitehorse, roads, and other facilities.

According to an announcement in Ottawa, the development will remain the property of the United States only as long as the war lasts, the American government being committed to sell it when the war is over. Canada will have the first option to purchase.

Considered Military Strategy.

The army launched the Canol development without consulting civilian agencies because it considered the project a matter of military strategy, H. Leroy Whitney, technical consultant of the WPB, told the committee.

Sen. Harry S. Truman [D., Mo.], chairman of the committee, announced that war department witnesses will be called tomorrow to give the army's side of the picture.

Even if the United States were to retain possession of the development, it would take 168 years at the present rate of production, 3,000 barrels a day, for this country to get its money back, Rep. Leon H. Gavin [R., Pa.] testified.

"It's just a bad deal, a headache," Gavin said, "and we ought to pull out."

Budget Director Harold Smith, another witness, traced the development of the project from May, 1942, when its cost was estimated by the war department at 25 million dollars, to the report of the budget's field investigators this year that the outlay would be 119 million dollars not including salaries of army officers.

AIRMAN HINTS INSANITY PLEA IN WIFE SLAYING

New York, Nov. 22 [Special].—A defense based on insanity was indicated today as Wayne Lonergan, royal Canadian air force cadet, pleaded not guilty to a charge of murder in the slaying of his heiress wife, Patricia Burton Lonergan, 22, in her luxurious Beekman Hill apartment a month ago.

Defense attorneys indicated they would have a psychiatrist examine the 25 year old flyer. A physician who examined him for the district attorney's office after he confessed the killing declared he was sane.

Lonergan did not speak during the brief hearing before General Sessions Judge George Donnellan. His chief counsel, Edward V. Broderick, entered the plea and was granted 10 days to file motions. Assistant District Atty. Jacob Grumet said he hoped to bring Lonergan to trial some time in January. The slayer was arrested in Toronto, Ont., after his wife's body had been found, beaten with heavy candle sticks and choked, in the apartment where their 1 year old son slept in an adjoining room.

"It's a letter from the Boss!"

Dear Joe:

It sure was grand to hear from you. I've had your letter posted on the bulletin board in your old department, because all the fellows and girls there are thrilled by the job you're doing and are eager to hear about you. I personally was glad to get your note because you and all the other fellows from the place who went into service have never been far from my thoughts.

As a matter of fact, when you ask me what our post-war plans are—because the boys in your outfit would like to know the kind of world they'll return to—you hit the very reason why I have had you on my mind.

Our first thought is to get you back—by turning out the stuff we know you need. For unless we first win the war, no post-war plan will be of any use.

However, if we don't begin to lay some plans now, we won't be able to put to much use the victory you fellows are winning for us. And our company, along with other companies—and with agriculture, commerce and the professions—is eager to help provide the jobs that people will want and need when the war's over.

Final decision regarding many of our plans depends on the answering of some mighty important questions. They're not the old questions of what competition is likely to do or how we can increase our plant capacity. They're new questions.

For example, what about taxes? Will the tax laws be changed to encourage investment in private enterprise, to induce people to take risks without fear of having all their profit taxed away?

What is government going to do with the plants it has built for war work? Will it put these into competition with private business or will it sell them to business for its own use?

How are we going to finance our reconversion to peacetime manufacture? How promptly will we be paid when our present government contracts are cancelled?

As I say, much of our planning depends on getting answers to these questions. But all in all, I would say that given a political and economic environment favorable to the expansion of free enterprise, you can be sure that—just as we are giving you what you need to win the war—we will be able to give you what you'll need to enjoy the results of victory.

Sincerely,

14 DAIRY GROUPS URGED TO ASK RADIO GAG QUIZ

Dan. T. Carlson, president of the American Dairy association, said yesterday he had asked the heads of member organizations in 14 states to demand that their congressional delegations obtain an official inquiry as to why the association's regular Sunday radio program was canceled suddenly and the time given to a speech by R. J. Thomas, president of the United Automobile Workers of America [CIO].

Carlson said at his home in Willmar, Minn., that the state dairy farmer leaders were "up in the air" because their program was barred and would lodge strong protests with their congressmen. Thomas spoke in favor of federal food subsidies, a controversial subject now approaching a decision in congress.

The association on Sunday placed a protest and a request for official investigation with Rep. August H. Andresen [R., Minn.], who said he would bring up the matter on the floor of the house in Washington, D. C., yesterday. The death of two house members postponed this action, but Carlson said the demand would be made at the earliest possible opportunity.

COURT MAY GIVE THREE CHILDREN TO PAUL BUTLER

Attorneys representing Paul Butler, sportsman and president of the Butler Paper company, and his former wife, Marjorie Stresenreuter Mathias, in their fight for custody of their three children, conferred for an hour in chambers with Judge Joseph Sabath of Superior court yesterday and it was understood an order would be issued giving Butler full custody.

Butler, who charged his former wife had become morally unfit to have the children, attended the conference with his attorney, Robert E. Cantwell Jr. Mrs. Mathias, now in Florida, was represented by Herbert Kamner of Miami, Fla., and Frank Teed. A hearing on contempt charges against Mrs. Mathias for removing Marjorie, 12 years old, from Illinois to Florida, was continued until Dec. 3.

Under the order from Judge Sabath it was understood that Marjorie would be returned from Florida and would be placed in the Avery Conley school in Downers Grove, from which her mother took her Sept. 17.

CHICAGO'S LITHS AND POLES ECHO FEAR OF STALIN

Agree with Rep. Sumner on Moscow Pact Peril.

Leaders of local Lithuanian-American groups and a number of Poles yesterday echoed fears expressed Sunday by Rep. Jessie Sumner [R., Ill.] that many European nations may not regain their independence after the war because it was not guaranteed in the recent Moscow pact.

Rep. Sumner, speaking at the New York celebration of the 25th anniversary of Polish independence, said some Washington officials contend that the effect of the pact is to transfer Europe from Hitler to Stalin because it was agreed to let the first power which reaches an occupied territory control it until elections are held. Stalin, who is expected to reach many of these countries first, may use the elections to seize control the way he did in Poland, she added.

Want Free Republic.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the National Lithuanian-American council Leonard Simutis, president, said he was speaking for everyone present when he asserted:

"Rep. Sumner expressed our thoughts exactly. We know, too, that it is the opinion of 99 per cent of the 100,000 Lithuanians living in Chicago. We all want a free, independent, democratic republic after the war. We never liked either the Germans or the Russians and we certainly don't want to be dominated by the Bolsheviks any more than by the Nazis.

"We are very much against both ideologies. The insignificant minority of Lithuanian communists we don't regard as Lithuanians. They comprise 1½ per cent of all Lithuanians at most but they are noisy and active, like Browder's group over here. That they follow the Moscow party line at all times is proved by the way they jumped from the Nazis' side to the allies' side when Russia did in 1940.

Prefers Death to Slavery.

"No, if Stalin ever takes over Lithuania and refuses to recognize its rights, we will continue to fight for our brothers and sisters in that country. The people over there would rather die, if they couldn't escape, rather than knuckle under the communist rule."

Others at the meeting included Dr. Pius Srigaitis, secretary, and Michael Vaidyla, treasurer, of the organization, which was founded to help Lithuania return to its prewar status. Guests were Col. Paul Zadeikis, minister to the United States from the Lithuanian government, and Col. Kazis Grinius, of New York City, president of the National Lithuanian council.

Poles Indorse Speech, Too.

John V. Olejniczak, president of the Polish Roman Catholic union, said the Poles feel a grave injustice will result if Poland's prewar status is not given back by international guarantees. "On that point," he added, "we agree with Rep. Sumner 100 per cent."

In the opinion of Mrs. Honorata Wolowski, president of the Polish Women's alliance, "everything looks as tho Stalin will take eastern Poland—it seems as tho he wants to help himself to everything he can get. Eastern Poland is old, old Poland and it should be returned to us."

SPARS' OFFICER BARES BEATING AND BLACK EYE

Says Husband Asked Her Not to Tell.

New York, Nov. 22 [Special].—Her poise broken frequently by sobs, Lt. Comdr. Sylvia A. Monen of the SPARS today lashed her physician husband, Dr. Maurice C. Whitehill, as a domestic tyrant who blacked her eye and then begged that she spare him from being made known as a "wife beater."

Comdr. Monen, herself a physician, took the stand today in Supreme court, Brooklyn, before Justice Edwin L. Garvin to bolster her claim to custody of her 9 year old daughter, Isabelle.

Assigned to California.

Comdr. Monen, a gynecologist, was recently assigned to a California station. Her husband is seeking to prevent her from taking the child with her. The couple maintain separate quarters here.

Little more than a year ago, said Comdr. Monen, her husband quarreled over furnishings which she was moving into her office. She said he blacked her eye and made her nose bleed, whereupon she went to the police and got a summons for his arrest.

"I told him he ought to be taught a lesson, because he had acted horribly," she related. "He begged me not to make a public display of him. He did not want to be known as a wife beater. So I dropped the proceedings."

Describes Dictation Scene.

She also described how her daughter had told her of finding Dr. Whitehill giving dictation to his secretary with the woman sitting on his lap—and how he threatened to beat the child if she told her mother.

Just before court was adjourned until tomorrow, Justice Garvin told her the court would not "think of taking the child from your custody if it should appear that you were going to remain in New York state and care for the child here." Dr. Monen made no response.

ARGUE 173-PAGE PROTEST ON 12C 'L' FARE TODAY

Protests by the city and state—173 pages of them—against a proposed increase in elevated fares from 10 to 12 cents will be argued orally today in Circuit court.

The city, the Illinois commerce commission and Atty. Gen. George F. Barrett are protesting a report to the court by Charles A. McDonald, special master in chancery, recommending the increase on the ground that the present fare is confiscatory.

The objectors assert that McDonald's valuation of $80,000,000 for the elevated lines is much too high.

FORECASTING BALDNESS

This young man has a good head of hair and doesn't feel that he will ever be bald. Yet his scalp is laden with dandruff, itches constantly, and he loses a great deal of hair each day. In a few years later it will be too late, and his appearance will be permanently marred, a serious handicap to anyone. Don't let baldness come to you, since scientific Warner treatment and proper care afterward can prevent it in most cases.

There is no charge or obligation for a scalp examination and consultation. Examination and treatment are given in strictest privacy. FEES FOR TREATMENT ARE VERY MODERATE AND ARE PAYABLE AS THE TREATMENTS ARE TAKEN — NOT IN ADVANCE. There is a separate department for women.

'Courage Stout'

By William MacLeod Raine

(Copyright: 1943: By William MacLeod Raine)

SYNOPSIS: At the funeral of Stuart Lane, the presence of Austin Reynolds, cattleman, is resented by the rustlers, who accuse him of ambushing Lane. Jess Blackburn tries to incite the men to violence, but Neal MacGowan, who plays a lone hand, implies Blackburn is swayed by a personal grievance, and averts trouble. Reynolds is not grateful, and accuses Neal of being the leader of the cattle thieves and outlaws. Neal is regarded as a renegade by the other cattlemen. From Janet Lane, Neal learns her father had no personal enemies, but on returning from Squaw creek, where he had cut a box elder, he was unusually absorbed. Tracing the tracks of Lane's wagon, Neal finds tracks of four horses heading for Rustlers' gap. The Sheridan stage had been held up by four or five men and the messenger killed the day before Lane was murdered. The warning, "Cow Thieves Beware," found on Lane, is the warning used by detectives of the Cattlemen's association. Neal follows the tracks to the gap, talks to Allan Dunn and Jess Blackburn, and discovers Nelson Gurley has been hurt and his horse shot. In his anxiety to incriminate Reynolds, Jess Blackburn casts suspicion upon himself and his associates. Neal visits Reynolds, questions him about Lane, and asks if he will vote for Janet Lane for school teacher. Eleanor, Reynolds' sister, invites him into their home, and tho her inferences are insulting to Neal, she is attracted. Austin and Eleanor agree to befriend Janet. Neal suspects Blackburn and the rustlers of the stage holdup. His belief is confirmed when Dr. Seneca admits Nelson Gurley was wounded by a sawed-off shot gun, the type used by Cole Tracy, stage guard.

INSTALMENT VIII.

FURTHER INVESTIGATION.

Neal nodded. "You can tie to Lance Arneill. My advice to you, doctor, is to write out a plain account of what has taken place—of how you came to go to the gap and what you saw and did there. Seal this in an envelope, and write on the outside that the envelope is to be opened and the contents read only in the event of your death. Give it to Arneill. Are you going up to the gap again?"

"Once more, to see that the wound is getting along all right."

"That's fine. Look Blackburn right in the eye and tell him what you have done but without telling him to whom you have given the envelope. Be bold and blunt. Let him see you are protecting yourself, and at the same time make it plain that you are doing no talking. You'll have him in a cleft stick. It's the only way you can make yourself safe unless you light out of the country."

"I won't do that," Seneca said quickly. "This is my home. I'm going to stay. But I think you're right, MacGowan."

"If you like I'll go into the gap with you," Neal offered.

The doctor thought that over. "No, I'll go alone." Anger rode for a moment his rubicund face. "I'll not let those villains bluff me. I'll let them know I have the whip hand."

Neal shook hands with him. "That's the way to talk, Doc. If I went along they would think it a frameup. But with you playing a lone hand they will figure you were smart enough to protect yourself from a shot in the back. You'll be as safe from Blackburn's gang as if you were in God's pocket."

The doctor looked at MacGowan sourly. "So you say. But I'm the man who knows too much and has to take a chance. All the way down I'll be expecting a bullet in the small of my back."

"It won't be that way," Neal promised.

He nodded good-by and walked out of the office.

Neal dropped into the Round Up. The bar was lined with patrons, and a dozen others stood around the roulette table. Near the back door a poker game was going, most of the players in their shirt sleeves. MacGowan was looking for a K-B rider. Two or three of them were in town tonight.

His eye picked up Tim Owen at the roulette table. The redheaded cowboy was in the second row and did not appear to be playing. Neal drifted thru the crowd and presently touched the boy on the shoulder. Tim slewed his head, grinned, and said, "'Lo, Neal."

MacGowan drew him to one side and gave instructions. "I want you to take my horse home when you go, Tim. It's at the hitch rack in front of the Silver Dollar. Rope and saddle Denver soon as you have had breakfast tomorrow. Be at Three Pines, on the Sheridan stage road, by 2 o'clock in the afternoon. And don't do any talking about where you are going."

"You meeting me at Three Pines?" the cowboy asked.

"Yes. If I'm not there wait for me."

The boss of the K-B slept and breakfasted at the hotel, after which he took the Sheridan stage. Hank Baldwin was driving. Neal took the seat beside him.

Hank was a small wrinkled man with washed-out blue eyes. An easy going, garrulous man, he told all about the latest holdup to MacGowan. They had been going thru the cut at Three Pines when the order came to pull up.

"Only one thing to do when the guy behind the mask yells 'Hands up!'" Hank said dogmatically.

"Know any of the holdups?" Neal asked with offhand carelessness.

"I couldn't swear to a-one of them," the driver returned promptly.

"Probably they were just about average size, not fat, not thin, not tall, not short," Neal laughed. "Don't blame you a bit, Hank. You're paid to drive the stage rather than to identify outlaws who can drill a man thru the heart the way they did Cole."

"I didn't know 'em," Hank answered.

It was past noon when they came to the pass at Three Pines. The road ran thru a deep cut strewn with boulders, flanked on both sides by rocky walls about twenty feet high. Hank pulled up and pointed with his whip to where the bandits had stood. Two had come out from the boulders and stood one on each side of the stage. Another appeared on the rock wall to the left of the coach and had done all the talking. The tracks examined later showed a fourth had remained with the mounts out of sight. There might have been a fifth.

Neal stepped down from his seat. "Here's where I leave you, Hank," he said.

The driver stared at him. "You aim to walk to town?" he asked.

"I'll get there somehow. Don't worry about me."

"I ain't worryin' about you none," Baldwin snapped. "But I don't git yore play. The sheriffs have been all over the ground and messed up any sign the holdups left."

"I want to look the ground over so that I'll know how to pull off a stage robbery when the time comes," Neal explained airily.

"Okay with me," Hank said. He released the brake, swung the whip, and went clattering thru the cut.

Neal quartered all over the ground on both sides of the cut. There were plenty of tracks, too many of them; for two posses had been here since the robbery.

One thing he discovered that was informing, a splash of dried tobacco juice on a flat rock where the mounts of the robbers had been tied.

Taking for granted that the robbers were from Rustlers' gap, Neal felt sure they would make for home as directly as possible by cutting across country and avoiding roads. His guess was that they would ride to Lame Cow creek and travel up the bed of it for several miles in order to leave no tracks for the pursuers to follow.

As soon as Tim Owen arrived Neal mounted and the two men started. There was a well defined trail to the creek, for both posses had cut sign of the robbers to that point and there lost the trail. MacGowan thought he understood the reason for that. The sheriff of Big Horn county was a comparative newcomer to the west and knew nothing about picking up and staying with a trail.

Neal took one side of the creek and Tim Owen the other. It meandered thru sage flats, moving in a leisurely fashion toward the distant hills. The men traveled for an hour before MacGowan called across to his companion, "They pulled out from the creek here."

The marks left by the horses as they emerged from the water were still plain. The bandits had struck across the sage flats toward a cleft in the hills.

"It would be close to dark before they got here," Tim said. "Bet you they camped for the night on Deer creek below Bryan Jennings' place."

That was probably a good guess, Neal thought.

DOME GAMBLING TRIAL EXPECTED TO START TODAY

The way was cleared yesterday for the trial today of the first of the gambling cases exposed by the October grand jury's sensational investigation, before Judge Rudolph Desort in Criminal court.

Defendants are Myles McDonough, lieutenant, and Philip Schwartz, a deputy, of the county highway police; Ercole Liberatore, alleged operator of the Dome, gambling house at 7466 Irving Park road, and William Bennett, alleged manager. It was the Dome raid and its aftermath which precipitated the gambling inquiry. Seven slot machines were seized in a raid there, but instead of being destroyed were allegedly permitted to disappear. The grand jury investigation resulted.

The general charge in the McDonough case is that gambling was permitted. Yesterday Alex Napoli, assistant state's attorney, and the several defense attorneys, said they are prepared to go to trial today. The defense will move to quash the indictment on the ground the raid on which evidence was obtained was illegal.

CHALLENGE USE OF STATE FUNDS PAID SOLICITORS

Suit Holds Farm Bureau Salaries Illegal.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 22 [Special].—Three officers of the United Farmers of Illinois, an affiliate of district 50 of the United Mine Workers, filed suit as taxpayers today to halt use of state funds to defray part of the salaries of 130 county farm and home advisers employed by farm bureaus in the state.

The petition, which was filed in Sangamon county Circuit court, states that $8,000 a month is being paid by the state to 80 farm advisers and $2,500 a month to 50 home advisers and attacks this expenditure as an unconstitutional use of public money. Payments are from a $357,000 biennial appropriation passed by the last legislature and in effect since July 1.

Held Private Enterprise.

The Illinois Agricultural association, of which the farm bureau organization is a part, is described in the petition as a private organization formed for the benefit and profit of its members. This association, which has its headquarters at 608 South Dearborn street, Chicago, operates several insurance companies and marketing and merchandising corporations, the suit charges, using the county farm and home advisers to solicit memberships, sell insurance, and encourage use by farmers of its various enterprises.

Defendants in Case.

Defendants in the action are Arthur C. Lueder as state auditor and William J. Stratton as state treasurer. Officers of the United Farmers who are plaintiffs are Charles H. Sheppelman, president; Arthur C. Helleman, vice president, and Arthur H. Booth, secretary-treasurer.

No Polio Cases Reported in Chicago for 48 Hours

LIQUOR DEALERS PLEDGE FIGHT ON BOOTLEGGER

Members of the Illinois Retail Liquor Dealers' association met yesterday in the Morrison hotel with representatives of five other midwestern states and pledged themselves to aid the government in its war on bootleggers and liquor black market operators.

The delegates who represent more than 25,000 tavern, restaurant, and hotel owners agreed not to oppose contemplated increases in liquor taxes, but stipulated they would request OPA permission to raise their prices to the next round number and so escape odd penny and fractional prices for drinks when the price ceilings are established.

A clarification of the cabaret law also will be sought, they said, because of various interpretations by enforcement officers.

MR. CHURCHILL'S ROLE IN OUR POLITICS

Cecil Brooks, an English journalist who recently traveled in America, has reported to his countrymen that Mr. Churchill is immensely popular here and that if he wishes to exert his great influence can swing the next Presidential election.

There is no doubt that Mr. Churchill has the respect and affection of the vast majority of Americans. Probably no foreign statesman in our history, and certainly none in our time, has been so warmly regarded by our people. Nevertheless, he can't swing the election by a direct appeal, as has already been pretty clearly demonstrated.

Mr. Churchill was last here at the time of the Republican conference at Mackinac and it was then that President Conant of Harvard gave him the opportunity to influence the Republican deliberations. No doubt in collaboration with Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Churchill at Cambridge spoke in favor of a joint British-American citizenship arrangement. No doubt, too, the plan was to stampede the Republican meeting.

The plan failed as all such direct interventions from abroad in our politics are destined to fail. The Republicans wouldn't stampede even tho a number of the conferees who seem to have been tipped off in advance had tried to get the conference in a receptive mood. Moreover, the widespread interest that has been taken in Mr. Brooks' statement of Mr. Churchill's influence can only serve to put Americans on their guard. There is less chance now than ever that the Republicans will fall into the New Deal trap and adopt a platform on foreign affairs identical with that of their opponents.

This is not to say that the English influence in our political life is not great. It has been and it is. The British have been most successful in their use of the American brothers-in-law of the British aristocracy. When an American girl has bought herself a titled husband, he and his friends go to work on her American relatives to swing them into the line of British policy. Insofar as these persons have social ambitions, they are easily hooked and their money and influence is soon found at the service of the crown. For all practical purposes, the brothers-in-law of the peerage are British agents and not the least distressing part about it is that often they don't realize how thoroly they have been taken in.

That is an old game that has been worked successfully for a good many generations and will no doubt continue to work. It must be distinguished, however, from a direct, personal appeal to the American voter by the British prime minister. That won't succeed because Americans, for all their respect for Mr. Churchill, know that his devotion to his own country is his guiding star. His passionate attachment to England must color any political advice he would offer the voters in this country. He is probably too canny to intervene directly in our politics, in the certainty that his appeal to our people would be resented and would defeat its own purpose.

TREACHEROUS TREATIES.

At one time in American history seven of the 13 states were willing to cede to Spain the United States' right of free navigation on the Mississippi river. It was in 1785, when Spain had offered a treaty which would allow the United States trade privileges with Spanish colonies. In return for these privileges Spain demanded that the United States relinquish its free navigation rights on the great inland river which terminated at the Spanish held port of New Orleans.

The six southern states, which looked to the Mississippi as their principal trade outlet and source of commerce, were determined that the valuable navigation rights should not be ceded. The seven northern states, including the seafaring New Englanders, were equally insistent that Spain be placated thru the relinquishment of navigation rights, because trade with the Spanish colonies would make the merchants and ship owners rich.

Luckily for the United States, the Spanish treaty resulted in a stalemate because the articles of confederation required the consent of nine states before any treaty could be ratified.

The story of the Mississippi navigation rights is interesting now because it shows the wisdom of requiring two-thirds of the senate of the United States to ratify any treaty with a foreign power. Some states have always been anti-American and willing to barter American rights and American freedom for their own selfish benefit.

AGAINST MONOPOLY IN AIR TRANSPORT.

The joint air transport committee of the Association of British Chambers of Commerce, the Federation of British Industries, and the London Chamber of Commerce has issued a declaration in favor of competition in the development of Britain's post-war international air lines.

The report opposes control of the lines by a single company, subsidized and dominated by the government, but recommends instead that the energy of private enterprise be permitted to work for their development. It suggests that the experience of British shipping companies and other industries in world trade be utilized by permitting them a share in air line development.

If British business, for which the committee speaks, succeeds in having its recommendations adopted by the government, it will have done more to advance Anglo-American economic cooperation than can be accomplished by a thousand meetings and teas conducted by the English Speaking union, the Union Nowers, and the American Association of Rhodes Scholars.

The air policy report is in direct opposition to the findings of Eric Johnston, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, who reported on his return from a recent visit to England that the question asked him most often was, "Are you going to repeal your anti-trust laws?" The inquirers were those who hope to extend to the United States the cartel system, which in Great Britain is not only permitted but sometimes sponsored by the government.

The cartel operates to divide markets, restrict production, sustain inefficient and high cost producers, cut employment and gouge consumers. It will destroy capitalism and, with it, the free government that depends upon economic freedom, unless capitalism is wise enough to outlaw cartels and monopoly first.

Americans have a natural and healthy distrust of monopoly, and in that distrust lies our hope of economic survival. If British business is really getting back on the road to free competition, from which it has departed even farther than American business, our two nations can strike hands in post-war economic effort to mutual advantage. If, on the other hand, British business is determined to stick to cartels and monopoly all the lend-lease in the world can't save it, because it isn't worth saving.

SEA POWER ON THE TOKIO RADIO

The Japanese liar who directs the Tokio radio announcements of the daily destruction of the American fleet has puzzled a good many people in this country. Truth is a flexible article in military communiques. It can be stretched or compressed. The whole truth is not regarded as necessary but some semblance of truth is thought desirable. Bad news can be reprocessed to make it more palatable or it can be withheld. The Jap victory man fights his own battles and comes out of them with his home made successes.

As the result of the operations of this yellow Nelson we have no fleet and no sea carried airplanes. Hawaii, Panama, and the west coast must be temptingly open to invasion. Radio Tokio has disposed of the protecting shield. The new American descent on the Gilbert Islands must be a myth involving nonexistent ships of all categories. The miracle navy of Japan has destroyed American naval power without leaving the secure waters from which our taunting admirals have been unable to lure it.

This is not a new Japanese game. It was played when the Japs with a callous disregard for the lives of their own soldiers put the Russian Siberian Red army to a costly testing some years ago in a peaceable war which ran high in casualties. In the Amur river fighting Tokio day by day destroyed more Russian planes than were based in the far east. The Russians caught the spirit of the thing and destroyed more planes than Japan had. This competition led to some marvelous tabulations and there is no telling where the destruction might have ended if the Japs, as the result of their experiments, had not concluded that the Siberian army was too tough and changed their timetable, to go south where they now are and transfer the Russian affair to the portfolio of unfinished and postponed business.

Several guesses have been made as to the purpose of the Tokio liar. One was that he was talking up the morale on the home front. That wouldn't seem to be necessary. The Japanese people may know very little of the checks and defeats suffered by the sons of heaven. There may be some knowledge of crippled warships making port and of warships which did not come back, of shipping and plane losses. Many homes in Japan may know that their sons have been knocked off happily in the Pacific fighting. But very likely nothing serious as yet appears on the Japanese horizon. All is banzai and co-prosperity.

It has been thought that the Japs are on a fishing expedition for news. Their intelligence officers should know what is going on and probably do. You can't always be certain you got a ship. Nevertheless a pretty fair idea of how matters stand is possessed in Tokio. A guess which may be nearer the mark is that the lies are for American consumption and are intended to raise a distrust here of the reports of the war and navy departments. The Jap propaganda outfit may base an assumption that this can be done upon the demonstrated reluctance of Washington authorities to face the Pearl Harbor and Philippine defeats and allow responsibility to find its way to the higher-ups.

Such an effort to create suspicion and distrust here might make sense in the Japanese mind, but our fanatical and savage enemies have overdone it. We do not know exactly how much damage has been done Japanese sea power, but it is known that the islanders have suffered the most stinging naval defeats they have experienced since they came out of isolation and pretended to be a civilized nation. Jap admirals have been forced to revise the naval policy with which they started the war. Then they contemplated the seizure of Hawaii, the destruction of the Panama canal, and descent on the west coast.

Now, altho inadequate American forces are assigned to the Pacific, the Japanese are having trouble defending their own lines of communication and it is not rash for us to look forward to the time when they will lose control of the air and sea in areas upon which their new empire depends.

A post-war planner says it is only because people won't let bygones be bygones that we have wars. And antiques in the parlor.—Detroit News.

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

Hew to the Line, let the quips fall where they may. Reg. U. S. Pat. Office

NOW IT CAN BE TOLD.

The football season, which ended for us with a pleasing glimpse of Otto Graham making his last run in an overcoat, pursued by angry, fist-shaking Illini, will now pass into its talk-it-over aftermath. The "All" heroes will be selected; the player, the team, and the coach of the year will be solemnly crowned; and the records will be computed after consultations with Joel Kupperman. But not a single expert will say anything on the most important matter—the weather.

Where we sat, the weather was record-breaking. It was singularly devoid of nightmares in discomfort. We didn't get rained on; we didn't get snowed on; and our feet were never afflicted with chilblains. On six Saturdays we enjoyed relatively fine afternoons in the open air, and we intend to add a few words about this blessing to our remarks over the Thanksgiving day turkey.

Our logbook for those cheerful Saturdays reads: 62 degrees, clear; 60 degrees, clear; 43 degrees, cloudy; 48 degrees, cloudy, dampness in the stands from pre-game rain; 30 degrees, clear; 42 degrees, clear. That below-freezing entry may look like an invitation to pneumonia, but with galoshes, blanket, and heavy waistcoat in the MacArthur tartan, we kept in a glow. . . . Cloudbursts were reported from the eastern seaboard, and Minneapolis had its customary blizzard, but the football weather in Chicago was prime. It could not have been improved by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

Football reporters are not troubled by the weather as they were in the era of turtle-necked sweaters, because they have prevailed upon the seats of learning to provide them with steam-heated conservatories. But this year the grind of war time travel dulled their high spirits. They have been hurried in the concoction of last-edition masterpieces by the need to catch the 5:15. Missing it meant waiting for the 3:00 a. m. or remaining overnight in a town where there was almost nothing to eat and no place to sleep.

HELP, HELP, HENRY!

egad, I guess it must be fate but I can't keep my budget straight my bills continue to amass insurance, food and rent and gas take too much from my pocketbook and give my face a harried look it makes no difference on what day
I draw my well earned welcome pay no matter how I play this game
it all ends up the very same

I daily pack my lunch but still
I finish with my bank roll nil
I go bare limbed to save on hose
I've patched up all my last year's clothes yet nothing seems to help a bit the eight ball finds me tagging it please, Mister Morgenthau (or aide)
I need some help or I'm afraid
I'll tell you (when you ask the score) that's all there is—there ain't no more!

"This Type Is Crazy."

There are many types of woman. For example:

The jitterbug: This type is crazy. Every other word she utters is "corny," and in between she says "On the beam," "Now you're cooking on the front burner," "Give out, Jackson," and like expressions.

The flapper: This type is crazy. She wears her hair and her skirts in the upsweep manner; 99 per cent have knobby knees.

The pseudo-sophisticate: This type is crazy. In her youth [far distant, usually] she learned a few passages from Shakespeare, and is always spouting them at the unprotected male. Doesn't know that he has also read Shakespeare.

The Veronica Lake: This type is crazy. Wears her hair all over her face, thus causing doubt as to whether she is trying to imitate Veronica or trying to hide her pan. The latter is usually the case.

The glamor girl: This type is crazy. Goes around looking bored with the world. When she is out with a civilian she keeps looking over at the girl at the next table with a service man. Her eyes plainly show that she wishes she were with a service man. When she is out with a uniform and is drinking a nickel coke she glances longingly at the girl at the next table, who is escorted by a civilian, who buys her $1.85 zombies. Then she wishes she were with a civilian, who has more moola to spend. Guy Finamore.

THANKSGIVING, 1943.

We used to think in years gone by
That roasted turkey, pumpkin pie,
And richly buttered pomme de terre,
And Burgundy of vintage rare,
Cranberry sauce, prepared with skill,
And luscious nuts from old Brazil,
And raisins pleasing to the taste,
And oval olives, crimson-faced,
And celery, snow white and crisp,
And watercress, a tiny wisp,
Were edibles designed for Yanks
And for which we should offer thanks.
But this year we shall thankful be
For just a letter, labeled V.

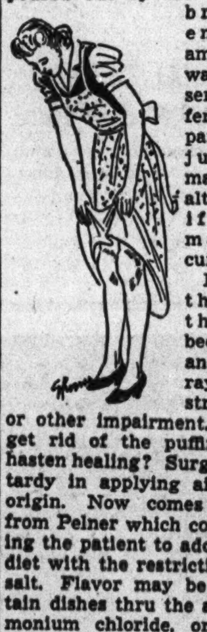
REMOVING WATER ON THE KNEE.



BUMPS on the knee are so frequent that little attention may be paid to them unless swelling is excessive. Now and then, however, the fluid which is poured out by the synovial membrane may be enormous in amount. In fact, walking may be seriously interfered with. As a part of the injury, ligaments may be strained altho very little if any tearing may have occurred.

Let us assume that trauma of this sort has been suffered and that an X-ray has demonstrated no bone or other impairment. How can we get rid of the puffiness and thus hasten healing? Surgeons have been tardy in applying aids of medical origin. Now comes a suggestion from Pelner which consists in obliging the patient to adopt a high acid diet with the restriction of common salt. Flavor may be provided certain dishes thru the addition of ammonium chloride, or this remedy may be prescribed orally.

It has been shown that there is a close connection between joint secretions and the blood stream. Sugar taken by mouth can reach the hinges of the body quickly. This means that, under proper management, excess liquid can be discharged with equal facility.

One of Pelner's cases is that of a 45 year old woman who fell and hurt her left knee. She was placed on the ammonium chloride régime. At the end of seven days there was but slight variation from normal. Furthermore, motion was complete. In the meantime, bandage compression was of considerable value.

In another instance, a young college athlete was given the same treatment with favorable results. Later, he sustained a second accident and, instead of using the salt-free plan, the joint was tapped. It was necessary to drain the region again when his temperature rose. Six months after recovery, a third mishap was encountered and this time the high acid diet was followed, which brought about a prompt cure. Mobility was restored speedily.

The extraction of water which has collected on the knee has always been a difficult problem. Occasionally long periods of bed rest have been required. There is a vast difference between a week or 10 days on this dietary management and a month or two demanded by other procedures.

As we know, foods which produce acid include plums, prunes, stewed figs, cooked wheat or oatmeal, eggs, and meats. Vegetables should be confined chiefly to corn and beans. Cheese is permitted altho no salt is employed in cooking.

Under this regimen, fluid is removed from edematous tissues and is either excreted via the urine, discharged thru the lungs or skin, or shifted to other parts of the body where it can be utilized. There is really no occasion to deprive the patient of beverages. Insofar as thirst dictates, it may be satisfied. Coffee and tea may be allowed. This is practically the same program which is used with victims of water retention caused by a defective urinary output.

HOW MUCH BLOOD?

A. writes: Your reply to A. W.'s question concerning the amount of blood in the body is not clear to me. Evidently you did not mean that each pound of body weight is represented by one pint of blood.

REPLY.

The answer was confusing. The total quantity is approximately one-thirteenth of the weight of the body. An individual who tips the scale at 130 pounds would possess 10 pounds of blood. Assuming that a pint weighs a pound, this would equal five quarts. This estimate is conservative. The average is probably nearer six quarts.

TEMPORARY OBESITY.

Mrs. H. A. writes: What is the cause of a periodical sharp gain of 8 to 10 pounds in weight which comes and goes?

REPLY.

When avoirdupois increases rapidly, water is being retained in the tissues. An out of balance endocrine disturbance is probably responsible. It is well, however, to check the kidneys and the circulation.

SKIN DRYNESS.

C. C. writes: What causes the entire body to be chapped, scaly, and itchy?

REPLY.

Lack of activity on the part of the oil glands within the epidermis. Hot baths will help. Thereafter dry thoroly and rub a bland ointment, such as lanolin, into the cuticle.

HEATING THE TISSUES.

I. D. writes: Is short wave the same as diathermy?

REPLY.

Short wave diathermy warms the parts via an oscillating current of high frequency. The word "diathermy" means to "heat thru." The temperature within the tissues rises because they resist the passage of the current.

Not a Horse to Stand On.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—Every other square in Washington is a park, and in the exact center of every park is a statue. Every statue is of a general, and every general is seated on a horse. A vigilant study of these steeds in the last few days has convinced this student of matters equestrian that all the generals are astride the same horse, and he is no Man o' War. He is the meekest, mildest, homeliest horse that ever galloped or reared his way into bronze. One look at him, and you can see why most of the generals we have memorialized in our parks died in bed; their horses shied away from the field of battle.

Few persons other than Barney Baruch apparently give the deep study to these steeds that this department has done, but Mr. Baruch every morning sits and suns on a rickety little bench in a park across from that building, the treasury, which now is more money in arrears than Mr. Baruch ever conceived even in his sunniest daydreams. He sits there in mood as even and imperturbable as that of the pigeons who flutter down by the hundreds to peck in the grass beside him, and the name of Mr. Baruch's private park is Lafayette park.

However, that fine Frenchman just barely made the confines of his park, for the center of the square is given to an equestrian statue of Andrew Jackson, who with difficulty maintains his seat on that same horse all generals ride. Lafayette, a rather grim figure buoyed up by nymphs and curlicues, was edged into a corner that is practically out in the middle of Pennsylvania avenue.

It all is very strange, and for several mornings now we have been trying to get close enough to Mr. Baruch to ask him how, in his opinion, we shall commemorate the generals of this war in bronze, when bronze comes back by courtesy of the WPB. One morning we almost made it, but the path was impeded by a hefty lady of uncertain age who was feeding pigeons two benches away from Mr. B. She stopped our search for knowledge by dilating upon the joys of feeding peanuts to pigeons, an art which she has practiced for the last seven years. She pointed out 17 pigeons by name, calling each by name, and altho she knew the names well, the pigeons did not seem to know them at all. She also gave an interesting dissertation upon the one instance of monogamy she had noted in her seven years' study of pigeonry. By this time, Mr. Baruch had arisen and sauntered over in the general direction of the Treasury building.

Nevertheless, how to pose our World War II. generals in bronze is a peculiar problem, for if any of them ever is on a horse, no one hears of it. Shall we pose them in foxholes, in tanks, about to jump, parachute on back, from a bomber, leaning camouflaged from a coconut tree, or sitting at a desk in headquarters?

It is a problem no one has yet considered, and as one looking forward to the esthetic brightness of our postwar parks, this writer feels it is high time the problem be settled. Offhand, the only general reported riding a steed at all is Gen. Stilwell, who used a burro in Burma, and if you ask us, that burro is going to look very, very plebeian beside this horse ridden by all the bronze generals of the past.

War Worker's Sleep.

From Bruce Caldwell comes the tale of Tom Jones, a midnight shifter who sleeps by day. His room on Chicago's south side overlooks a parking lot, and until a week ago he slept nicely. Then he was awakened by the blaring of an automobile horn which honked spasmodically for 15 minutes until a couple emerged from the next door restaurant and drove away. This occurred for six nights. On the seventh night Mr. Jones investigated. He found a young collie standing on his hind legs in the front seat of the car. With his forepaws he pressed the horn.

WHAT FEDERAL AID DOES.

Chicago, Nov. 19.—The reaction to the federally dictated lunches now being served in our public schools is very interesting. However, it should bring home to every one interested in our public schools that federal aid means federal control.

The reason the Chicago board of education requested financial help from the federal government has not come to my attention. Our school lunchrooms have, on the whole, served well balanced meals. The prices charged were sufficient to cover food, equipment, and operating expenses only as the lunchrooms were established on a non-profit basis. In opposing senate bill 637, known as the federal education bill, the Friends of the Public Schools of America foresaw federal control of all education in prospect in the United States. We now have a concrete example in the matter of food served in the school lunchrooms.

If we believe the American way of local self-government for local public institutions is the most democratic way and the best way to obtain the kind of control we desire, then we must assume the responsibilities connected with the plan we prefer, and to see to it that our local authorities are informed that Chicago citizens are capable of financing their own institutions without financial aid from the federal government.

OVERSEAS LEAVE.

Deerfield, Ill., Nov. 17.—I wonder how many mothers' hearts are aching as mine, at the news that the war department is not going to grant furloughs to the boys overseas. I have two there, and know that they are homesick, and know how bad that can be.

They've looked forward to getting to come home on furlough, at least when they've been over long enough. Nothing will do more to help keep up their morale than looking forward to coming home on leave, unless the job they are wanting to get done so badly is done very soon.

I know my boys, and know that many others must be feeling as badly as they do. The war department will be doing them a great injustice if they do not grant them furloughs and bring them home.

"L" SERVICE.

Chicago, Nov. 17.—I noticed an article today which stated smugly that the officials of the elevated company reported that complaints growing out of the new elevated schedules due to the subway were not so frequent. This, however, does not mean that people are satisfied. After all we have work to do and do not have time to write letters of protest every day. Nevertheless we expect that those who are in charge of transportation in Chicago will see that we get better transportation because of the subway rather than worse.

AN ANNOUNCER'S VIEWPOINT.

Urbana, Ill., Nov. 16.—T. C. Fetrow, who wrote to your column last Sunday that "98½ per cent of radio time is taken up by smart alec announcers," is in my mind, doing a great injustice to the great American radio industry.

I have been, for some time a radio announcer, which may to some extent lend prejudice to my views. Nevertheless, these facts must be remembered: [1] That radio time is a commercial product and must be sold if radio stations are to exist; [2] that less than one-fourth of all radio time is spent on commercials; [3] that the person listening in is at complete liberty, always, either to turn off the radio or to change the stations whenever commercials annoy him; [4] that radio programs would become dull and boring if there were absolutely no commercials, and [5] that no one need purchase and listen to any radio if he is dissatisfied with the type of programs obtainable on that radio.

A radio announcer, contrary to popular belief, is just an ordinary human. If some announcer ruins the pleasure you could find in listening to a program, either thru his style of chatter or his voice, let him know about it. If some special broadcaster incurs your listening pleasure, then, also write and let him know about it. Oftentimes an announcer will change perfectly good programs to bad ones merely because he has received no indication, whatsoever, from his audience that they enjoy his programs; he then decides that his programs are not too good and acts accordingly.

MARRIAGE VALID.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—[Legal Friend of the People].—A young woman was married in this state several years ago under a surname she believed to be her own. When she was a year old her mother divorced her father and subsequently remarried. The new husband assumed parental responsibility for the little girl but never adopted her legally. COUNT 19 LOST IN COLLISION OF TANKERS AT SEA

39 or More in Two Crews Survive Crash.

Lewes, Del., Nov. 22 (AP).—Nineteen men were lost and presumably died in a blazing sea after the tanker Bostonian crashed into the tanker Altair in a thick fog 58 miles off the Atlantic coast at midnight Saturday, a 4th naval district spokesman disclosed tonight.

Thirty-nine surivors were rescued, two of them badly injured, the spokesman said. Unofficial reports which the navy did not disapprove said still other survivors were landed in another Delaware port.

Capt. Rein Schenore, Latvia born master of the Altair, 7,000 ton Socony Vacuum Oil company vessel, said most of the missing were members of his crew who jumped overboard "when the water was already ablaze."

One Lifeboat Launched.

"That was a very foolish thing to do," said Schenore, who commanded the only lifeboat launched from the blazing ship.

The Altair was heading toward Philadelphia with a cargo of crude oil. The Bostonian, a 7,000 ton Pan-American vessel, was running empty.

Ralph Gagliardi, 23 years old, of Bridgeport, Conn., a deckhand on the Altair who was on the boatdeck, said the Bostonian hit the Altair head-on at about midships.

"The Bostonian slewed around sideways and hit us broadside," Gagliardi said.

"All the men were sleeping on deck because the fog was so heavy that we feared a collision.

2 Craft Are Smashed.

"Lifeboats No. 1 and 3 were burned and smashed in the broadside collision and the crew was in too much of a hurry trying to launch No. 4. One end hit the water before the other and it was swamped.

"But lifeboat No. 2 was launched O. K."

Capt. Schenore, who was on the bridge, said "2d Officer Eugene Marxille was the first to sight the Bostonian. Almost before he had shouted the command, 'Heel her hard over,' the Bostonian truck.

"She made a complete circle immediately and came around between the burning ship and the lifeboat shielding the men from the fire."

The Bostonian, formerly an Italian ship, carried a plate on her smokestack bearing the words, "Genoa, Italy." She proceeded to Marcus Hook and the Altair was reported in the Lower Delaware.

DINNER MARKS OPENING OF N. U. ARMY CLASSES

The opening of the civil affairs training school in Northwestern university's law school was observed last night with a dinner in the Knickerbocker hotel attended by 100 faculty members, army officers, and civic leaders. Franklyn Bliss Snyder, president of the university; Mayor Kelly, and Brig. Gen. W. E. Guthner, internal security officer of the 6th service command, spoke.

Classes in the new military government school began yesterday afternoon and are being attended by 85 army officers from the rank of second lieutenant to lieutenant colonel.

The two month course will cover the languages, customs, and geography of certain undisclosed areas.

Sam Mayberry, who was charged by a coroner's jury with beating Burek and charged with manslaughter by the Will county state's attorney, and Arlett Evans, who testified to suggesting that the attendants report Burek was beaten by another patient, have been dismissed, Claude Garrett, who testified he made a false report and then changed his mind because his conscience bothered him, has been suspended.

Friend of the Yanks' Kin

BY SALLY JOY BROWN

[This department answers questions covering problems related to the social welfare of relatives of service men, both in the column and by mail, if stamped, addressed envelopes are sent with inquiries to Sally Joy Brown.]

D. J. writes: "My son, who is in service, recently returned home on furlough and found that his wife had been unfaithful to him. He has purchased many war savings bonds, on which she was named as co-owner, and which were left in her possession. He is starting proceedings for a divorce and would like to know if there is any way in which he can retrieve these bonds, or the proceeds from them. I am not sure whether she has cashed these bonds."

ANSWER: To the best of my knowledge, there is nothing your son can do concerning the war savings bonds. If the wife has not redeemed them, your son may ask that they be returned. However, the co-owner in possession of war savings bonds has complete control over them. Redemption may be effected without the knowledge or consent of the other co-owner.

This is one of the very important reasons all purchasers of bonds should have implicit confidence in the person named as co-owner.

Mrs. W. S. H. writes: "Is my allotment check, part of which comes from my husband's pay, payment in advance for each month or payment for the month just passed? The checks are always dated the first of the month. A recent divorce decree makes it imperative that I know before I cash the last check."

ANSWER: If your husband contributes a part of the amount of money you are receiving, your check is a family allowance, rather than an allotment. As a general rule, the first pay roll deduction from the soldier's salary is made for the month following the month in which he made his application for an allowance. For example, if an application was filed on Dec. 27, the allowance would begin to accrue on the first of January. The first deduction from the soldier's salary would be made against his pay during the month of January, and the allowance would be payable on about Feb. 1. Hence it would appear that the checks cover the month just passed.

K. L. writes: "I am a widower with two small children. Since the death of my wife, I have been living with her parents and supporting them. In the event that I am inducted, will my mother-in-law be entitled to the allowance normally given to the wife of a soldier? Kindly advise how much money would be available."

ANSWER: Allowances to dependents are set by law. Your mother-in-law could not be considered a class "A" dependent, as a wife would be, but if you support her entirely, she could be a class "B-1" dependent and entitled to an allowance of $50 a month. The children would be class "A" dependents and would receive $62. Both parents could receive a total of $68 a month, if you apply for assistance for them. It will be necessary for you to contribute $22 towaard the children's allowance and $5 toward the allowance for your in-laws, hence your total contribution would be $27.

We have a new bulletin which contains complete information on the family allowance, including all the recent changes in dependency classification, rates, etc. Interested readers may obtain it by sending in a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

MOVING PICTURE OPERATORS LINK LEADER TO SUIT

Peter Shayne, president of the Chicago Moving Picture Machine Operators union, local 119, yesterday was made an added defendant in the $5,000,000 accounting suit filed against the union Nov. 16, in which six officers and 12 corporations were originally named defendants. Judge Julius H. Miner of Circuit court also permitted Atty. David Riskind to add the names of 13 union members to the list of six plaintiffs in the action.

Riskind also asked that the officers be enjoined from expelling members by fraudulent means but Judge Miner ruled that the injunction he issued last week against the officers covered the case adequately. Don Peebles, representing the defendants, contended the union bylaws for trial and disciplining of members would take care of the case.

Riskind replied that such laws were acceptable in ordinary cases but asserted, "In this case the officers were under the control of Capone mobsters and it is the duty of the court to give extra protection to men who had the temerity to expose conditions and attack the Capone mob openly for the first time."

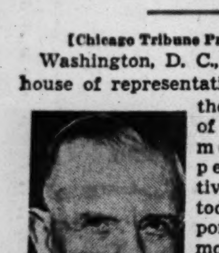
2 DEATHS DELAY HOUSE VOTE TO BAN SUBSIDIES

Chamber Mourns Ditter (R.) and Steagall (D.).

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—The house of representatives, mourning the death of two of its leading members, suspended legislative business today and postponed until tomorrow a vote on the controversial pending bill to prohibit food subsidies.



Rep. Henry J. Steagall.

House consideration of a new revenue bill, calling for 2 billion 140 million dollars in new taxes, was postponed until Wednesday, instead of tomorrow, as a result of the deaths.

Today the congressmen joined in paying tribute to Rep. Henry J. Steagall [D., Ala.], who died unexpectedly in the capital this morning, and Rep. J. William Ditter [R., Pa.], who was killed last night in a plane crash near Columbia, Pa.

Both Men Are Praised.

Democrats and Republicans joined in praising the ability and statesmanship of both men, who were generally recognized as two of the ablest lawmakers in congress.

Steagall, 70 years old and a veteran with 28 years' service in the house, was stricken by a heart attack last Friday soon after making a speech in opposition to the administration's plan for continuing and enlarging its food subsidy program. In spite of being in poor health recently, he had continued to carry on his duties in the house.

As chairman of the powerful banking and currency committee, Steagall held one of the most influential posts in the lower chamber. Altho a Democrat, he was a leader in the current fight against the administration's food subsidy proposal and it was his committee which drafted the bill to outlaw subsidies.

Steagall, 70; Ditter, 55.

A lawyer by profession, Steagall was a native of Alabama and made his home at Ozark. A widower of 70, he is survived by three children.

Ditter, 55 years old, has been in the house since 1932 and was serving as chairman of the Republican national congressional committee, an organization to support Republican candidates for office.

He was a ranking minority member of the house appropriations committee and was noted for his consistent demands for economy in federal expenditures and the elimination of wasteful spending.

Spence Succeeds Steagall.

Ditter was a law graduate of Temple university and lived in Ambler, Pa., representing the 17th congressional district. He is survived by his widow, a daughter, and a son, Ensign J. William Ditter Jr.

The chairmanship of the house banking committee, left vacant by Steagall's death, will go to Rep. Brent Spence [D., Ky.], the ranking majority member and a consistent administration supporter.

The two deaths leave 219 Democratic members in the house, 207 Republicans, and 4 from minor parties, with 5 seats vacant.

COUPLE HALED INTO COURT FOR IGNORING $50 TAX

Taxpayers in the lower brackets are not going to have any more success dodging their payments than those in the upper brackets. Officials in the office of the internal revenue collector made this statement yesterday after Mr. and Mrs. Louis Shaffer, 6336 Drexel avenue, were brought into federal court on a body attachment because Shaffer had failed to pay $50 tax.

Raymond T. Lopata, assistant United States attorney, told Judge William H. Holly that Shaffer had agreed to pay the tax in $5 monthly instalments, but had failed to keep his promise and then ignored a summons to come to the collector's office and explain. Judge Holly continued the case to Jan. 17.

AGED HANDYMAN IS KILLED WHEN STRUCK BY AUTO

Fred [Fritz] Semmler, 80 years old, 1253 Barry avenue, who worked as a handyman for prominent families for 60 years, was killed yesterday when he was struck by an automobile in Lincoln avenue at George street. The driver, Charles W. Aubert, 36, of 2714 Magnolia avenue, said that Semmler stepped out from behind a parked car.

William F. Flynn, 45, of 66 West Van Buren street, a waiter, was killed by a taxicab at State and 7th streets. He recently came to Chicago from Detroit, Mich. The cab driver was Carl Reihn, 43, of Mokena, Will county.

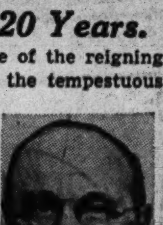
MORRIS ELLER DIES AT 77; LONG IN CITY POLITICS

G.O.P. Head in 20th Ward for 20 Years.

Morris Eller, one of the reigning political bosses of the tempestuous prohibition era in Chicago, died yesterday in his home at 3733 Pine Grove avenue after an illness of about 10 months. He was 77 years old.



Morris Eller.

A native of Russia, Mr. Eller immigrated to Chicago when he was 17. He entered the real estate business, but his interest shifted to politics after he became a Republican worker in the "bloody" 20th ward. His first reward was a job in the county recorder's office, where he worked more than 18 years.

Committeeman of 20th.

In 1912 Eller was elected committeeman of the 20th ward and he held this post until his retirement in 1932. He served as city sealer from 1915 to 1921, then was elected a sanitary district trustee. With a change of administration in the city hall in 1927 Eller received an appointment as city collector, an office he held until 1931.

Eller's former home at 5552 Congress street was bombed Sept. 3, 1926, and this incident was followed by a series of similar explosions attributed to political strife. Later the same year Eller was accused of having ordered the jailers of Terry Druggan and Frankie Lake, the beer barons who enjoyed unprecedented privileges while serving county jail terms, to "show them every courtesy" because they were "election day vote getters."

Acquitted of Conspiracy.

Eller and his son, Emanuel, then a Superior court judge, were indicted in 1928 on conspiracy charges ranging from the protection of gambling and prostitution to conspiracy to commit the murder of Octavius Granady, a Negro. Granady, who opposed Eller for committeeman, was slain on primary election day in April, 1928. Eller was acquitted and the indictment against his son was dismissed.

Eller is survived by four daughters, two sons, 17 grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, and a sister. Services will be at 2 p. m. tomorrow in the chapel at 5145 Broadway. Interment will be in the Jewish Waldheim cemetery.

GIRL, 21, SLAYER OF STEPFATHER, FREED BY JURY

Melbourne, Ark., Nov. 22 (AP).—A 21 year old girl was acquitted of a first degree murder charge tonight after she told a jury she shot her stepfather because he mistreated her.

After an hour and a half deliberation, a Circuit court jury of Ozark farmers freed red haired Mary Catherine Durant of the charge of slaying 43 year old Charles W. Durant.

The prosecution contended the girl had planned the killing after her stepfather prevented a correspondence school marriage, but Mary Catherine asserted Durant began making advances to her shortly after her mother married him 12 years ago.

Allman Seeks 100 Police from Civil Service Lists

The civil service commission, at the request of Police Commissioner James P. Allman, yesterday sent letters to 300 men on the police eligible list to report Friday at 54 West Hubbard street for physical examinations. From the group Allman hopes to get 100 men for the department, which has lost 732 to military service. All of those called have passed their civil service examinations, but a large percentage of them probably are frozen in war jobs and will not be able to respond, Allman said.

HEALTH QUIZ

	YES	NO
Do you have poor digestion?	☐	☐
Do you feel headachy after eating?	☐	☐
Do you get sour or upset easily?	☐	☐
Do you feel tired—listless?	☐	☐

Now everyone knows that to get the good out of the food you eat—you must digest it properly. But what most people don't know is that Nature must produce about two pints of the digestive juice—liver bile—each day to help digest your food. If Nature fails—your food may remain undigested—lie sour and heavy in your digestive tract.

Thus, it is simple to see that one way to aid digestion is to increase the flow of liver bile. Now, Carter's Little Liver Pills start to increase this flow quickly for thousands—often in as little as thirty minutes. When bile flow increases, your digestion may improve. And, soon you're on the road to feeling better—which is what you're after.

Don't depend on artificial aids to counteract indigestion—when Carter's aid digestion after Nature's own order, when taken as directed. Get Carter's Little Liver Pills today—at any drugstore—only 25¢. You will be glad you did.

She waived alimony and her attorney, Leo Bartolini, pointed out that she would lose the army allotment she has been receiving.

TURKEY PRICES DIVE UNDER EYE OF OPA AGENTS

The Thanksgiving turkey gouge is past, Michael F. Mulcahy, Chicago area director of the office of price administration said yesterday after receiving reports from a dozen investigators.

Widespread newspaper publicity carrying warnings against violations of price ceilings by retailers helped to save consumers thousands of dollars, he said, and the OPA itself took the wholesale situation in hand and whipped it.

On Fulton market it was estimated that 30 to 50 per cent of the demand for Thanksgiving turkeys will be met. There are unusually large quantities of geese, ducks, and chickens available.

Tea to Mark 2 Hull House Events Dec. 2

BY JUDITH CASS.

A TEA that the president, board of directors, residents, and associates of Hull House are giving from 4 to 7 p. m. Dec. 2 will be a double celebration with a dual purpose. The celebration will be the official welcome of the settlement's new head, Russell Ballard, and at the same time it will mark the 50th year of the association of Mrs. Joseph T. Bowen, president, with the institution.

The occasion also will provide an opportunity for the contributors to the settlement to meet the community, for contributors and members of the community are on the invitation list, along with leaders of social work in Chicago, among them the heads of other settlement houses and their boards of trustees. The party also will give the guests their first opportunity of meeting Mrs. Ballard, who is taking an active interest in her husband's work there.

Mrs. Bowen, who will have her 85th birthday next February, formerly spent a part of every day at Hull House, but gasoline rationing has limited her visits there. Mr. Ballard is the first male head resident director that the settlement has had since it was founded by the late Jane Addams, a close friend of Mrs. Bowen, who helped in the founding. Mr. Ballard was superintendent of the Illinois State Training School for Boys in St. Charles until he took over his new duties in September.

Engagement News.

Cadet Midshipman James Douglas Sinclair will have extra reason to remember his present visit at home, for at a small buffet supper Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Justus Chancellor Jr. of Winnetka announced the engagement of their youngest daughter, Barbara, to the young midshipman in the merchant marine. Midshipman Sinclair arrived in Winnetka several weeks ago after six months' service in the Atlantic and Mediterranean areas and is staying with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon D. Sinclair, awaiting orders to report to the Merchant Marine academy in Kings Point, Long Island, N. Y.

Miss Chancellor and her fiance both were graduated from New Trier High school, and she now is a student at Northwestern university. Before volunteering for the merchant marine Mr. Sinclair attended Washington and Jefferson college.

Present at Sunday's party were Miss Chancellor's sisters, Miss Imogene Chancellor and Mrs. Francis D. Burgweger, and the latter's husband. Mrs. Eugene Kuehlthau [Patricia Chancellor], who is visiting Ensign Kuehlthau's parents in Wisconsin, and Lt. Justus Chancellor III., on duty with the army air forces in the middle east, were missing from the family circle. Midshipman Sinclair has three brothers, Lt. Gordon Sinclair Jr. of the army air forces, Lt. [j. g.] Donald Sinclair of the naval reserve, and Lt. John Sinclair of the marines, and a sister, Janet, who attends New Trier.

Mrs. Thomas Lockwood Perry of Asheville, N. C., has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Joan Lozier Thomas, to Maj. Robert Campbell Diegert of the army air forces, son of Mrs. William N. Cartwright of Chicago. Maj. Diegert, who is serving overseas, was graduated from the Yale university school of architecture.

On Today's Calendar.

"The Commandos Strike" is the subject of a talk Bruce Thomas will give at 11:30 a. m. today at the Woman's Athletic club. He is replacing Mme. Wellington Koo, whose lecture planned for today was postponed until February. Mrs. T. Lloyd Kelly will be Mr. Thomas' luncheon hostess. Some of those who are entertaining at luncheon following the lecture are Mrs. Brode Davis, Mrs. Arthur W. Cutten, Mrs. Mark W. Cresap, and Mrs. Clarence Wright.

The date for the tea that Dr. and Mrs. Frank W. Blatchford will give to introduce to society their granddaughter, Miss Joyce Berry, has been changed from New Year's day to New Year's eve. The party will be given in the Blatchford home in Winnetka.

Mrs. Robert O. Law Jr. will entertain at a luncheon Dec. 24 at the Woman's Athletic club to introduce the Laws' daughter, Miss Dodie Law.

Miss Marian Duncombe, the Fred J. Duncombes' daughter, will be the special guest at a luncheon her aunt, Mrs. Fred C. Rowell of Roswell, N. M., will give Dec. 28 at the Camellia House. Mrs. Rowell is arriving Dec. 7 to remain thru the month with the Duncombes.

Here and There.

Lt. and Mrs. Joseph C. Belden Jr. spent the week-end in Lake Forest on their way from Seattle, Wash., to Lt. Belden's new navy post in Atlanta, Ga.

City Churches Will Unite in Giving Thanks

BY THE REV. JOHN EVANS.

Union Thanksgiving services in many communities of the metropolitan area will mark Thursday's observance of the holiday. One of the more notable of these will be held at 11 a. m. in St. James' Episcopal church, corner of North Wabash avenue and East Huron street, where congregations of Fourth Presbyterian and St. Chrysostom's Episcopal church unite with the host church.

Dr. Charles W. Gilkey, dean of the Rockefeller Memorial chapel, University of Chicago, will be the Thanksgiving preacher at the St. James service.

Many Mexicans of Chicago will hold their Thanksgiving service at 11 a. m. at San Marco's church, Harrison street and Ashland avenue. The church is a federated Presbyterian-Congregational congregation, and the Thanksgiving sermon will be preached by the Rev. Emanuel Escorcia, "good will ambassador" from churches of Mexico. The Rev. Lester T. Hershey of the Mennonite Mexican church will preside at the service.

Following the service, a dinner will be held, with Mrs. Eleazer Z. Perez of Alamos, Mexico, president of the Presbyterian Association of Sunday Schools in Mexico, as speaker. Alfonso Lloreda of Puerto Rico, formerly of the faculty of Colegio Americano, Bogota, Colombia, will present a good will message.

The Ravenswood community Thanksgiving service will be held at 10:30 a. m. Thursday in Bethany Evangelical church, Paulina street and Cullom avenue. The Rev. W. E. Dutton, newly installed pastor of Ravenswood Baptist church, will be the preacher. Six denominations will participate in the service.

All Christian Science churches will observe the day with services based on the subject of "Thanksgiving." Dr. Preston Bradley of Peoples' church, 941 Lawrence avenue, will deliver the Thanksgiving sermon from his pulpit for a service held under joint auspices of the Granville Avenue Methodist church and the North Shore Kiwanis club, the Uptown Lions club, and other business and civic organizations of the community.

Dr. Wilbur M. Smith of Moody Bible institute will be the preacher at the 7 a. m. sunrise Thanksgiving service at Midwest Bible church, 3469 North Cicero avenue. A Thanksgiving concert will be given at night by the Wheaton College Chapel choir of 50 voices at the Midwest church.

The Rt. Rev. Herman Page, bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Northern Michigan, will return tomorrow night to his boyhood church, St. Paul's Episcopal church, Kenwood, to deliver the Thanksgiving eve sermon. Bishop Page's father, the Rt. Rev. Herman Page Sr., who later was bishop of Michigan, was rector of St. Paul's from 1900 to 1915.

Thru the Looking Glass

A friend of ours, just back from a visit to WAC installations in many parts of the country, reports that any one who wishes to play Santa Claus to the girls in service should put grooming and beauty aids at the top of the list. She says that the smart Santa should make up a little kit of items, most of them more practical than frivolous.

The girls use bobby pins in great quantities, we were told, because hair straggling on the collar is good for a "gig" and the ends must be curled up every night. They would also appreciate a good hair net to keep the locks in place at night.

They use quantities of hand lotion in most areas, and they like the kind that is efficient but faintly scented, too. They would also appreciate, in this practical collection of useful aids, a good deodorant.

They love fine soap because it adds a luxurious touch to their regimented lives and because it is less trying to dry skin than many offered in districts where the selection is slim.

And while they don't use perfume, they can and do use quantities of cologne in any fresh fragrance. It bolsters their sense of femininity and is a pickup when they're hot and tired.

Manicure cases are high on their list of wants. In many places the beauty shops have discontinued manicures. The essential implements and preparations in a small, sturdy case are a necessity at many posts. Polish should be medium or light, not deep scarlet.

A body lotion that helps keep the skin smooth is badly needed in cold or very dry areas what with wool uniforms and climate that saps natural oil.

WACs—and this is true of WAVES, women marines, and SPARS, as well—have to streamline their beauty possessions, so don't send them stuff in fancy or bulky bottles and packages. But do send them the essentials, with a couple of sheer glorifiers, such as cologne or bath powder mitts, tucked in for femininity's sake.

Calls for More Women to Fill War Time Jobs

BY IRENE STEYSKAL.

Chicago rapidly is approaching a labor shortage crisis, Dean William H. Spencer, regional director of the war man power commission, told the Conference of Jewish Women's Organizations yesterday. He spoke at a war service institute, held in the Consumers building, 220 South State street.

Twenty thousand part time workers are needed, Dean Spencer said, if this area is to retain its present classification, with the consequent advantages in obtaining war contracts. He urged women to take part time jobs to help relieve the labor shortage.

Employed in the country now, Dean Spencer said, are 17,100,000 women workers, more than ever before in history. However, he said, from 2 to 4 million more workers will be needed next year if production quotas are to be met.

Wishful thinking and overoptimism that the war soon will be over, lack of understanding of the grave man power situation, and a "natural shyness" which led to their discounting the importance of the part time service they could offer, Dean Spencer said, are the three major deterrents keeping women from taking full responsibility in meeting the labor need.

Women's clubs, Dean Spencer asserted, could perform an invaluable service by bringing their communities in line to meet the workers' needs on matters of housing, transportation, the staggering of shopping hours, adequate day nursery facilities for the children of women workers, and banking facilities by mail. He said the man power commission found that in one area 85 per cent of the workers were obliged to cash their pay checks in taverns, with the result of slowed down production thru absenteeism.

Red Cross speakers before the conference called for more volunteer workers, particularly for the home service of the Red Cross and for preparing packages for American prisoners of war.

Mrs. John T. Pirie served as moderator for the Red Cross panel, which included Mrs. Jeannette T. Phillips, Mrs. L. W. Winship, Mrs. Louise Nenkisson, and Mrs. Seymour Shane. Mrs. Vivian Bennett spoke for the state war finance committee. Maj. Doris E. Epperson asked for coöperation in the current WAC recruitment program.

Presiding over the institute was Mrs. Milton C. Lippitz, chairman of the conference's war service and relief committee. The committee president is Mrs. Max Biesenthal.

NORCROSS GREETING CARDS

Be Frivolous in Accessories, but Profoundly

BY REA SEEGER.

Make your costume accessories count! Choose them carefully and seriously, even tho they are giddy and gay highlights for your indispensable simple dresses. Taffeta plaid and striped waistcoats redeem the gloomy solemnity of any suit. So do the awning striped vestees of brocade, satin or metallic cloth. Sequin spattered hats and matching gloves and bag [no matter whether the bag, gloves, and hat are of light or dark background] do double duty for afternoon, Sunday night supper, and theater parties. Spangled satin ascots are made this season to wear for front or side ties on a belt or for the muffled neckline of a simple jacket.

Dress parade jackets are back, brighter and shinier than last year. Thin, soft wool in white, dull black, and such pastels as green, pink, blue, mauve, and yellow fairly shine with beads, sequins, and paillettes. Silver, gold, copper, and jet beads are other highlights on these slim figure fitting jackets of soft wool. Fringe and tassels account for a lot of glory on other jackets, especially those bright colored wool models designed for afternoon and evening wear with a simple, dull black sheath dress.

The most sensational items in the accessory showings are the huge day time bags of fur. Spotted calf models are an example. They come in almost duffle bag size and shape, have a long band to sling over the shoulders and are knockout accents for the simplest of suits and coats. Both black and white and the brown and white calfskin are used.

Other smart bags are made of row upon row of swinging black fringe, or of Victorian ball fringe and braid. Bags are matched to hats, both covered with shimmering sequins the size of a quarter. The knitted hats and bags are well worth a gift selection, for you can find all colors and all manner of trim and accent. The jet beaded ones and those dangling with colorful sequins are especially gay and young. Price marks are amazingly low.

Household Forum

Agnes G., Chicago—Whenever candle wax gets on a piece of linen or a garment, I scrape off what I can with a dull knife. Then I place cleaning tissues above and under the stained spot and press with hot iron. Afterwards I wash or sponge with carbon tetrachloride.

Mrs. James W., Milwaukee—Next time you have to hang out clothes on a cold day, try my method of keeping your fingers warm. I heat my clothespins in the oven before taking them out. It helps.

Mrs. Nathan G., Peru, Ind.—If I find the brown sugar is hard when I want to use it I put it in a dish, wring a cloth out in hot water, and place it over the dish. I do this a few times and the sugar becomes soft enough to use.

Now, Your Idea—PLEASE!

According to Culbertson

[Copyright: 1943: By Ely Culbertson.]

One of the many paradoxes to be found in bridge is that safety plays sometimes must be avoided because they are not safe! The apparently silly contradiction involved in this statement simply means, of course, that every play, including safety plays, must be calculated against the background of specific conditions. For example:

South, dealer.

Both sides vulnerable.

NORTH
♥K Q J
♦K Q 8 6 5 3

WEST
♠Q 8 5
♥10 7 6 3 2
♦J 10 7
♣A 6

EAST
♠10 3 2
♥A 9 5 4

SOUTH
♠A K 9 6 4
♦A 4 2
♣K 8 3 2

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 spade	Pass	2 diamonds	Pass
2 spades	Pass	3 spades	Pass
4 spades	Pass	Pass	Pass

The best contract for the North-South hands, three no trump, was not easy to reach. North was naturally worried about his lack of club protection, and South was even more worried about the heart suit. Hence, altho North's spade raise was questionable, based on only the J-7 of trumps, it was not to be condemned. And, what is more to the point, South should have fulfilled the four spade contract against the defense he received.

West, vacillating between a heart and a club lead, was unfortunate enough to choose the latter. He laid down the club ace, but when East played the discouraging four spot, he shifted to the diamond seven. Declarer won with the ace and then led a low trump toward the jack. West promptly went in with the trump queen and led another diamond. East just as promptly ruffed, and when he then cashed the heart ace the party was over. Down one!

Declarer's lead of the low trump toward the jack would have been entirely in order, as a standard safety play, under normal conditions, when he could afford to surrender a trick and the lead. In this case, however, after West's diamond lead declarer should have realized that it might well be fatal to permit a second diamond lead before the opposing trumps were knocked out, and altho there was danger that the cashing of the ace and king would establish two trump tricks for the enemy, this was a lesser risk than the one actually taken. Moreover, as the cards lay, this procedure would have insured the contract.

Met Opera's Season Opens Amid Glamor for Diamond Jubilee

New York, Nov. 22 (AP).—The Metropolitan Opera, only New York musical institution still on the glamor standard, opened tonight with one of the greatest operatic spectacles of all time, sung before an auditorium bulging with mink clad women and men who for the most part wore dinner coats.

It was the Metropolitan's diamond jubilee, and the diamonds were all over the place. The opera was "Boris Godunoff," the star was Ezio Pinza, and standing room was, as always, fought for on the front steps just before the curtain rose.

But the resemblance to former opening nights was superficial, mostly a mater of flash bulbs, eager society reporters, and a collection of 40 fashion editors who spent their time checking up on the length of the women's gowns.

Police Women Enjoy Fling—in Judo School

Policeman Stanley Sarbarneck of the police training division yesterday showed the 50 police women attending the city's first training school for lady officers, the gentlemanly way to bring in a reluctant prisoner. But he couldn't carry on his demonstration of judo with all of them. "Arthritis," they explained.

As a build-up to actual demonstrations, Sarbarneck explained that with judo, the holding of an unwilling prisoner becomes a quiet and pleasant part of the day's routine. He either comes in quietly, Sarbarneck said, or has his arm, hand, or wrist broken, depending upon the hold and the strength applied. Later Sarbarneck said that the method certainly was more dignified than stepping on a prisoner's stomach or clubbing in his head.

He showed the women several dignified ways of bringing in a prisoner, including one that he paid $25 to learn in an Indiana judo school. He began with the lady-come-along, so-called because of its "refined" nature and peculiar adaptability to women. By getting the hand up and the fingers back, a woman can be brought to terms easily, he said. "If it is done correctly," Sarbarneck said, "it almost resembles a ballet dance." He showed, too, the full arm lock come-along, and the wrist lock come-along, both variations on the theme of bending the bones the wrong way.

Policeman William King portrayed the unwilling prisoner. Like a professional wrestler, he groaned loudly at the proper times. Then Sarbarneck invited the women to try it.

Sarbarneck said the women make good students, but that he would rather deal with men. "Don't have to be so gentle," he said.

The ladies will be back for more of the same later this week.

Immediately thereafter, the women stuffed moist cotton in their ears and had their first work-out on the police building's rifle range, where Capt. Harry Fulmer, head of the training division, instructed them in the art of pistol packing and firing. Fulmer said they did all right. "I would say they are as good as men beginners," he said. "But no better," he added hastily.

Lt. Mary Daly.

The event is one of a series marking the first anniversary of the women's reserve of the coast guard organized a year ago today. Lt. Mary Daly is senior SPARS recruiting officer for Chicago.

The organization of a new Chicago war service group, the Silver Wings club, will take place at a meeting at 2 p. m. Friday in parlor D of the Morrison hotel. The chapter will be the second in the nation for the national organization, which has headquarters in Atlanta, Ga., the city of its founding last February.

Officers will be elected at Friday's session, with Mrs. William D. Sands, corresponding secretary of the national club, directing proceedings. Eligible to join are wives and mothers of men who wear the silver wings of the army air forces. The club's war services include coöperation with the American Red Cross, especially in recruiting blood donors; with the American Women's Voluntary Services, and with Bundles for America.

Mrs. John W. Meyer is national president of Silver Wings. Her son, Fred, is flying with the army air forces in China. Mrs. Sands' son, Jack B. Commander, is a lieutenant in the air forces and is now in Texas.

Miss Ethel H. Davis, a Chicago young woman, is leaving a career in the editorial field to bring her special talents to a new war time job in the WAVES. Miss Davis enlisted recently and will leave soon for six weeks of officer training at the WAVES school at Smith college, Northampton, Mass.

The new WAVE is a graduate of Northwestern university, has been editorial assistant to Dr. Morris Fishbein of the Journal of the American Medical association, was assistant editor of the Dental Digest, and, with Dr. Edward J. Ryan, wrote a book entitled "War Medicine and Dentistry."

Miss Davis is the daughter of Mrs. Henry J. Davis of 3300 Lake Shore drive. One of her brothers, Philip, is director of the speakers' bureau of the Illinois War council.

The need for volunteer workers in several branches of the AWVS has increased, Mrs. Edith Kuhns, chairman of the placement bureau of the Chicago unit, reports. The approaching holiday season makes the demand for volunteers especially great.

Women who have time to give are urged to do clerical work and typing, entertain children in day nurseries, sell Christmas seals, serve in information booths, assist the WAC recruiting drive, do finger printing at the city hall, sell AWVS gift boxes at headquarters, and help in many ways at city hospitals.

Volunteers may enlist in the AWVS holiday program by calling Andover 3380 or applying at headquarters, 160 North La Salle street.

Mrs. Perkins Bass, vice chairman of the Red Cross volunteer nurses' aid corps, will officiate at a joint capping of nurses' aid graduates from West Suburban, Swedish Covenant, and Billings Memorial hospitals at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

The ceremony will take place in the auditorium of the Peoples Gas Light and Coke company building. The graduates, all of whom are employed women, will be prepared after this evening to serve wherever the Red Cross needs them. There are 30 in the West Suburban unit, 25 in the Swedish Covenant group, and 17 in the Billings class.

Headquarters of the Red Cross has announced that no new enrollments for night volunteer work of any type will be accepted until February, to permit staff directors to train applicants now in the files.

[This department reports on women's war activities and answers questions regarding such activities.]

Regina Isabella Council Will Give Benefit Party

The annual Christmas benefit of Regina council of the Ladies of Isabella, scheduled this afternoon and night at St. Sylvester's auditorium, Palmer and Richmond streets, will take the form of a penny social. A program of games, refreshments, and gifts has been arranged by Miss Clara Kloss, party chairman, and dinner will be served, beginning at 5:30 p. m. Assisting at the booths will be Mrs. Mathilda Odenbrett, Mrs. Rose Immel, Mrs. Winifred Cullen, Mrs. Margaret Bryers, Mrs. Myrtle Weiss, Mrs. Catherine Peifer, Miss Irene Mulligan, and Mrs. Nora Amore.

White Collar GIRL

BY RUTH MAC KAY.

From Her Window.

From the windows of her office in the Exchange building, you see the cattle buyers and sellers in leather coats with slouch hats and canes or whips; you look down on the pens and the picket fence where the horses stand waiting to take the men around the Union stock yards; you look into the heart of the largest packing center of the world, where animals worth 24 million dollars come to market in an average month.

When you stand at the window you don't think of calling her office a studio, altho Eugenie Glaman is an artist. The remarkable animal painting she does is part and parcel of one of the greatest industries on the face of the globe.

The stock yards, you remember, was opened on Christmas day nearly 78 years ago—an opening date which would seem odd if it were not for the sheep we unalterably link, in our minds, with the first Christmas day. It's a curious coincidence that Eugenie Glaman, whose animal paintings and etchings have made her famous, began her career drawing sheep.

A Childhood on a Ranch.

Many strains flow in her blood—French and Scotch, a mother from Virginia and ancestors on both sides of the Civil war. When she was a child her father bought a sheep ranch in southern Kansas. Her first drawings were made in the margins of his veterinary books. She sketched sheep jumping over fences and then sent her sketches to the county fair. Later, she joined an art class. She was the youngest but the best student and her teacher remarked: "She knows things I can't teach her." Still later, in Texas, she continued to draw and began to teach. It wasn't so many years before she came to the Chicago Art institute to study, and there, as a student, gained permission to sketch at the stock yards. Study in Europe followed. In Paris she worked at the Zoological gardens and in London at the School of Animal Painting.

Art Is a Business.

Two years after her return from Europe her first painting was exhibited at the Art institute. Since then she has exhibited at the Metropolitan museum and recently has been elected to the American Society of Etchers. When she wanted to make her headquarters at the yards, Arthur G. Leonard [whose interest in art is unflagging] was agreeable to the idea. In the Saddle and Sirloin club hangs her painting of Mercer, the grand champion steer [entered by a 4-H club girl] which toured the United States in a trailer and even was hoof printed. Her drawing of an Irish wolfhound adorns the poster of the International Kennel club; her painting of Black Enchanter, her study in oils of the golden bull, her etchings, oils, and water colors of sheep, cows, pigs, dogs, and horses bring beauty to the yards.

She has a white collar girl daughter, now a secretary working for her degree in evening school at Northwestern. "An interesting girl," Mrs. Glaman says of her daughter. Surely an interesting mother who mixes business with paints in the center of an immense industry!

Wise Parents Accept Child's Gentle Nature

BY GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS.

[Copyright: 1943: By News Syndicate Co., Inc.]

A woman on a boat long ago told me all about it herself, about her problem and her disappointment.

"I have a son. Have you seen him? Then you can see that he is not the athletic, hardy, aggressive type, my ideal. I can't really understand him. It makes it hard for him and hard for me."

I had seen the little boy. He was a slim, almost fragile looking, quiet child with large thoughtful eyes, and a fine broad brow. I suppose one would describe his whole expression as spiritual. Nothing could have been much further from his mother's ideal of a son than he, altho everyone else was drawn by the quality of the child.

Many parents have a definite image of what they want their children to be. Then when nature, who goes her own way regardless of human desires, presents them with a child utterly different from their conception, they are disappointed. Sometimes they are not conscious of this disappointment, but it affects their attitude, nevertheless. Their dissatisfaction will show itself, somehow, either in an effort to make the child over to fit their pattern, or in a critical, fault finding attitude.

Try and accept your child as he is. Nature has plans for him. He has his place in the scheme of things. Give him opportunities to be a healthy, happy, well rounded child, but be willing to have him be the kind of child he is. Try to understand him so that he can grow and develop in harmony with his own personality and individuality.

Looking at Hollywood

By Hedda Hopper

Hollywood, Cal., Nov. 22.—Metro's been trying to persuade Capt. Clark Gable to star in "Suzy Q," story of a Flying Fortress. I'd hate to see Metro or any studio exploit Clark's military career by putting it on the screen. Maybe he could do another picture, but to play in reel life what he's actually done would take away some of the glory that he's earned. He's too great a guy for that. What Clark and Jimmy Stewart have done for the whole motion picture industry in this war is of incalculable value to everybody in Hollywood. Let's not dim it.

Still At It.

Wonder why Twentieth changed the name of "The Phantom Filly" to "Home in Indiana." The picture was shot in Ohio, Kentucky, and Hollywood. Henry Hathaway and the company are just back from doing county fairs in three states. Lon McCallister made a great hit with all the horse trainers, and he actually drove a sulky in two important races. He got a draft deferment for this picture, and now has made enough money to buy a Malibu home for his mother and grandmother. First morning they were in their new home, he got up at 5 a. m., built a roaring fire in the living room, then woke them to help celebrate the first home they've ever owned. A view of him will be taken out of the picture, which is in technicolor, and enlarged to hang over that fireplace.

All in Day's Work.

The wife of a naval officer visiting the set of "Greenwich Village" said, "Please, could you tell me what Don Ameche's doing?" There he was, standing by a recording machine, fingering a piano which wasn't there, so that he could play one that was there for the next scene. We're so used to seeing things that look as tho they belonged in a madhouse that we pay no heed. . . . I found Tony De Marco there, done up in a pearl gray tailcoat and trimmings to stand out against a dark background. He and Sally were dancing in "Show Time" last fall in New York when an offer came for one picture. They've been working here eight months. . . . Mrs. Jimmy Starr with a King Tut haircut—mighty unbecoming.

They Told Her.

It wasn't until Ann Sothern met so many soldiers that she was willing to go on with Maisie pictures. The boys all call her Maisie. After all, those pictures put her over. That character caught the public fancy, just as Andy Hardy did. As long as producers can dream a new angle for the same old character, the kids shouldn't object to doing it. . . . C. Aubrey Smith's beautiful whiskers in "Madame Curie" get my nomination for him as the 1943 Santa Claus.

Ann Sothern.

Can't Keep Ham Out.

Billy Wilder got a look at the daily rushes taken in the garage of El Royale apartments for "Double Indemnity." That's where Fred Allen lives, and there he was, getting into a car and making faces at Fred MacMurray. It went unnoticed until they saw it on the screen. . . . Speaking of Allen, if our men overseas have time to relax from chasing the enemy Christmas day, they'll hear the best radio show ever put on a disc. Command Performance has everything, including Bob Hope, Dinah Shore, Ginny Simms, Frances Langford, Skinnay Ennis, Spike Jones, Jimmy Durante, and dozens more—ending up with Jack Benny and Fred Allen singing "People Say We're Not in Love."

On the Aisle

By Claudia Cassidy

Christmas probably will bring Michael Todd's "Star and Garter" to the Studebaker, perhaps with Willie Howard or Jimmy Durante added to replace the luster the show lost when Bobby Clark and Gypsy Rose Lee deserted the cast. Even without them, however, it lasted a year and a half at New York's Music Box, which is more than you can say for the unpredictable Mr. Todd's newer show, "The Naked Genius." You remember he took the latter piece into New York over the loud protests of Miss Lee and co-author George S. Kaufman, and that it retaliated by making money. Now, in the face of prosperity, Mr. Todd hangs up the closing notice, saying: "In show business you can't please every one, but I believe pleasing less than half is not a good percentage. Money I lose by closing the show is not as important as the loss of good will. In this business you're as good as your last show."

Gypsy Rose Lee.

Miss Lee, meanwhile, has discovered a new source of income. Witness her current piece in a decorating magazine about how, with the aid of Vertés, some sawed in two columns, and an ex-Presidential bed, she reclaimed to her own tastes an abode that once belonged to the Vanderbilts. Result: Amusing reading, ornamental apartment.

Lawrence Langner of the Theater Guild Langners was in town yesterday to take a look at "Oklahoma!" on his way to Hollywood, where he will round up some talent and work on the Guild's new plan to film its own plays. He mentioned Eddie Cantor as interested in appearing in "Jacobowsky and the Colonel," and reported to Harry Stockwell, chief cowhand of "Oklahoma!," on the success of his small sons, Dean Dean and Guy Stockwell, who are with Oscar Homolka in "The Innocent Voyage." With Mr. Langner was his well known wife, Armina Marshall, supervisor of Guild costumes, like Mrs. Richard Rodgers, a native of Oklahoma.

"Uncle Harry" winds up its tour in Washington, D. C., and will not come here as scheduled on American Theater society subscription. Joseph Schildkraut and Eve Le Gallienne, its stars, are going into a new version of Chekhov's "The Cherry Orchard," to be staged by Miss Le Gallienne.

Briefly out of the cast of "Kiss and Tell" is Whisky Conley, the Scottie programmed as Marchbanks, hospitalized as the result of a losing encounter with a larger and fiercer dog. His role is being played by a wire haired terrier known as Cyrano de Bergerac.

"The Waltz King" will not tour after Saturday's closing at the Civic Opera house. . . . Efforts to hold "The Corn Is Green" beyond Dec. 4 at the Studebaker fell thru because of the large advance sales in scheduled cities. . . . Warner Brothers is reported to have made an offer of a down payment of $1,000,000 for Moss Hart's "Winged Victory," the air forces show just opened in New York.

Marquette Manor Club.

The Marquette Manor Woman's club will have Mrs. Cora Bonnell and Mrs. Celia Kastelyn, the latter from the treasury department, as speakers this afternoon. A Red Cross skit, "Backing Up John Doe," will be given.

COULDN'T HAVE KILLED ATS GIRL, YANK TESTIFIES

Admits to Drinking Night of Mystery Death.

BY JOSEPH CERUTTI.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Nov. 22.—The contents of the pockets of Sgt. Michael Pihosh of Cleveland, O., were exhibited today to the United States court-martial trying him at West Midlands on a charge of murder in the mysterious death of Louisa Price, 18 years old, a British auxiliary territorial service girl.

Pihosh turned over to Detective Sgt. J. Taylor a wallet containing United States and British currency and a medal and ribbons, but he had no handkerchief. A bloodstained handkerchief bearing the last five numerals of Pihosh's serial number had been found near Miss Price the morning of Sept. 9 when her partly clothed body was discovered in a woods near a dance pavilion at West Midlands.

Denies He Knew Girl.

Without commenting on the exhibit, the court heard from the air force military policeman a denial that he so much as knew the ATS girl, whom he is accused of killing by battering her head with a stone.

Altho admitting his mind was a blank concerning most events of the evening preceding the girl's death, Pihosh asserted "it's impossible for me to believe I could be guilty of anything connected with such an atrocious crime as I have heard described in this courtroom."

In a statement made by Pihosh Oct. 3 and read to the court by his attorney, the young soldier said he had never dated an ATS girl, did not know Miss Price, and did not remember dancing or associating with any girl at the pavilion dance.

In Beach Wagon Upset.

After the beach wagon in which he and another United States soldier were riding on the night of the dance overturned after hitting a bank along the road, Pihosh's next recollection, he said, was of "standing in front of a lieutenant in the orderly room at my station."

"During the entire trial no exhibit or any testimony of any witness has recalled to my mind one single further fact," he insisted.

STATE CALLS ON 25,519 TO PROVE NEED OF PENSION

County branches of the Illinois public aid commission yesterday began mailing questionnaires to 25,519 old age pensioners in seven test areas of the state to determine if they are legal recipients of old age cash grants.

Each pensioner in these test localities will receive a questionnaire, said Raymond M. Hilliard, executive secretary of the commission, asking information about his income and resources, names of his sons and daughters, their occupations and incomes. The sons and daughters will be asked to file similar forms.

Persons with valid pension claims will continue to receive them when they have proved their need. The new plan is to enforce a clause of the pension law which states that sons and daughters who are financially able shall help pay parents' expenses.

Sons and daughters of pensioners who refuse to coöperate will be referred to state's attorneys in their counties, Hilliard said, thru whom they may be cited under the state's pauper law.

The Inquiring Camera Girl

BY FREIDA ZYLSTRA.

[The Tribune will pay $5 for each interesting question submitted by a reader and used by The Tribune. Today's question was submitted by Milt McKand, 5650 Lake Park avenue.]

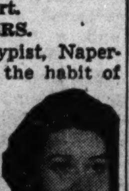
THE QUESTION.

Did you ever get so accustomed to a nuisance you missed it when it was gone?

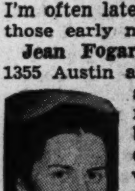
WHERE ASKED.

The Merchandise Mart.

THE ANSWERS.



Elizabeth Drendel, typist, Naperville—My brother had the habit of getting me off to work on time. He'd make the alarm clock ring again if I didn't get up the first time and would hand me my hat and coat long before I was ready. Now that he's in the army I'm often late for work and I miss those early morning sessions.



Jean Fogarty, accounting clerk, 1355 Austin avenue—Every night after school a little neighbor boy stopped by to ring our back door bell to ask if we wanted him to run an errand. We didn't have much for him to do and sometimes it was a nuisance to answer the door, but I missed him after he moved away.

Marjorie Knodel, secretary, 901 Maple avenue, Evanston—There was a stray cat in our neighborhood that would cry on our back porch until we fed him. It was a friendly cat, but some times it would wake us up in the middle of the night. When the cat disappeared I worried much more than I thought I would.

H. B. Sherling, salesman, 1636 Farwell avenue—Whenever our neighbors would take an out of town trip they'd ask us to take care of their plants. At first it seemed like quite a bit of extra work, but it was interesting. When our neighbors returned home our window sills looked so empty we bought more plants of our own.

George Polek, furrier, 1544 Arthur avenue—My old model car was an awful nuisance. I could never depend on it to start when I needed it and after it did start I never knew when it was going to stop. But now I don't have the car any more and I've decided it wasn't bad at all.

Frances Turner, key punch operator, 1611 Wallen avenue—I had lived in Chicago for a long while and thought that all the city noises were a nuisance. At first the noise kept me awake, but when I went back to my small home town it was so quiet it seemed monotonous.

Fatal Cave-in of Factory Floor Blamed on Drilling

Officials of the Container Corporation of America, occupants of a building at 905 North May street, where a workman employed by a wrecking company was killed and another injured a week ago, explained yesterday the mishap was not due to a collapse of the factory floor. The men were engaged in demolishing an obsolete boiler and had partially cut a 10 foot square section of the floor to facilitate the removal of the boiler. They were standing on this piece, it was explained, when it cracked and caved in under pressure from an air drill.

PRICE INCREASE ALLOWED HARD CANDY MAKERS

BY LLOYD NORMAN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—Children were assured Christmas hard candies today by the office of price administration which allowed manufacturers price increases to offset higher production costs. Last year there was little hard candy available during the holiday season.

Turn to Other Types.

Retail price ceilings set by OPA for hard candy made in this country range from 25 cents a pound for bulk sales by stores buying directly from the manufacturer to 35 cents a pound in one pound bags sold by stores supplied by wholesalers. The average increase allowed was about 2 cents a pound above March, 1942, ceilings.

"Hard candy is composed principally of sugar and corn sirup," the OPA said. "Most candy manufacturers stopped making it when sugar rationing cut their supplies 30 per cent."

The OPA explained that altho the sugar allowance to confectioners was increased recently, production costs had increased. Another discouraging factor was the influx of large quantities of imported hard candy retailing for as much as 59 cents a pound. Domestic manufacturers were reluctant to make hard candy which they had to sell at a lower price.

Candy from Cuba.

Most of the imported candy comes from Cuba and Central America, OPA said. Little of this candy came into this country until the sugar shortage became severe early in 1942.

The OPA's action placing equal dollars and cents ceilings on both the domestic and imported candies removes the competitive advantage which the imported candy held. The ceilings sharply reduced imported candy prices.

ESCAPES STATE SCHOOL WHILE ON TRIP TO HOSPITAL

Eugene Board, 17 years old, of Lawndale, Logan county, an inmate of the Illinois State Training School for Boys near St. Charles, escaped yesterday while leaving the Elgin State hospital at Elgin, where he had been taken for an X-ray examination.

Board was sent to the school last March 24 on a charge of stealing corn. His mother, Mrs. Blanche Board, lives in Lawndale. A sister, Alice, lives at 4210 Washington boulevard.

Lloyd Christian, 16, escaped last night by walking out of the dining hall where he had been detailed to work. He formerly lived at 1418 Wilmette avenue, Wilmette, and was committed last Sept. 24 after his arrest on a larceny charge.

Three other inmates who escaped from the school Sunday night, during the presentation of a play, were recaptured yesterday near the school. They are Anthony Finocchio, 16 years old, 1241 South Sawyer avenue; George Wing, 17, of 1939 Erie street, and Richard Milton, 17, sentenced from Chicago but whose home is in Detroit.

2 WEST COAST BOWLERS SEEK ALL-STAR TITLE

Chicago Qualifying Trials Under Way.

BY CHARLES BARTLETT.

Bill Leiser, the astute sports editor of the San Francisco Chronicle and his bowling expert, Leo S. Bunner, yesterday announced that the Pacific coast will have two of the sharpest candidates in the third annual All-Star National individual match game bowling tournament next month in the Auditorium Service Men's center. This No. 1 competition of American bowling will be presented over the 12 alleys, now being enjoyed by uniformed guests of Chicago, from Dec. 4 thru 12.

The San Francisco duo consists of Yeoman 2d Class Dale Ward of the United States Coast Guard, and a gent named Gaetano Kratter, better known in the bay area as Bill. Yeoman Ward is the second service man in the field, the other being Chicago's Pvt. Joe Wilman.

Competed Last Year.

Ward, a native of Newton, Ia., who has been stationed on the Pacific coast for the last 18 months, will be no stranger to the Auditorium drives since last year Dale also won the Chronicle eliminations. The young coast guardsman has yet to hit that 300 figure, his best previous effort being a 290 in Sioux City, Ia., a few years ago, but less than two weeks back, he fired a 289 that indicates he has his bowling sights leveled on the title. To add to this, he has compiled a three game league high of 769, and he has rolled a 790 in match play.

Kratter, a painter and decorator who is a teammate of Ward on the Reliance Trailers, now leading the Bay City Major league in San Francisco, is a newcomer. Bill finished third in last year's San Francisco Chronicle trials. He has been bowling for more than 25 years and has a lifetime average of 192. This first eastward journey will be a happy one for him, since he has a 19 year old son, Ward Kratter, stationed as an air cadet at Carroll college in Waukesha, Wis., and will visit the boy with Mrs. Kratter before coming here.

Eight Newspapers Represented.

Young Ward Kratter was quite a semi-pro baseball player before the war, and not a few of the major league scouts who visited the San Francisco sector eyed him before he went into service. His dad has turned in two 300 games.

Ward, who had to come from fourth place in the final four games of the Chronicle eliminations in order to win, and Kratter will carry the colors of the eighth of those newspapers coöperating with Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc., and the Bowling Proprietors' Association of America in the conduct of this All-Star tournament. The other representatives to date are Bruce Slanker, Oklahoma City Times; Eddie Scott, Kalamazoo Gazette; Earl Riffert, Evansville Courier; Charles Stonebarger, Dayton, O., News; Gene Braun, Valparaiso Vidette-Messenger; Bob Eaves, Nashville Tennessean, and Bud Tierney, Kansas City Star.

Trials at Five Centers.

The Chicago qualifying trials for those men who were unseeded are now being held at five designated centers thruout the city. Four blocks were completed in the round robins over the week-end, with the final three being scheduled for next Saturday afternoon and evening and Sunday afternoon. The five centers, with their addresses and operators are: Bowling Lanes, 5221 Broadway, Ralph Olsen and Jack Samuelson; Cascade, 3825 West Madison street, Lloyd Wevang; Garden Recreation, 4074 Milwaukee avenue, Lyman Bolger and Michael Hechinger; Monte Carlo, 2263 North Lincoln avenue, Al Long, and Rose Bowl, 11517 South Michigan avenue, Paul Young.

Twinkle, Twinkle, Bowling Stars—

And twinkle they will when the third annual National All-Star Bowling tournament for the individual match game championship rolls around. The dates are from Dec. 4 thru Dec. 12 and many stars of the tenpin firmament will compete on the lanes of the Auditorium Service Men's Center during those nine days and nights. Don't miss bowling's No. 1 show!

P. S.—Our boys in the services will receive the FULL benefit of the tournament proceeds. Ticket prices:

How Strange!

Her countenance was comely and her mind
Had an astuteness that but few girls knew,
So that she walked a queen among mankind
And day by day in self-conceit she grew;
And yet she might have been a hottentot,
Bereft of any sweetness or allure,
An eyesore to mankind, a human blot,
Whose ugliness few creatures could endure.

The things she gloried in were gifts of God,
His was the hand that fashioned her sweet face,
It was He that formed her from the clod
And lighted her intelligence with grace;
How strange her egoism should have grown
Until she looked on God's gifts as her own.

ST. GEORGE TO PLAY PHILLIPS IN BOWL GAME

Decide Issue on Flip of Coin.

BY FRANK NORRIS.

(Picture on next page.)

St. George High school of Evanston will meet Phillips High Saturday in the 10th annual Mayor Kelly bowl game in Soldiers' field.

A flip of the coin decided the Catholic league bowl game representative at a meeting in the Atlantic hotel last night after a committee of nine coaches and the president of the league, Father James McDonnell, was stalemated following a number of ballots.

In the afternoon it had been agreed upon by the athletic directors of the schools, Father Fitzgerald of Mount Carmel and Brother Julius of St. George, that if the coaches could not reach a decision, the verdict would rest on the toss of a coin.

The coaches' first ballot resulted in a 7 to 2 decision asking the two athletic directors to determine the champion on a flip of a coin. At this time the directors refused.

Heads Wins for St. George.

When the nine coaches and Father McDonnell failed to reach a decision on the next ballot it was decided by the committee that a toss of the coin would produce the Catholic league entry in the charity game. Heads was for St. George and tails for Mount Carmel. Heads won.

At a meeting in City Corporation Counsel Barnet Hodes' office in the afternoon, Mayor Edward J. Kelly forced the Catholic league officials' hand by declaring the bowl game must be played Saturday as scheduled. Jack Anderson, director of the game, said the advance ticket sale has gone above the 100,000 mark and is expected to earn the Chicago service men centers a net profit of between $125,000 and $130,000.

Coaches Agree on Officials.

Earlier in the day, during a controversy over the officials, Max Burnell, coach of the St. George Dragons, and Lou Tortorelli of Phillips, decided the following men were qualified to officiate in the championship game: Sam Pecoraro [Dallas], referee; Ed Fendt [De Paul], umpire; John Boyle [De Paul], head linesman, and Ike Craig [Illinois Wesleyan], field judge.

Bluejackets Prepare for Notre Dame

Half Backs Steve Juzwik and Ray Jones missed practice yesterday because of injuries as the Great Lakes Bluejackets opened preparations for Saturday's game with undefeated Notre Dame at the Naval Training station.

Jones, understudy for Steve Lach, also injured, was forced out of action on the first play against Marquette Saturday and Juzwik left the field early in the fourth period. Both were expected to be available this week but their absence in early drills complicates Lt. Paul [Tony] Hinkle's preparations.

Hinkle and his scouts outlined Notre Dame's basic formations in the opening drill.

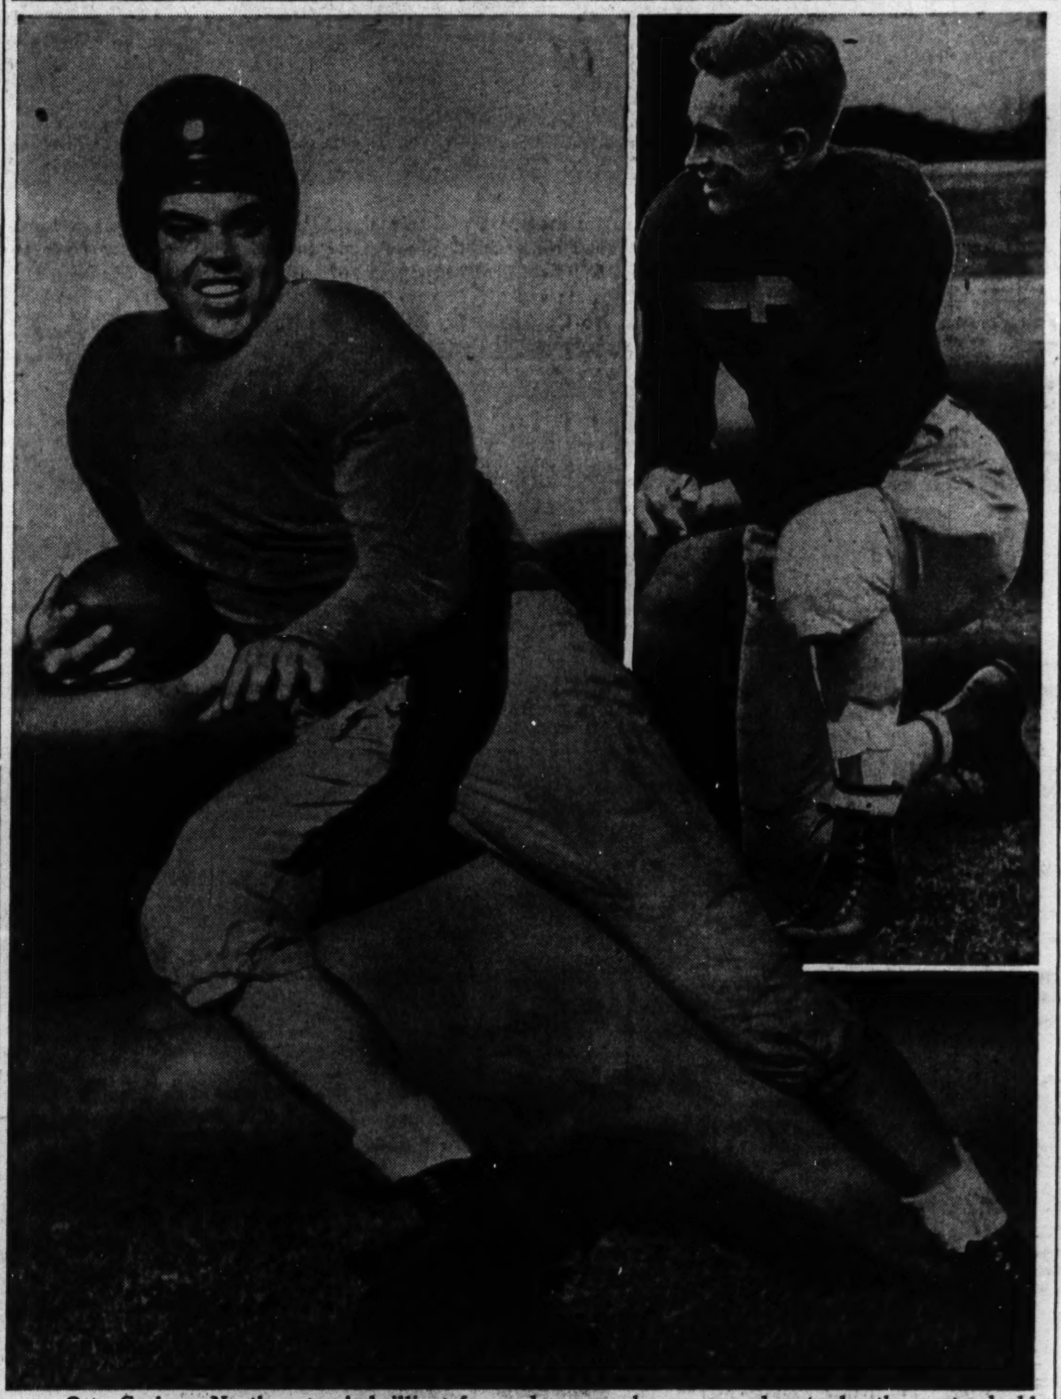
BUTLER DROPS BASKETBALL; HAS NO HOME FLOOR

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 22 (AP).—Butler university, whose basketball teams had played in Madison Square Garden and long had fought on even terms with numerous Big Ten teams and other high ranking quintets, announced tonight it would not have a basketball team this winter.

Warren H. Ison, head of the faculty athletic committee, said a lack of facilities for either practice or home games made the action necessary.

SILVER FOOTBALL CANDIDATES



Otto Graham, Northwestern's brilliant forward passer, who was named yesterday the most valuable player on the Wildcat squad. During his three years of competition he set a new conference record of 157 passes completed out of 321 attempts for a gain of 2,162 yards. Inset: Eddie Bray, who was named Illinois' most valuable. This speedy half back led the Big Nine in ground gaining on running plays.

MAKE PLANS FOR PRO TITLE GAME

Bears Only Team Present at Special Meeting.

Ralph Brizzolara, acting boss of the Chicago Bears, who hope to be hosts to the Washington Redskins in pro football's world series Dec. 19, was the only one of five invited club chieftains to confer with Commissioner Elmer Layden in the National Football league offices, 310 South Michigan avenue, yesterday, but the two managed to thrash out plans for the league's title game.

After a two and one-half hour conference they announced the ticket sale would be $4.40 for box seats and $3.30 for reserved grandstand seats, with 5,000 bleacher tickets at $1.65 to go on sale the day of the contest. The pass list will be suspended. The Bears will begin taking orders for reserved seats today.

Layden said he had contacted the heads of all teams still in the running for the eastern and western titles, but that since the league offices actually are in charge of the championship affair, all matters were able to be worked out despite the absence of other club owners.

Invited but not present were owner George H. Marshall of the Washington Redskins, who have clinched a tie in the eastern division, and representatives of the Phil-Pitt Eagles, New York Giants, and Green Bay Packers.

Army's Doctors Reject Jurges, Giant Shortstop

New York, Nov. 22 (AP).—The New York Giants learned today that Shortstop Bill Jurges, recently given a 1-A classification, has been rejected for military service. Jurges said his rejection was due to an old ankle injury received when he played for the Reading, Pa., International league club in 1929-1930.

Redskins Win Recognition as Really Great Football Team

BY EDWARD PRELL.

Maybe it's time to concede that the Washington Redskins have a great football team. These three items form indisputable evidence:

Redskins, 14; Bears, 6 [1942 title game].

Redskins, 33; Packers, 7 [Oct. 17, 1943].

Redskins, 21; Bears, 7 [Nov. 21, 1943].

This gives the pro champions 68 points in the three games against 20 for the two western giants, a quite convincing margin. And in both games this season the Redskins had a shutout until the fourth period.

The Redskins kicked Green Bay's line around at Milwaukee in the 33 to 7 rout. They did the same Sunday to the Bears' forwards in Washington.

Bergman Plans Course.

It's about time, too, to give some credit to the Redskins' new coach, Dutch Bergman, and his able assistant, big Turk Edwards. The Redskins couldn't do anything right, starting with the College All-Star game and continuing thru a pair of exhibition games with the Packers and Bears in Baltimore. It looked like a sad debut for Bergman when his team was slapped around in those three games.

At San Diego, when the Redskins were preparing for the All-Star game, Bergman insisted that his big job was to lead the Redskins to another National Football league title. Sure, they would try to whip the collegians, but the main goal was the championship. Bergman stayed on this course in those three preseason games, all the while getting his system installed, which called for a balanced line, in contrast to the unbalanced line the team had used in blasting the Bears last December.

Rymkus Is Great Tackle.

The Redskins also picked up some valuable fellows after showing against the All-Stars in Evanston last August. Lou Rymkus was the find of the year, a tackle who has taken the play away from Wee Willie Wilkin, the 270 pound Washington veteran. Alex Piasecky, an end from Duke, and George Cafego, the half back from the Brooklyn Dodgers, have been big helpers for the new coach.

The Bears, for a team which seldom is beaten, proved good losers. They refused to go into a postmortem on "what might have happened," altho' the material was there.

Fact was that the Bears suffered severe shocks the first two times they had the ball. The first was Doug McEnulty's fumble and the Redskins' subsequent touchdown march.

The second one started when Harry Clark was shaken up while lugging back the kickoff. Ray Nolting was substituted and on the first play Sid Luckman passed to Nolting, who ran to Washington's 35. The play was called back and a 5 yard penalty assessed because Nolting had failed to report!

Vacation for Bears.

Instead of harping on these details the Bears admit they took a beating—and just wait until they get the Redskins on Wrigley field Dec. 19!

After Sunday's game with the Cards in Comiskey park, the Bears will take at least a week off.

MARCH FIELD'S FLYERS TO PLAY STAGG'S ELEVEN

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 22 (AP).—Two of the strongest football teams on the Pacific coast—the College of the Pacific, coached by Amos Alonzo Stagg, and the March Field Fourth Air Force Flyers—will meet in a game here Dec. 11. Bill Schroeder, a director of the All-Pacific Recreation fund, sponsor of the game, said that proceeds will be used to buy recreational equipment for men at overseas Pacific bases.

GRAHAM, BRAY WIN POLLS OF TEAM MEMBERS

Join Contest for Tribune Award.

Honor Roll

THREE Western conference football squads now have chosen their most valuable players. When the other six schools have announced their selections a jury of athletic officials will vote on these nominees to determine the most valuable player in the Big Nine. The three already chosen are:

Joe Keenan, Wisconsin.
Otto Graham, Northwestern.
Eddie Bray, Illinois.

Otto Graham of Northwestern and Eddie Bray of Illinois yesterday were chosen the most valuable members of their respective football squads. These two half backs, the former an outstanding passer and the latter a particularly elusive runner, now become candidates for the silver football which is presented annually by THE TRIBUNE to the Western conference player most valuable to his team.

This is the 20th season in which this prize has been offered. When all nine squads have made their selections, the most valuable player in the Big Nine will be chosen by a jury consisting of nine conference coaches, nine conference officials, Maj. John L. Griffith, Arch Ward, sports editor of THE TRIBUNE, and Wilfrid Smith, Tribune football writer.

N. U. PICKS GRAHAM

Otto Graham, who set an all-time Western conference forward passing record during three years of play at Northwestern university, was selected by his teammates yesterday as the most valuable player on the 1943 Wildcat eleven.

Coach Lynn Waldorf yesterday acclaimed Graham as one of the best forward passers he had ever seen in college football.

"Otto has been our stand-by for three years," Waldorf said. "In addition to his skill as a passer he is a fine runner, a good kicker, and a strong defensive player, especially on pass defense."

Sets Passing Mark.

When Graham completed collegiate competition against Illinois last Saturday he had written into the record books a new conference passing mark excelling all previous performances. In 25 games over the last three years Otto completed 157 passes in 321 attempts for 2,162 yards. His three year record follows:

Yr.	Games.	Passes.	Completed.	Yds.
1941	8	75	36	579
1942	9	182	89	1,092
1943	8	64	32	491

In 1943 Graham proved that his ability isn't limited to passing. Playing on a team in which the forward pass was used more as a threat than a major weapon, Graham blossomed out as a ball carrier as he rolled up 355 yards in 87 trips for a 4 yard average per try.

Just to prove that he is everything a triple-threat player should be, he took over the kicking chores following the departure of Herman Frickey and Don Buffmire in mid-season and averaged 38 yards per boot. He also was handy as a point kicker after touchdown, scoring on seven out of nine attempts.

A glance at Northwestern's scoring column provides further testimony to Graham's value to the Wildcat cause. He scored 61 points on nine touchdowns and seven points after touchdown to place second in conference scoring. He threw four touchdown passes.

Graham hit his scoring peak in the Wisconsin game when in 24 minutes he equaled the conference scoring record of four touchdowns in one game. He also kicked three points after touchdown and passed for still another touchdown.

ILLINI CHOOSE BRAY

Champaign, Ill., Nov. 22 [Special].—Seventeen year old Eddie Bray of Utica, Ill., tonight became the first freshman ever to be presented as a candidate for the annual Chicago Tribune award to the Western conference player most valuable to his team when he was nominated for this distinction by a vote of his University of Illinois mates.

A product of La Salle-Peru township [Ill.] High school, where he was coached by the former Illini captain, A. J. [Butch] Nowack, Bray was an all-state prep back last season.

Record Is Impressive.

He ran with brilliant speed and had an additional trick of turning on an explosive spurt of extra pace if tacklers approached. Most of his long runs thru the secondary were made on his own, after he had been given a safe opening thru the line of scrimmage.

Bray followed an opening burst against the Iowa Seahawks with a

SCHEDULES GIVE BIG TEN BASKET COACHES GRIEF

Special Meeting Planned in Chicago.

BY WILFRID SMITH.

The basketball coaches of the Western conference have been asked by the athletic directors to meet in Chicago week after next to discuss the schedule for Big Ten competition. Altho Maj. John L. Griffith, commissioner of athletics for the conference, already has prepared three schedules, there are so many complications that the coaches probably will be required to adjust the conflicts in dates.

The annual winter meeting of the conference directors and faculty committee customarily is held on the Friday and Saturday of the first week in December. It is likely, however, the meeting of the conference basketball coaches will begin on Thursday, Dec. 2, since several university teams have games on the following Saturday. The meeting of the coaches and the directors will be held in the Sherman hotel.

Navy Offers Problem.

The Western conference adopted a schedule last year which provided for two game trips generally played on Saturday and Monday. The normal number of conference games was set at 12 for each university with the exception of Chicago, which played one game with each of the other nine teams. This two game trip system can not be used this winter by teams depending on naval trainees. These men may not be absent longer than 48 hours from their base by navy order.

University examination dates and examinations for navy trainees further complicate the basketball schedule since there is no uniformity as to time.

May Divide Conference.

The conference last year cut transportation by eliminating such long distance rivalries as Ohio State and Minnesota, for example, and undoubtedly this will be done again this year. But under the 48 hour navy rule, Michigan, for instance, may be unable to play Illinois, a series now on the 1944 schedule. The number of games for each basketball team probably will be determined at the coaches' meeting.

Special Army Test Today for Vander Meer

Midland Park, N. J., Nov. 22 (AP).—Johnny Vander Meer, star pitcher for the Cincinnati Reds, will undergo a special selective service physical examination tomorrow.

Classified as 4-F in August, Vander Meer said tonight he would report tomorrow at Rutherford, N. J., for the special examination to determine the seriousness of his colitis condition.

"If physically fit," said the pitcher who chalked up two conseucutive no-hit, no-run games, "I'm ready."

Last season Vander Meer won 15 games and lost 16 for the Reds. He is now employed as an investigator for the Curtiss Wright Aeronautical corporation in Clifton, N. J.

He is married and the father of a daughter born last December.

brilliant running career which led him to the best rushing average in the Big Nine. He carried the ball 80 times and gained 576 yards for an average of 7.2. This outranked Michigan's Bill Daley [7.1] and Purdue's Tony Butkovich [6.5].

He ran a kickoff 90 yards for a touchdown against Northwestern, sprinted 70 yards against Purdue, had runs of 53, 30, and 29 against Ohio State, and 39 and 25 against Pittsburgh.

Bray is the youngest back to lead the Big Nine in rushing since unofficial statistics have been kept in the conference office.

No Captain Chosen.

A remarkable tribute to the trim, 5 foot 10 inch sprinter was that he went thru the season without a serious injury. The Illini did not elect a 1944 captain today, because of the uncertainty of returning players.

Twenty-eight players including 16 freshmen, were approved for football letters by the Illinois athletic council.

Larry Forst, former Chicago Leo High school tackle, led the Illini in minutes played with 383⅓ of a possible 480. Following are the letter winners:

Three newly crowned Catholic Youth organization champions and a C. Y. O. finalist will head the 10th annual amateur boxing show sponsored by the Duncan Y. M. C. A. in the Duncan gymnasium, 1515 West Monroe street, tonight.

The title holders are Tim Dalton, open lightweight; Charley Kucharz, open light heavyweight, and Ray Lonergan, novice bantamweight, and Jackie Boyd, flyweight runner-up. Dalton is paired with Wendell White, Kucharz with James Jackson, Lonergan with Jimmy Freeman, and Boyd with Charles Wimberly.

The card, which is being offered under the direction of Dr. Harry O. Wernicke, will be refereed by Phil Collins and Joey White, members of the Golden Gloves and C. Y. O. refereeing staffs.

Blackhawks Drill for Duel with Detroit

Detroit's Red Wings will be in Chicago Thursday to battle the Blackhawks' squad in the latter's rink.

The Hawks have not been able to conquer the Wings in Detroit in the last 17 games. Last season the teams played five games at the Chicago Stadium. Two games went to the Hawks, Detroit took one, and two ended in ties.

In preparation for the game Manager Thompson will have the Hawks drill today and tomorrow at the Chicago arena.

Saturday and Sunday victories for the high flying Canadiens netted the Montreal team 20 goals, which makes them the high scoring team of the league. Prior to their week-end victories the Hawks were leading the pack.

The scoring jamboree last week of the unbeaten Canadiens sent Buddy O'Connor up 10 points in the scoring list and the flashy Montreal center is now only one point behind the Blackhawks' Bill Mosienko, who is leading the league with 17 points made up of 7 goals and 10 assists. Statistics to date:

RACING BOARD DEFERS ACTION ON 1944 DATES

The Illinois Racing board met yesterday for a hearing on the applications for 1944 racing dates but deferred the matter until Friday due to the inability of several of the track executives to attend.

The board took action on applications for reinstatement by two jockeys and a trainer. The applications of Herbert Bagur, a jockey, and J. D. Larkin, a trainer were denied. The case of Cecil Lamb, another jockey, was taken under advisement.

Bagur was suspended in 1935 on charges of possession of a battery and Larkin has been off since 1939 on charges of possessing drugs. Lamb was suspended in 1938 after being charged with an attempt at bribery.

The board granted C. E. Simmons permission to sell his horses. He was ruled off on doping charges at Fairmount this season.

MUZZLE LOADER PUTS KICK IN PHEASANT HUNT

BY BOB BECKER.

The Illinois pheasant season has closed but the noise of our old muzzle loader which we unlimbered against the ringnecks still is in our ears. Using this outmoded type of firearm was an amusing experiment for us. We found it 100 per cent on pheasants, especially when you do your hunting behind a pointing dog, because then you have time to cock the gun and get ready for a shot.

We used the muzzle loader near Lake Villa. Huntstone Felicia, the English setter we own jointly with Lt. William Haerther, U. S. N. R., was the dog that found the birds. Our Labrador, Dawn of Kezar, walked at heel to do the retrieving when necessary. Lyman Barr, our hunting partner, kept close to us when we wheeled the muzzle loader into action so he could, as he said, hand us the liniment for our jaw when and if needed.

20 Gauge Fails.

The most satisfactory performance by the black powder weapon, recently dubbed the Rainmaker, occurred on our third shot. We had killed one smart old ringneck at the edge of a lake. Then we laid aside the musket to use our 20 gauge on the next point. After missing an easy shot we immediately went back to the muzzle loader. The setter pointed in a slough where the grass was rather short. We cocked the hammers on both barrels and moved up behind the dog.

The bird flushed at a nice range. We pulled the trigger of the right barrel and the gun went hr-u-ump-boom. Our hunting partner says the blow by blow action from then on went like this: The smoke cloud against the trees was dense and beautiful. In the smoke could be seen burning wads and feathers. Then we looked under the smoke, and seeing no bird in the air, we knew it had been downed. By this time we noticed the shooter was tottering and a bit wobbly on his feet as if he had been hit on the jaw, which he was holding with his right hand.

No Advice Wanted.

Since making that shot on pheasants and getting our bird, plus a dirty wallop from the black powder, we are not listening to advice from our readers on how to load the muzzle loader. In fact, we think we've been framed. They've been telling us to step up the charge of powder. We did on this pheasant hunt and now we are going right back to our original and lighter load which feels a lot better to our shoulder and right jaw.

Now that we have killed ducks and pheasants with this gun our next experiment will be on rabbits. If we don't hit 'em, the noise of the gun certainly will make 'em run faster than they ever did before and give 'em a lot of swell exercise.

JIMMY GRANT IS REJECTED FOR ARMY SERVICE

Racine, Wis., Nov. 22 [Special].—Jimmy Grant, former Chicago White Sox third baseman who was sold to the Cleveland Indians last August, has been rejected by the Milwaukee induction center. The cause for his rejection was the weakened condition of an injured knee.

Thus Grant will be able to join the Cleveland Indians at their spring training camp at Lafayette, Ind., in the spring.

Ross and Zale Meet Again at Luncheon

Sgt. Barney Ross of the marines and Chief Petty Officer Tony Zale of the navy, former stablemates and ex-Golden Gloves winners, met for the first time since they entered the service more than a year ago when they got together at an informal luncheon in John McGarry's restaurant on the west side yesterday.

Ross, 1929 Chicago Golden Gloves featherweight champion, who went on to capture the world lightweight, junior welterweight, and welterweight championships, left shortly after the luncheon for New York to undergo an operation on his left arm for removal of chipped bones.

Barney Ross.

Tony Zale.

Ross carried a silver star decoration in his pocket. He expects to receive soon the Purple Heart for being wounded in action on Guadalcanal. Zale, who wore a ribbon for service in the Caribbean area, was accompanied to the luncheon by his wife, the former Adeline Richwalski of East Chicago. Tony will return to his station as athletic director at the naval base at San Juan late this week.

CITED BY PRESIDENT.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22 (AP).—Barney Ross was honored today with a Presidential citation. Sgt. Ross was acclaimed a year ago when he protected three wounded comrades until rescue patrols arrived. This "great personal courage and sincere devotion to his comrades were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval service," today's citation said.

COACHES EXPECT MORE FOOTBALL IN 1944 SEASON

The year 1944 will find intercollegiate football on a more even basis and will see the majority of the colleges and universities which abandoned the sport in 1943 returning to action, in the opinion of Harry Stuhldreher, director of athletics at the University of Wisconsin, and Alvin [Bo] McMillin, head football coach at Indian university.

Stuhldreher and McMillin shared the speaking program with Jimmy Conzelman, publicity director of the St. Louis Browns, at the final session of the Quarter Backs' club in the Terrace room of the Morrison hotel yesterday.

FIRE DESTROYS GOLF CLUBHOUSE AT ST. CHARLES

The two story stone and frame clubhouse of the St. Charles Country club near the St. Charles city limits on route 25 was destroyed by fire last night that started when sparks ignited the roof. The loss was estimated at about $175,000, fully insured.

Firemen from St. Charles answered the alarm but were unable to bring the flames under control. The clubhouse and the 18 hole course, one of the sportiest in the state, was built about 15 years ago by Lester J. Morris.

FITZJAMES AND WOODS WIN ON MARIGOLD CARD

Sgt. Lou Woods, welterweight, formerly of Detroit but now stationed at Camp Grant, and James Fitzjames of Canton, O., won the twin eight round feature bouts in Marigold Gardens last night before a crowd of 1,234 which paid $2,117 to see the boxing show.

Referee Tommy Gilmore awarded the decision to Woods over Charley Wells of Gary on a technical knockout after 1 minute 28 seconds in the last round. A series of blows cut Charley's lip in the fifth and Woods repeatedly scored with left jabs during the rest of the bitter fight which aggravated the injury.

Elliott Loses Decision.

Altho outweighed by 29½ pounds, the 177½ pound Fitzjames scored consistently with a body attack to pound out a decision over Lindy Elliott of Chicago. The 207 pound Chicago boy was on the canvas for a four count in the first round when Fitzjames connected with a right to the chin.

In a six round supporting match, Don Callahan of St. Paul, decisioned Jessie Jackson of Chicago in a slugfest.

Corp. Adams Wins.

Corp. Georgie Adams of Chicago, stationed at Camp Claybourne, La., was awarded a technical knockout over Ace Coleman of Chicago when the latter failed to answer the bell for the last round. Coleman was in distress in the third round when Adams landed repeated rights to the head and body.

Vic Soyko, West Allis, Wis., lightweight, gained a knockout in the fourth and final round over Berlin Hadnot of Chicago in the opening bout on the card.

RELEASE STEEL NOW FOR DIES, HURLEY URGES

Would Avert Peace Lay-offs, He Says.

BY CHARLES GOTTHART.

E. N. Hurley Jr.

Comparatively small tonnages of tool steel, if made available to industry now, would facilitate the swing from war to peace production and minimize the economic upsets the nation will face at the moment of victory, in the opinion of Chicago manufacturers.

In many instances, an "insignificant" amount of the right kind of steel put to work at this time would prevent months of delay later and allow plants to reconvert without the necessity of laying off workers, said Edward N. Hurley Jr., chairman of the Electric Household Utilities corporation.

"We could do wonders with 15 tons of tool steel," he said. "We could put tool makers to work preparing the tools, dies, jigs, and fixtures that will be needed when we return to the manufacture of washing machines and other equipment for civilian use.

Urges Foresight.

"If these comparatively small amounts of steel and other raw materials are not available now, they should be released by the war production board as soon as the progress of war permits. A little foresight in this direction now, with war production running in high gear, will be of great economic advantage to the country later."

Hurley said that industry should be enabled to do preparatory work of this kind now to avoid the delay of four to six months that would result if the manufacture of tools and dies were postponed until the war's end.

"We're working at top speed on war orders, of course, but we must be prepared for peace," he said. "We want to keep all of our employes, and hire additional ones in an expanded program of civilian production. Many other industries have similar plans.

Would Avert Lay-offs.

"Meeting these goals will be delayed if the retooling of plants is not permitted to start until the last shot of the war is fired. Industry should be put into position to absorb the workers laid off with the cancelation of additional munitions orders, and these layoffs can be expected to gain momentum as victory approaches. But plants cannot put the men to work until the machines of production are built."

Hurley said that man power is available for the manufacture of tools and fixtures, since the expert tool makers already have passed the peak of their war job.

"In the automobile industry, literally hundreds of tools, dies, and fixtures are necessary for stamping and otherwise forming parts," Hurley continued. "Each die can be used in the forming of thousands or even millions of parts, but this operation cannot begin until the die is made. The desirability of an early start is apparent, since an expert may require as long as six months to carve a die out of a chunk of steel.

Post-War Plans Ready.

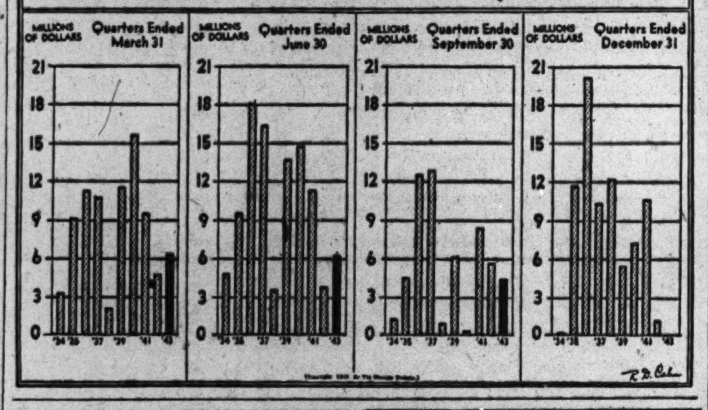
"If the manufacturer has only his pre-war tools, he is at an obvious disadvantage, because nobody knows whether pre-war products will sell readily to consumers who are aware of the great strides during war time in manufacturing technique, the use of plastics, and other developments.

"At this plant we have our post-war plans worked out on paper, but need the steel and the 'go' signal from Washington to put them into effect. Multiply our experience by the thousands of other plants thruout the country and the economic gains from an early start are apparent."

Larger Coal Supplies to Boost Steel Output

New York, Nov. 22 (AP).—Steel operations will rebound to 99.1 per cent of capacity this week, reflecting further improvement in coal supplies as well as ending of several minor labor interruptions a week earlier. The American Iron & Steel Institute estimated output this week would reach 1,727,300 tons. A week earlier production was at the rate of 97.8 per cent with output at 1,704,600 tons.

CHRYSLER PROFITS BY QUARTERS



Industry Holds Reconversion Is Under Way

Reconversion of American industry to a peace time basis already is under way, Russell G. Creviston, manager of trade relations of Crane company, declared yesterday at the organization meeting in the Palmer House of the Committee on Industrial Plant and Opportunities.

Creviston urged the earliest possible completion of post-war plans. He estimated the nation's industrial plant had sustained a loss of 5 to 7 billion dollars in deterioration during the war and said "this repair work must be the first post-war job."

Pace Named Chairman.

Anderson Pace, general industrial agent of the Illinois Central railroad, is chairman of the committee which will work with the Illinois post-war planning commission in returning Illinois industry from war to peace production.

Gov. Dwight H. Green told the committee that government must coöperate and be helpful, but "private industry must carry the big share of the load." He said returning soldiers would want jobs more than anything else and "private enterprise is their best hope."

C. S. Davis, president of Borg-Warner, Inc., warned that conversion of industry would be gradual, but that the change would come to some industries quicker than to others and that the most difficult problem of the post-war period would be in "timing" general production to avoid serious dislocations in the national industrial structure.

Expect Steel, Aluminum.

Wilfred Sykes, president of Inland Steel company, said signs were appearing already of a drop in war demand for steel, with the probability that more would be available for general consumer needs in the near future. He said post-war plans could not be completed too soon.

C. B. Fox, president of the Aluminum Ore company, East St. Louis, Ill., said a number of aluminum plants that had been built for war purposes were being closed and that aluminum, no longer a critical material, should be available for consumer needs before long.

Sidney Nirdlinger, president of the First National Bank of Galesburg, Ill., said small business "has done far more post-war planning than most people realize" and expected the shift of population to war centers to be one of the big reconversion problems.

People and Events

Appointment of Hubert Erdmann as acting market administrator of the federal order regulating milk marketing in the Chicago area was announced yesterday by the war food administration. Erdmann succeeds A. W. Colebank.

Sen. Albert B. Chandler [D., Ky.], recently returned from a 42,000 mile world tour of battle fronts, will address a dinner tonight of the Illinois Road Builders' association in the Palmer House. At the afternoon session of the convention C. M. Hathaway, construction engineer of the Illinois division of highways, will discuss highway maintenance and construction.

J. R. Kimberly was elected executive vice president of International Cellucotton Products company at a meeting of directors yesterday. R. B. Cassingham was named vice president and general manager and F. G. Mangin was chosen a director to fill a vacancy.

J. B. Cary, president and general manager of the Niagara Sprayer and Chemical company, Middleport, N. Y., has been elected to the board of directors of the Food Machinery corporation.

WAGE EARNERS' LIVING COSTS IN SEPTEMBER STEADY IN CHICAGO

The cost of living for wage earners and lower salaried clerical workers was unchanged in Chicago during September, compared with the preceding month, a survey by the National Industrial Conference board disclosed yesterday. Slight increases were shown for most other industrial cities in the Chicago area. Fifty-four of the 70 cities surveyed had increases; costs were lower in 12 and unchanged in 4.

The largest increase, 1.8 per cent, was in Bridgeport, Conn., Oakland, Cal., and San Francisco. The largest decrease, 0.5 per cent, was in New Orleans, Atlanta, Ga., and Anderson, Ind. For the nation the cost of living rose 0.6 per cent during the month. Compared with a year earlier, the national cost of living increased 3.9 per cent.

Increases were shown by Green Bay, Wis., 0.9 per cent; Milwaukee, 0.6 per cent; Indianapolis, 0.4 per cent; Evansville, Ind., 0.3 per cent; Wausau, Wis., 0.2 per cent; Joliet, 0.1 per cent, and Rockford, 0.1 per cent.

WPB MAY ACT ON SLOWDOWN IN SHIP PLATES

Cleveland, O., Nov. 22 (AP).—The WPB "is deeply concerned with a serious lag in production of steel plates produced by the Cleveland plants of the Republic Steel corporation and will take such action as the situation warrants," John C. Virden, regional WPB chairman, said today.

Virden's assertion came after Republic declared a slowdown at its continuous strip mill—converted to production of ship plate for the duration—had cost 30,000 tons since Oct. 10.

William F. Donovan, district director of the CIO United Steelworkers union, said the main cause of the difficulty was appointment as supervisors of "people who don't know anything about the job." Republic said, "Experts in their field were hired."

STOCKS OF TWO ROADS VOIDED FOR INCOME TAX

Common and preferred stocks of the Chicago and North Western and the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul, and Pacific railroads have been declared worthless as of 1940 for income tax purposes. The ruling, made by the local internal revenue bureau office, was approved by the commissioner of internal revenue at Washington, D. C. The reorganization plans for the two railroads, given final court approval this year, were originally proposed in 1940. The plans made no provision for participation by the old stockholders in the reorganized companies.

Holders of North Western or Milwaukee railroad stocks are entitled to claim a refund on their 1940 income taxes because of the loss incurred on the stocks.

Curtis Lighting Awarded Maritime 'M' Banner

Curtis Lighting, Inc., yesterday became the fourth Chicagoland plant to receive the United States maritime commission award of merit. Thomas M. Woodward, maritime commissioner, Washington, D. C., presented the "M" banner at ceremonies held in the plant.

Stocks Coast Generally on Profit Taking

New York, Nov. 22 (AP).—Stocks gave ground moderately in today's market altho isolated strong spots persisted. At the close, declines of fractions to a point outnumbered gains.

The tendency to cash some profits on last week's rally was attributed mainly to the desire of most customers to keep a clean slate pending the imminent Roosevelt-Churchill-Stalin conference. The belief was apparently that results of the meeting might shorten the war appreciably and necessitate further adjustments.

A few rails responded to reports of large scale debt retirement. The recently buoyant liquors ran out of steam, altho most managed to keep a trifle ahead. Coppers and mail orders steadied, but aircrafts were soft, as were the recently strong utility preferreds.

ADAMS OIL DROPS 30.

Prices were irregularly higher yesterday on the Chicago Stock exchange on turnover of 25,000 shares. Adams Oil and Gas, selling ex dividend $31.50, was the volume leader with 1,850 shares, closing at 10, compared with Saturday's close of 40. It was announced last week that the Adams company, whose assets are mainly in the form of oil property royalties, would be completely liquidated within a year. The first cash payment was set for today.

BOND RANGE NARROW.

New York, Nov. 22 (AP).—Most sections of today's bond market were uneven, with changes small except for a few individual situations. Trading was light and sales aggregated $6,710,200, compared with $9,976,500 Friday. Some of the best gains were scored by low to medium priced rails.

CIO MAGNESIUM MINERS DECLARE INTENT TO STRIKE

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22 (AP).—The CIO Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers, local 629, at the Basic Magnesium plant, Las Vegas, Nev., filed a 30 day strike notice with the government today, contending the management refuses to bargain altho the union won a representation election.

The company has labor agreements with AFL unions which the CIO contends are illegal. The national labor relations board refused to handle the CIO's complaint on grounds that a rider in its appropriation act forbids it to spend money on such a complaint where the contract has been in existence three months or more. The war labor board has declined to take an action which another agency has been forbidden to take.

Leather Strike Continues.

Peabody, Mass., Nov. 22 (AP).—While police of three cities stood guard and small picket lines moved slowly outside affected leather plants, a strike of approximately 2,500 workers in the Peabody-Salem district entered its third week today with no immediate prospect of settlement in evidence. Only 12 of the 34 factories in the district were open.

PAUL INDICATES SPARING USE OF PENALTY TAXES

Adequate Post-War Cushion Favored.

Randolph Paul.

Penalties provided in the tax laws to prevent "excess" accumulation of profits by corporations which otherwise could distribute more in dividends should not be imposed in cases where the retained earnings provided necessary post-war reserves, Randolph E. Paul, treasury department general counsel, said yesterday.

Addressing a luncheon of the Chicago Association of Commerce and the National Tax association in the Palmer House, Paul cautioned that many industries have no need for large post-war reserves.

"I can't say that there will be no cases in which penalty section 102 will not be applied," he said. "But in general there should be a generous attitude toward accumulation of profits."

Urges Tax Simplification.

Paul discussed proposals for tax law simplification, which he said should "commence at the return level," and made another plug for the treasury program for 10½ billions in new taxes which congress has shelved.

Among simplification measures he suggested on individual taxes were elimination of the victory tax and earned income credit, both of which already have been approved by the house. He also would consolidate normal tax and surtax, extend use of the short form of return [1040-A] now limited to tax payers with gross income not in excess of $3,000, eliminate March 15 returns for persons entirely in the first surtax bracket, and levy graduated withholding taxes to cover the full liability of tax payers.

Condemns Duplications.

Discussing corporation levies, Paul condemned the capital stock and declared value excess profits taxes as "nothing more than unreasonable duplication," by which small corporations are relatively harder hit than are larger corporations. He said those taxes fall on corporations operating at a deficit.

Recent announcements of whisky sales or dividends to stockholders prompted Paul to assert that individual recipients would pay income taxes on the basis of the market value of products distributed by corporations, even tho the corporations saved taxes and put values on a cost basis only about half the ceiling prices.

Simeon E. Leland, professor, of government finance at the University of Chicago and chairman of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago, said "Too much money is being borrowed. The tax program to date has been too weak for the economic welfare of the country. The war savings bonds have drained off too little current income.'

Advocates Compulsory Saving.

He advocated some form of compulsory saving, and said the nation eventually would recognize the propriety and wisdom of direct borrowing by the treasury from the federal reserve system.

Gov. Green told a banquet meeting that "the task of solving the reëmployment enigma is to be our major post-war problem."

"Let us bluntly admit that the illusory attraction of totalitarian governments is that they provide jobs for their people," he said, "but let us remember that they have found it necessary to regiment and stultify their people, to make inroads on their standards of living, to abrogate their civil liberties, to destroy their incentives and imagination, and to silence political opposition."

NASH AND LAKEY FOUNDRY GIVEN DPC PLANT JOBS

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22 (AP).—The Defense Plant corporation announced a $830,000 contract today with Nash-Kelvinator corporation, Detroit, to provide additional facilities at plants in Wayne and Kent counties, Michigan.

The DPC also announced a $350,000 contract with Lakey Foundry and Machine company, Muskegon, Mich., to provide plant facilities in Muskegon county.

American Air, T. W. A. Report Volume Gains, but Profits Dip

Altho sharp increases in traffic and revenue of two major air lines, American Airlines and Transcontinental and Western Air, were revealed in interim reports issued yesterday, net income of both companies declined in the nine months ended Sept. 30 from that of the corresponding period a year earlier.

American Airlines had net earnings of $2,046,897, equal to $3.28 a common share, against $2,407,479, or $3.91 a share. Provision for federal income and excess profits taxes, less a post-war refund credit of $485,000, was $5,210,000, compared with $1,847,100 a year ago, when no provision was made for excess profits taxes.

Passenger Revenue Gains.

Passenger revenue rose 10.7 per cent to $17,807,710 in the period, mail revenue was up 45.3 per cent, and express revenue increased 76 per cent above a year ago. Revenue passenger miles flown aggregated 327,309,307, against 309,745,343, and mail pounds flown amounted to 11,621,025,676, compared with 6,175,258,313. Air express flown totaled 7,212,695,308 pound miles, against 4,103,610,999.

Transcontinental and Western Air had profit of $1,288,935, equal to $1.34 a common share, compared with $1,338,817, or $1.41 a share. Jack Frye, president, said operating expenses increased 21 per cent to $11,117,524, and operating revenues set an all time peak for any nine months period of $14,101,684, or an increase of 22 per cent. Passenger revenue increased 21 per cent, express revenue 47 per cent, and mail revenue 16 per cent, he said.

Frye said T. W. A. began service into Washington, D. C., Phoenix, Ariz., and San Francisco, Cal., in the third quarter on schedules authorized by the civil aeronautics board. He also said the company began operation of all cargo schedules to handle increased mail and express business in October.

OPA TO LET LOWER PRICE GARMENT SHOPS SELL COSTLIER LINES

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22 (AP).—The office of price administration announced today plans to modify a "highest price line limitation" which it said has left low price stores without adequate supplies of other garments for women, girls, and children.

An amendment of the limitation order to be issued Thursday will permit these stores to sell a slightly higher priced line of such garments.

The action is necessary, OPA explained, because of a shift of production from lower priced garments to merchandise costing a little more. As a result, dealers have been unable to obtain these items for sale at levels specified in the limitation order.

MILITARY NEEDS TO LIFT RAYON OUTPUT TO PEAK

New York, Nov. 22 (AP).—William C. Appleton, president of the American Viscose corporation, predicted today rayon production in 1943 would reach a new peak at 658 million pounds. This total would compare with 633 million pounds in 1942 and 573 million in 1941.

The stepup will result chiefly from the request of the government for extrastrength rayon yarns for us in military equipment, including tires, self-sealing gasoline tanks, and parachutes, Appleton said.

COURTS DENIED POWER IN RAIL UNION DISPUTES

Mediation Board's Authority Upheld.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22 (AP).—The Supreme court ruled today that under federal law the settlement of jurisdictional disputes between railroad unions is up to the national railway mediation board or the unions themselves, not the courts.

In three cases involving the issue, the court declared in opinions by Justice William O. Douglas that congress had provided specifically for judicial review in certain types of railroad disputes, but had not given the solution of jurisdictional controversies to the courts.

Votes Are 7 to 2 and 4 to 3.

The vote was seven to two in two cases, with Justices, Owen J. Roberts and Stanley F. Reed dissenting, and four to three in the third case, with Justices Reed, Roberts, and Robert H. Jackson dissenting and Justices Hugo L. Black and Wiley Rutledge not participating.

"The conclusion is irresistible that congress carved out of the field of conciliation, mediation, and arbitration only the select list of problems which it was ready to place in the adjudicatory channel," the court said. "All else it left to those voluntary processes whose use congress had long encouraged. The concept of mediation is the antithesis of justiciability."

Provides Two Types of Review.

The court held that congress had provided for court reviews [1] in cases involving interpretation or application of a grievance concerning pay rates, rules, and working conditions and [2] in instances where an award of an arbitration board or the board's proceedings do not conform to the railway labor act.

"When congress provided for judicial review of two types of orders or awards and in the same act omitted any provision as respects a third type, it drew a plain line of distinction," the opinion said. "And the inference is strong from the

SELLING FAILS TO HALT RISE IN PRICES OF GRAIN

Wheat Advances for 7th Straight Day.

Grain markets advanced yesterday on the Chicago Board of Trade, wheat making its seventh successive rise. All deliveries of wheat and rye reached new seasonal highs with December wheat selling at $1.63¼ per bushel, a new peak since 1925, and 5¼ cents above the low of last week.

Heavy buying attributed to distillers, especially in December wheat, more than offset profit taking sales. Closing trades were ½ to ¾ cent higher. Rye led the price advance and gained 1⅝ to 2 cents. Interest was believed induced by the fact that it is the only grain selling at a substantial discount under parity. Oats finished ⅛ to ¾ cent higher and barley gained ¼ to ½ cent.

Fix Corn Loan Rate.

The Commodity Credit corporation disclosed it would lend farmers 90.1 cents a bushel on the 1943 corn crop, or 85 per cent of parity. Loans on the 1942 crop averaged 81 cents. The official order covering the loan rate is expected to be issued soon. Current open market prices on cash corn are well above the loan rate, old No. 2 yellow bringing $1.07 at Chicago, equal to the parity price.

Failure of the office of price administration to place ceiling prices on wheat, oats, barley, rye and hay, following last week's disclosure that such action would be taken soon, is reported to be curtailing professional speculation in a majority of grains. A large part of the business in wheat has been in connection with purchases and sales of cash grain.

Await Parity Report.

Washington reports indicated the wheat ceiling would be set at parity shortly after determination of the Nov. 15 parity figure, announcement of which is expected next Monday.

No rain was reported in the dry sections of the winter wheat belt in the west and southwest, but recent precipitation is reported to have benefited the crop in Illinois.

Country offerings of cash corn continued relatively light, but the movement to terminal markets was fairly large. Harvesting of Illinois corn is about completed in sections where mechanical pickers are used.

SUPPORT PRICE HOLDS UP ONLY FOR BEST HOGS

Pressure on the federal price floor of $13.75 a hundred pounds in the Chicago stock yards for good to choice 200 to 270 pound hogs increased yesterday as all other classes fell far below that support price. Buyers gave $13.75 only for sorted 220 to 270 pounders.

The best of the "government weights" sold steady with last week's close, but others were off 10 to 25 cents and were mostly 75 cents to $1.75 under the "floor," which was the top price for the 11th consecutive market session. The average, down 10 cents to $13.45, was the lowest since July 20, and only 10 cents above the 1943 low.

Trading in cattle was extremely slow, with most prices weak. Lambs sold at strong to 25 cents higher prices, with the top at $13.75.

URGES INDUSTRY TO UTILIZE HUGE WOOD WASTAGE

Canadian Says 70 Pct. of Tree Is Lost.

BY HAL FOUST.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Montreal, Que., Nov. 22.—Dr. Harold Hibbert, scientist recently engaged as a research consultant by the Ontario Paper company, this afternoon described a new multimillion dollar chemical industry as a potentiality from processing waste sulphite liquor which now is poured into streams at American woodpulp mills. In 15 years at McGill university here, the 66 year old professor of industrial and cellulose chemistry won an international reputation for his knowledge of wood.

Dr. Hibbert's new field is to advance a war time enterprise of the Ontario Paper company, Canadian subsidiary of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE, which introduced to the western hemisphere a modern process for salvaging alcohol from the woodpulp mill sewage. This alcohol was the main raw material for Tribbuna rubber for tires tested by THE TRIBUNE on streets, highways, and byways from coast to coast and from Mexico to Canada.

One Ingredient Used.

The production of alcohol, however, utilizes only one ingredient of the waste liquor, the sugar from the wood. This sugar, at the Ontario Paper company mills, also is used to grow yeast.

"In addition to 100,000 tons of sugar," said Dr. Hibbert, "the Canadian woodpulp industry is annually pouring into streams a half million tons of an organic substance known as lignin, 40,000 tons of acetic acid, 8,000 tons of wood alcohol, and the equivalent of 67,000 tons of lime, and 92,000 tons of sulphur—practically all of which represents, today, a total loss."

These figures can be multiplied by 1.7 for an estimate of the comparable tonnage of waste by the woodpulp industry in the United States.

70 Per Cent Wasted.

"In no other industry," Hibbert said, "is there such waste of raw material as is the case in marketing the tree. In the combined industries of lumbering, furniture, and paper making, only 30 per cent of the tree finds its way into finished products. In the woodpulp mills alone, it takes two tons of logs to make one ton of paper; the other ton is washed into streams as sulphite liquor.

"Lignin, the substance which cements the fibres in wood, has been a mystery until quite recently. Newer knowledge promises that it can be transformed into a wide variety of synthetic products. The objective is to use lignin as a raw material for a vast new chemical industry.

Outlines Many Uses.

"The use of lignin for the manufacture of plastics, special types of wallboard, and laminated paper products is undergoing remarkable development at the moment. New types of nylon, varnishes and lacquer should be obtainable from a new method of liquifying waste wood, a process similar to the liquification of coal to obtain gasoline and coal tar products.

"Inasmuch as Canadian international exchange is closely bound up with the pulp and paper industry, a more effective use of Canadian forest resources would greatly benefit the dominion's economy."

SMALL BUSINESS 'BREAK' ASKED IN TERMINATIONS

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22 (AP).—Small business today asked congress for a "break" in contract terminations and distribution of surplus government goods when the war ends. The post-war committee, headed by Sen. Walter F. George [D., Ga.] heard a plea by Lou Holland, Kansas City, Mo., former head of the Smaller War Plants corporation, that congress help the "little fellow" regain his old status in the period after the war.

David R. Craig, president of the American Retail federation, told the committee bidding on war accumulated government surpluses should be opened to all and that speculators should be prevented from gaining control.

McKESSON & ROBBINS.

Please review McKesson & Robbins.—C. J.

Answer: The company is the nation's largest wholesaler of drug products, a large manufacturer of proprietary drug products, and an important distributor of liquor, with interests in two distilleries.

Since its reorganization after the discovery of frauds by a former officer, the company has greatly strengthened its financial position and has recorded substantial earnings. For the fiscal year ended June 30, 1943, net income was $5,097,371, equal to $2.85 a common share, against $5,318,538, or $2.99 a share, for the preceding fiscal year.

For the quarter ended Sept. 30, last, net income was $1,226,443, or 69 cents a share, against $891,367, or 49 cents a share, for the 1942 period.

In October the company sold 150,000 shares of new $4 cumulative preferred stock to augment funds for redeeming its entire outstanding funded debt and 5¼ per cent preferred stock. Remaining capitalization will consist of the new preferred and 1,682,726 shares of $18 par common stock. An initial dividend of 25 cents a share was paid on the common in December, 1940, and in 1942 payments totaled $1 a share. Payments in 1943 have totaled $1.15 a share.

COURTS DENIED POWER IN RAIL UNION DISPUTES

Mediation Board Gets Final Authority.

Unless it is plain that congress intended to afford judicial remedies, the court said that it must be assumed that congress "fashioned a remedy available only in other tribunals."

Relies on Voluntary Process.

"There may be, as a result, many areas in this field where neither the administrative or judicial function can be utilized," the opinion added. "But that is only to be expected where congress still places such great reliance on the voluntary process of conciliation, mediation, and arbitration."

The court did not rule on the merits of the three controversies. But its decision that courts did not have the right of review left in effect the national mediation board's certification of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen as the bargaining representative of all yardmen employed by the New York Central railroad company, and mediation agreements between the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and the Missouri-Kansas-Texas railroad and the Southern Pacific company.

JOINS RAIL PAY PLEA

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22 (AP).—Sen. Walter F. George [D., Ga.] appealed to War Mobilization Director James F. Byrnes today to head off a threatened strike of non-operating railway employes—without possible intervention by congress — by attempting some adjustment of their wage dispute.

Joining Sen. Robert F. Wagner [D., N. Y.] in efforts to obtain a speedy end to the controversy, which now revolves around stabilization Director Fred M. Vinson's refusal to approve an 8 cents an hour increase, George said he thought it unwise to bring the issue before congress at this time as proposed by Sen. Harry S. Truman [D., Mo.].

"If congress intervenes in any wage dispute," George said, "I don't see how it can avoid intervention in other similar controversies that may arise. I hope it can be worked out otherwise."

General Foods Acquires Jersey Cereal Company

The Jersey Cereal company, with headquarters in Chicago and plants at Irwin, Pa., and St. Joseph, Mo., has been purchased by the General Foods corporation, Austin S. Igleheart, president of General Foods, announced yesterday. The corporation will issue 35,000 additional shares of common stock to pay for the addition. The cereal company's plants and offices will continue with their present operations, Igleheart said.

Pacific Vet Accepts Army Ordnance Award for Plant

The army ordnance banner for meritorious production was presented employes of the Acme Steel company Archer plant, 2840 Archer avenue, yesterday. Oliver Blakney, a veteran of Pearl Harbor and Guadalcanal, was one of the factory representatives to receive the award from Capt. L. C. McEvoy of the ordnance department. Blakney has been working at the plant since his discharge from the army because of wounds and malaria.

ASK MORE CORN TO KEEP UP MILK AND EGG SUPPLY

New York, Nov. 22 (AP).—Fresh milk and eggs in sufficient quantity to supply the population of the 10 northeastern states is entirely dependent upon reëstablishing a flow of corn into this area from the midwest, a special governors' feed conference announced today.

"The flow of corn," said a statement issued by representatives of the 10 states, "has been and is now blocked by artificial price relationships. The government guaranteed floor price under hogs and the government ceiling on corn have made it impractical for the midwestern farmer to sell his corn to eastern markets where it is required for milk and egg production."

Earlier, H. E. Babcock, chairman of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's New York state emergency food committee, said some state had only two days' supply of corn, and that the squeeze on food shortages would "hit the consumer hard" on Feb. 1, unless the government acts to save the situation.

A NIGHT OWL
TALKS . . .

I'm Miss "B." I work on the NIGHT OWL SHIFT from 11 p. m. to 7 a. m. at Wards. Hard Work? ? ? NO, it's clean and light . . . easy to do . . . requires no experience and the pay is good.

The really nice part about this night owl shift is having the days to go shopping or get in my special activities. Many girls with husbands in the service are down here, too, also mothers who like the daytime hours free for their children.

We like it at Wards and the liberal employe discount on everything we buy really makes our dollars S-T-R-E-T-C-H.
